14TH YEAR. NO. 170. EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, DEC. 27, 1898. TWO CENTS

FORCE SENT TO ILOILO

Warship and Transports With Soldiers Started.

NEWS FROM DEWEY AND OTIS.

The Admiral Dispatched the Baltimore, Two Regiments of Soldiers and a Battery S nt—Active Measures to Be Taken to Suppress Lawlessness.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Cable advices were received here from General Otis, commanding the military forces in the Philippines, that he had dispatched two regiments and a battery of artillery to Ilo lo on army transports, and Admiral Dewey notified the navy department that the cruiser Baltimore had sailed from Manila for the same place.

It is explained that these officers are acting upon their own discretion in the matter and that no official advices have been received here to indicate that there is any unusual lawlessness in Iloilo.

Several days ago it was reported by way of Madrid that the Spanish forces in Iloilo had been attacked by the insurgents and had driven them back with heavy losses, but this report lacks official confirmation. The United States expedition is more in the nature of a precaution, but will take active measures for the suppression of lawlessness in case the condition of affairs requires it.

NOT BOUND BY TREATY.

Congress Has Disposit on of Philippines' Ratification of Treaty Will Not Curtail Such Privilege.

WASHINGTON, Dec 27.—Senator Frye talked to a reporter with respect to the conditions attending and resulting from the peace negotiations.

With respect to the frequently repeated statement in press dispatches that the sentiment of the powers, with the exception of England, was opposed to the United States and looked with disfavor upon the attitude of this government in dealing with Spain, Senator Frye said:

I saw no evidence of such sentiment existing outside of France and in France that sentiment appeared to be confined to the press, which does not reflect the sentiment of the nation nor of the people generally.

Do you think there will be an early restoration of cordial relations between Spain and the United States?

I think that very soon after the ratification of the peace treaty and the restoration of diplomatic relations there will be no difficulty about negotiating commercial treaties and a treaty for the release of prisoners and such other matters directed toward the perfect restoration of friendly relations between the two governments. I do not believe that the Spanish government will be at all disposed to keep up unfriendly feeling between the two governments. The making of new treaties adapted to the present conditions will be better than would the restoration of the old treaties, some features of which were obsolete.

What has been published with respect to the treaty of peace seems to indicate, does it not, that this government is not committed by these negotiations with respect to the future disposition of the territory, the Spanish sovereignty over which has been relinquished?

It indicates very strongly that this government is not committed in any way whatever with respect to the disposition and government of these islands. If we are insane enough to do so, we might give them all back to Spain after the ratification of the treaty If we were fools we might divide them up among the other foreign powers. The whole matter is left in the hands of congress. Congress can make any disposition of the islands it sees fit. The ratification of the treaty will not in any way curtail any privileges of ours in this direction.

AGAINST PROFANITY.

WILL ORGANIZE IN OTHER CITIES.

Men to Pledge Themselves to Observe the Third Commandment and Urge Others to Do So—Not Sectarian In Any Way—Present Officers.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 27. — A hundred Pittsburgers have formed an Anti-Swearing League, which is to be the nucleus of organized effort to quell the growing habit among men, evidenced in nearly every public place. The league will receive its members at a deposit of 5 cents each. Any man may become a member, and while women are not invited to membership, their assistance, if volunteered, will be accepted in an effort to extend the organization in Allegheny county to 50,000 members.

An anti-swearing leaguer does not need to be an active or passive member of any church society. He has only to pledge himself that he will make a diligent effort to stop the despised habit. He will be asked to get at least ten members to swell the membership of the organization, and by the "endless chain" plan, the membership will readily extend to the maximum. Auxiliaries will be organized in all the cities of the country. The same system of extending membership will make the movement an easy accomplishment.

Members will pledge themselves to exert their influence to accomplish the purpose of the league at every turn. A blaspheming friend, or acquaintance, will, when caught, be reminded of the inexcusable thing he is doing.

The third commandment is just as important as any other. It says: "Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord, thy God, in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain."

The organization in Pittsburg, which is to be the nucleus of this movement, has elected temporary officers and will be chartered. Its members will soon be seen on the Pittsburg streets wearing a button testifying to their membership.

It will not be sectarian in any way and will not take up the work of the church in any other matter. The present officers of the Pittsburg league are: A. P. Moore, president; John S. Flannery, vice president; O. A. Williams, secretary, and T. McKee Graham, treasurer.

V., accompanied by his aide, Lieutenant Schuyler Schiefferlin, Forty-seventh New York volunteer infantry, passed through this city on their way from Havana to New York city. According to his representations the feeling between the Spaniards and Cubans is intensely bitter, a serious rupture between the two factions being averted only by the presence of the American troops and the knowledge that the American military authorities are determined to preserve order by the prompt exercise of force in case of necessity.

The body of J. H. Cadenhead, a Dominion land surveyor, was found frozen in the ice on the Klondike river near Dawson on Oct. 27. He had broken through the ice. Unable to pull himself out, he slowly froze to death.

UNREST IN HAVANA.

Disturbances and Burglaries In Different Parts of the City.

NUMBER KILLED AND WOUNDED.

A Cuban Wounded a Spaniard For Refusing to Cry "Cuba Libre"—Marquis De Montoro's Residence Guarded by Regulars, Owing to Cuban Threats.

HAVANA, Dec. 27.—Francisco Quintero, a Spanish guerilla, while walking on Genios street was fired at from the roof of a house and seriously wounded. In 24 hours one man has been killed and 12 have been wounded in affrays in different parts of the city and eleven burglaries have been committed. The city is in a state of unrest.

A party of colored Cubans entered the wholesale grocery establishment at 113 San Jose street, owned by the Spanish firm of Mestro & Mata, and ordered Senor Mestro to kiss the Cuban flag and to cry "viva Cuba Libre." He refused to obey, whereupon one of the Cubans cut his head badly with a machete.

A Cuban mob threatened to attack the residence of Marquis de Montoro, secretary of the treasury in the autonomist cabinet and a member of the Spanish evacuation commission. The house is 193 Neptune street, in a part of the city already evacuated. On the matter being brought to the attention of the United States evacuation commissioners a guard of regulars was sent to guard the residence until further orders.

Some disturbances having occurred in San Lazare street and a Spanish store there having been sacked by the Cubans, the United States commissioners have sent a staff officer with a detachment of troops to the scene of disorder. The Eighth and Tenth regular infantry regiments are encamped near the Hotel Trocha, the headquarters of the Americans at El Elvado.

The Spanish troops are evacuating the city so rapidly that it is almost impossible for the Americans to provide promptly for the preservation of peace.

KISSED AMERICANS.

Lively Demonstration In an Havana Suburb—Fatal Shootings — Number Wounded In the City.

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—A censored special cable to The Tribune from Havana says in part:

Rioting begnn at Monserrat. A battalion of Spanish troops hurried from the barracks on the Prado to Galiano street, the dividing lide between Cuban and Spanish territory.

Order was restored, but in the firing which occurred before the troops arrived; an 8-year old Cuban child was killed by a stray bullet.

Spanish territory in the new world is now limited to a narrow strip of land between Havana harbor and Galino street. The flags of Cuba libre and the United States are waving within two blocks of the Prado, a great boulevard which runs through the center of Havana.

Monserrat having been evacuated, the place was alive with Cubans and people from the United States. Crowds of men and women waving Cuban and American flags and carrying branches of trees paraded the streets shouting and singing.

Many Americans went over to see the demonstration. They did not remain long. Owing to the intense enthusiasm the population insisted on kissing the "bravo Americanos" whether they wanted to be kissed or not.

Several affrays took place between the Spanish residents and the Cubans. A grocery keeper on Oquendo street refused to put out the Cuban colors and was beaten almost to death with sticks. As evening came on the demonstration became noisier than ever, as many of the negroes parading were drunk and greatly excited. The Americans became fearful of another clash with the Spanish troops like that which ushered in Christmas day.

Francesco Luintreso, a Spanish volunteer, patrolling the street near the Prado, was fired at from a house top and killed. A Cuban was killed in another part of the city. Half a dozen Cubans and Spaniards were shot or stabbed in affrays about the city.

There was a fight between Cubans and Spaniards in front of the United States club. Several of the participants were badly cut with machetes.

Many American soldiers who were in town behaved so boisterously that General Ludlow said he was sorry that they were permitted to come into Havana and that in future none would be admitted except on strictly military business.

Congress Has Disposition of Philippines' Ratification of Treaty Will Not Curtail Such Privilege.

It indicates very strongly that this government is not committed in any way whatever with respect to the disposition and government of these islands. If we are insane enough to do so, we might give them all back to Spain after the ratification of the treaty. If we were fools we might divide them up among the other foreign powers. ENOUGH FOOD AT DAWSON.

People on the Way Out—A Man Frozen to Death.

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 27. — The steamer Farallon has arrived from Alaska with a nuumber of passengers from Dawson direct who came out over the ice.

The trail is good and a large number of people are on the way out.

Among the passengers is Jack Carr, Yukon mail carrier, who left Dawson Nov. 21. He said the population of Dawson City had materially decreased, it being estimated at 16,000. Cost of living has also decreased, good meals costing but $1. There will be no food shortage this winter.

The body of J. H. Cadenhead, a Dominion land surveyor, was found frozen in the ice on the Klondike river near Dawson on Oct. 27. He had broken through the ice. Unable to pull himself out, he slowly froze to death.

SEVERAL FROZEN TO DEATH.

Much More Gold Likely to Be Taken Out In Klondike.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 27.—A special from Dawson City, dated Nov. 14, said in part: Reports from all creeks in the vicinity of Dawson City indicate that the winter's product of gold will exceed that of last year by more than 100 per cent.

Several persons are reported to have been frozen to death. One of these was found in a kneeling position beside his sled and dogs between Hunker and the summit.

Several steamers are in winter quarters on the upper river, prepared to take advantage of the first rush of traffic.

UNREST IN HAVANA.

Disturbances and Burglaries In Different Parts of the City.

NUMBER KILLED AND WOUNDED.

A Cuban Wounded a Spaniard For Refusing to Cry "Cuba Libre"—Marquis De Montoro's Residence Guarded by Regulars, Owing to Cuban Threats.

HAVANA, Dec. 27.—Francisco Quintero, a Spanish guerilla, while walking on Genios street was fired at from the roof of a house and seriously wounded. In 24 hours one man has been killed and 12 have been wounded in affrays in different parts of the city and eleven burglaries have been committed. The city is in a state of unrest.

A party of colored Cubans entered the wholesale grocery establishment at 113 San Jose street, owned by the Spanish firm of Mestro & Mata, and ordered Senor Mestro to kiss the Cuban flag and to cry "viva Cuba Libre." He refused to obey, whereupon one of the Cubans cut his head badly with a machete.

A Cuban mob threatened to attack the residence of Marquis de Montoro, secretary of the treasury in the autonomist cabinet and a member of the Spanish evacuation commission. The house is 193 Neptune street, in a part of the city already evacuated. On the matter being brought to the attention of the United States evacuation commissioners a guard of regulars was sent to guard the residence until further orders.

Some disturbances having occurred in San Lazare street and a Spanish store there having been sacked by the Cubans, the United States commissioners have sent a staff officer with a detachment of troops to the scene of disorder. The Eighth and Tenth regular infantry regiments are encamped near the Hotel Trocha, the headquarters of the Americans at El Elvado.

The Spanish troops are evacuating the city so rapidly that it is almost impossible for the Americans to provide promptly for the preservation of peace.

KISSED AMERICANS.

Lively Demonstration In an Havana Suburb—Fatal Shootings — Number Wounded In the City.

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—A censored special cable to The Tribune from Havana says in part:

Rioting begnn at Monserrat. A battalion of Spanish troops hurried from the barracks on the Prado to Galiano street, the dividing lide between Cuban and Spanish territory.

Order was restored, but in the firing which occurred before the troops arrived; an 8-year old Cuban child was killed by a stray bullet.

Spanish territory in the new world is now limited to a narrow strip of land between Havana harbor and Galino street. The flags of Cuba libre and the United States are waving within two blocks of the Prado, a great boulevard which runs through the center of Havana.

Monserrat having been evacuated, the place was alive with Cubans and people from the United States. Crowds of men and women waving Cuban and American flags and carrying branches of trees paraded the streets shouting and singing.

Many Americans went over to see the demonstration. They did not remain long. Owing to the intense enthusiasm the population insisted on kissing the 'bravo Americanos" whether they wanted to be kissed or not.

Several affrays took place between the Spanish residents and the Cubans. A grocery keeper on Oquendo street refused to put out the Cuban colors and was beaten almost to death with sticks. As evening came on the demonstration became noisier than ever, as many of the negroes parading were drunk and greatly excited. The Americans became fearful of another clash with the Spanish troops like that which ushered in Christmas day.

Francesco Luinteso, a Spanish volunteer, patrolling the street near the Prado, was fired at from a house top and killed. A Cuban was killed in another part of the city. Half a dozen Cubans and Spaniards were shot or stabbed in affrays about the city.

There was a fight between Cubans and Spaniards in front of the United States club. Several of the participants were badly cut with machetes.

Many American soldiers who were in town behaved so boisterously that General Ludlow said he was sorry that they were permitted to come into Havana and that in future none would be admitted except on strictly military business.

EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

FORCE SENT TO ILOILO

Warship and Transports With Soldiers Started.

NEWS FROM DEWEY AND OTIS.

The Admiral Dispatched the Baltimore. Two Regiments of Soldiers and a Battery Sent—Active Measures to Be Taken to Suppress Lawlessness.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Cable advices were received here from General Otis, commanding the military forces in the Philippines, that he had dispatched two regiments and a battery of artillery to Iloilo on army transports, and Admiral Dewey notified the navy department that the cruiser Baltimore had sailed from Manila for the same place.

It is explained that these officers are acting upon their own discretion in the matter and that no official advices have been received here to indicate that there is any unusual lawlessness in Iloilo.

Several days ago it was reported by way of Madrid that the Spanish forces in Iloilo had been attacked by the insurgents and had driven them back with heavy losses, but this report lacks official confirmation. The United States expedition is more in the nature of a precaution, but will take active measures for the suppression of lawlessness in case the condition of affairs requires it.

NOT BOUND BY TREATY.

Congress Has Disposition of Philippines' Ratification of Treaty Will Not Curtail Such Privilege.

WASHINGTON, Dec 27.—Senator Frye talked to a reporter with respect to the conditions attending and resulting from the peace negotiations.

With respect to the frequently repeated statement in press dispatches that the sentiment of the powers, with the exception of England, was opposed to the United States and looked with disfavor upon the attitude of this government in dealing with Spain, Senator Frye said:

I saw no evidence of such sentiment existing outside of France and in France that sentiment appeared to be confined to the press, which does not reflect the sentiment of the nation nor of the people generally.

Do you think there will be an early restoration of cordial relations between Spain and the United States?

I think that very soon after the ratification of the peace treaty and the restoration of diplomatic relations there will be no difficulty about negotiating commercial treaties and a treaty for the release of prisoners and such other matters directed toward the perfect restoration of friendly relations between the two governments. I do not believe that the Spanish government will be at all disposed to keep up unfriendly feeling between the two governments. The making of new treaties adapted to the present conditions will be better than would the restoration of the old treaties, some features of which were obsolete.

What has been published with respect to the treaty of peace seems to indicate, does it not, that this government is not committed by these negotiations with respect to the future disposition of the territory, the Spanish sovereignty over which has been relinquished?

It indicates very strongly that this government is not committed in any way whatever with respect to the disposition and government of these islands. If we are insane enough to do so, we might give them all back to Spain after the ratification of the treaty. If we were fools we might divide them up among the other foreign powers. The whole matter is left in the hands of congress. Congress can make any disposition of the islands it sees fit. The ratification of the treaty will not in any way curtail any privileges of ours in this direction.

SEVEN DEATHS.

General Otis Reported the Demise of Soldiers In the Philippines.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—The following cable message was received at the war department from General Otis, dated at Manila, dated Dec. 26.

"Following deaths since last report—Dec. 16, Frank N. Knouse, private, Company C, First Nebraska, drowned in Pasig river, accident; Dec. 18, Marvin M. Carleton, sergeant, Company E, Thirteenth Minnesota, gunshot wound, accident; Dec. 19, Fred Taylor, private, Company L, First Nebraska, typhoid fever; Dec. 20, Frank C. Hayden, private, Company D, Fourteenth infantry, ulcer of stomach; Joe D. Wilson, private, Company L, Twenty-third infantry, smallpox; David J. Saunders, private, Company I, First Colorado, smallpox; Nov. 29, Ole G. Hagberg, sergeant Company D, First Idaho, exhaustion following typhoid fever, not previously reported."

AGUINALDO REPORTED FRIENDLY.

Said to Have Tried to Overcome Opposition to the Americans.

MANILA, Dec. 27.—The so-called congress of the revolutionary government of the Filipinos, which has been in session for some time at Malolos, unexpectedly adjourned, owing to the difficulty of formulating a constitution.

General Aguinaldo came to Santa Anna, a suburb of Manila. He then visited Paterno, and it was reported he had gone to Cavite Viejo, the old town of Cavite. Reliable advices say that while he was at Paterno he was indefatigable in his efforts to overcome the policy of the militant faction, which is hostile to the Americans. It is probable that his influence will avail to avert trouble.

Gen. Bates With Some Ohio Soldiers and Others to Embark.

MACON, Ga., Dec. 27.—General Bates, in command of the First division, First Army corps, arrived here from Washington, and with his staff and some 40 men of the Second Ohio regiment and the Third Engineers left for Charleston, where they will embark on the transport Minnewaska for Cuba.

A RICH MAN'S MISSION.

Lindus Cody Going to Cuba to Start Mission Work For the Christian Alliance.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 27.—Lindus Cody, a wealthy real estate dealer of this city, who is an enthusiastic supporter of President Simpson of the Christian alliance, will depart for Cuba Jan. 9, for the purpose of starting mission work on the island in behalf of the alliance. Mr. Cody talked the matter over with President Simpson last summer and won his interest. He contributed a liberal sum as the nucleus of the necessary fund, which has since increased to several thousand dollars. Rev. Samuel L. Renicks of New York will accompany Mr. Cody, also a worker in the alliance who can speak Spanish. One of the large tents used at the Christian Alliance campmeetings will be set up at Santiago and the work commenced there, the design being to thence branch out over the island. As soon as the work is well under way, Mr. Cody will return to America.

A LIMA BANK ROBBED.

Over $18,000 Mysteriously Disappeared From American National—Apparent Work of Professionals.

LIMA, O., Dec. 27.—There has been a mysterious robbery at the American National bank, the amount stolen being placed at $18,162. The janitor discovered the door of the vault open. The inner doors were opened by President Michael and Cashier Kalb, when it was found that all gold and paper money in the bank had been carried away, although the racks of silver money were untouched.

A deposit of $16,000 made on Saturday night was gone.

The directors of the bank held a meeting, at which an assessment was made to meet the deficiency, and other banks in the city offered assistance.

The manner of entrance to the bank of the robbers is a mystery, as all windows are protected with heavy iron screens. The front door was found locked as usual. There was not the slightest clue for detectives to work upon. The robbery apparently was the work of professionals.

WANTED BY WIRE TRUST.

Negotiations Commenced For the Cleveland Rolling Mill Plant.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 27.—The announcement made several days ago that overtures had been made to the Cleveland Rolling Mill company for the purchase of its big plant by the wire trust has been confirmed.

President H. A. Chisholm states that an offer had been made to his company and that action would be taken upon it next month, when the proposition can be laid before the stockholders at the regular annual meeting. Mr. Chisholm would not make public the offer made to the company, but he did say that he thought it would likely be accepted.

The Cleveland rolling mill plant is among the largest in the country, and employs from 3,000 to 5,000 men.

CANAL DOVER, O., Dec. 27.—The Black plate plant of the Reeves Iron company, which manufactures plates for the tinning plant here, owned by Philadelphia capitalists, has been sold to the American tin mill trust, recently organized, with headquarters at Chicago. Negotiations are also pending for the sale of the tinning plant.

Likely Burned by Her Husband.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 27.—Mrs. Winnie Hearney, aged 28 years, was found badly burned at her home in the tenement building at 105 Detroit street. Her bed was partly burned. Her husband, Joseph Hearney, a laborer, said a lamp exploded. The police obtained from the 9-year-old daughter the statement that Hearney came home intoxicated and because his wife would not get out of bed and cook him a meal, soaked some rags in coal oil, lighted them and threw them on her bed. The police placed Hearney under arrest.

Opposed to Weyler.

MADRID, Dec. 27.—The cabinet discussed various matters and it is asserted that Marshals Blanco, Campos, Primo de Rivera and Lopez Dominquez strongly oppose General Weyler's entrance into the ministry.

AGAINST PROFANITY.

Anti-Swearing League Formed In Pittsburg.

WILL ORGANIZE IN OTHER CITIES.

Men to Pledge Themselves to Observe the Third Commandment and Urge Others to Do So—Not Sectarian In Any Way—Present Officers.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 27. — A hundred Pittsburgers have formed an Anti-Swearing League, which is to be the nucleus of organized effort to quell the growing habit among men, evidenced in nearly every public place. The league will receive its members at a deposit of 5 cents each. Any man may become a member, and while women are not invited to membership, their assistance, if volunteered, will be accepted in an effort to extend the organization in Allegheny county to 50,000 members.

An anti-swearing leaguer does not need to be an active or passive member of any church society. He has only to pledge himself that he will make a diligent effort to stop the despised habit. He will be asked to get at least ten members to swell the membership of the organization, and by the "endless chain" plan, the membership will readily extend to the maximum. Auxiliaries will be organized in all the cities of the country. The same system of extending membership will make the movement an easy accomplishment.

Members will pledge themselves to exert their influence to accomplish the purpose of the league at every turn. A blaspheming friend, or acquaintance, will, when caught, be reminded of the inexcusable thing he is doing.

The third commandment is just as important as any other. It says: "Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord, thy God, in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain."

The organization in Pittsburg, which is to be the nucleus of this movement, has elected temporary officers and will be chartered. Its members will soon be seen on the Pittsburg streets wearing a button testifying to their membership.

It will not be sectarian in any way and will not take up the work of the church in any other matter. The present officers of the Pittsburg league are: A. P. Moore, president; John S. Flannery, vice president; O. A. Williams, secretary, and T. McKee Graham, treasurer.

GREENE EXPECTS TROUBLE.

He Believes American Forces Can Control the Situation In Havana—The General Will Resign.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Major General Francis V. Greene, U. S. V., accompanied by his aide, Lieutenant Schuyler Schiefferlin, Forty-seventh New York volunteer infantry, passed through this city on their way from Havana to New York city. General Greene paid a flying visit to the war department and consulted with Adjutant General Corbin.

He said there would undoubtedly be trouble in the maintenance of order pending the transfer of the control of affairs from the Spanish government to the United States military authorities, but that he did not anticipate that it would reach proportions beyond the control of the American forces. According to his representations the feeling between the Spaniards and Cubans is intensely bitter, a serious rupture between the two factions being averted only by the presence of the American troops and the knowledge that the American military authorities are determined to preserve order by the prompt exercise of force in case of necessity.

General Greene has large private interests in New York state and gave notice to the adjutant general of his desire to be relieved from further military service.

WARNING PROCLAMATION.

American Evacuation Commissioners Tell Citizens of Cuba They Must Keep the Peace.

HAVANA, Dec. 27.—The American evacuation commissioners issued a proclamation to the inhabitants of the island of Cuba announcing the terms of the evacuation agreement, saying that the Spaniards have well treated them and they propose to accord them good treatment and warning them that any violation of the terms of agreement or any causing of irritation or trouble will be met with serious punishment. The terms of the agreement have been pretty thoroughly covered in these dispatches recently, also the plans for the evacuation ceremonies.

DEAD IN THE CREEK

Isaac Reed Was Found Early Yesterday Morning.

HAD BEEN MISSED LATE SUNDAY

His Wife Searched For Him Throughout the Night, and Eventually Gave Up--The Body Was Discovered by a Little Girl-Heart Failure Given as the Cause.

Isaac Reed, colored, aged 60 years, was found dead in Carpenter's run in California hollow yesterday morning at 8:15 o'clock. He was the eldest son of Boss Reed and was one of the best known characters about the city. Apoplexy was the cause of his death.

The circumstances surrounding the death of Reed are peculiar. Sunday evening he left his home, situated in the ravine west from Trentvale street, to call upon a neighbor. He walked to West Market street, and after talking to several acquaintances went to Trentvale street. He stopped at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Burrows, and after remaining there a short time started for home. He took the road running along the run and midway between his home and that of Burrows he fell dead, a portion of his head lying in the water. His wife searched all of Sunday night, but was unable to find him, although she met several people who said they had seen him. Yesterday morning a small daughter of Mr. Burrows discovered the body and immediately notified her parents, who went to the scene. Mr. Burrows was reluctant about pulling the body from the water until the authorities had been notified. Mrs. Burrows pulled the lifeless body from the water and notified his family, who had it removed to their home.

Yesterday afternoon Justice Rose and Doctor Clark made an examination of the body, and heart failure was pronounced the cause of death.

The arrangements for the funeral have not been completed as yet, although it has been learned the interment will be made in Spring Grove cemetery.

Robert Webb, aged 72 years, was buried this afternoon at 2 o'clock in Riverview cemetery. Deceased was born in England and came to Liverpool 19 years ago. He was employed in several of the potteries until several years ago, and potters' complaint was assigned as the cause of death. Services were held in the Salvation Army barracks, the family being members of that organization.

PEDDLERS IN MANILA.

Street Venders and Some of the Wares They Handle.

ENTERTAINING MONKEY PEDDLERS

Odd Birds That Are Sold For Pets. Curious Methods of Barbers In Manila. Where Washing the Face Is Dispensed With by the Operator.

Arthur C. Johnson, special war correspondent of The Rocky Mountain News, writing from Manila under the date of Oct. 28 about the city's street venders, says:

The city of Manila at present is certainly the paradise of the peddler. If the inhabitants of the city will not buy, there is the ever ready United States soldier who will. There is a fruit vender squatting in every shady nook and plenty of shops which seem to thrive in the refreshment business. Every few days there appears on the streets a man or woman who has just "blown in" from the country with something new to inveigle coin from the soldiers. They seldom leave town without they have got rid of their stock and have the money for the same jingling in their belt pocket.

These peddlers all furnish entertainment even if they don't sell their wares very rapidly, and perhaps the most entertainment is furnished by the monkey peddler. He carries a large cage constructed from thin bamboo strips in which are the majority of his catch of monkeys. Probably two are playing tag around his neck and up and down his arms.

Monkeys are sold on the streets of Manila at the rate of from 1 to 3 pesos. None of them seems to have any particular training. Often the peddler takes considerable pains with his catch before bringing it to town and fixes each little beast up in some fancy manner. He trims the tails of some and in the ears of others he puts little gold plated earrings. In selling earringed monkeys he makes a big talk for the solid gold that goes with him. The monkey peddler sometimes entertains prospective patrons by letting the whole of his bunch out of their cage, where they have been keeping up an incessant chattering. There is a scattering for freedom in all directions. The soldiers appreciate nothing so much as they do the monkey's penchant for hunting fleas, and if a small dog is handy Mr. Monk is willing to keep at it all day, even if he be unrewarded by a single flea.

The natives of the Philippines make quite a business of birdcatching. By means of ingenious traps constructed from bamboo they catch little canaries and titmice, which in the city bring fair prices among those who like pets. The bird woman, or man, as the case may be, generally has her catch in a temporary wicker cage. In some instances the peddler does up her birds by pairs in tiny little cages all ready to sell at 5 cents per bundle. The cheapest birds are the little brown sparrows who have few accomplishments beyond a vivacious chatter and voracious appetites. The fawn colored birds with a collar of red and a bill almost in the shape of a parrot bring $2 a pair. The natives often have the bright green little parrot birds for sale. None of them can talk.

The cane seller is another of Manila's street characters. He walks up and down the Escolta with ten or a dozen ebony canes in a bag and a couple in his hand, which he thrusts out to passers by and offers to sell at prices less than a dollar. The natives are very clever at cutting and polishing ebony into graceful walking sticks, also the cocoa wood.

The soldier who is out after the real startler in the cane line buys one which consists of a piece of tapering cocoa wood covered over with the skin of a snake. In Manila the Chinese dry goods merchant goes around from house to house with a stack of linens and prints on his shoulder. When the soldiers came to town, he included socks and undershirts.

There are certain natives and Chinese who have nothing to peddle about the streets but their profession. These are barbers and car cleaners. Great numbers of these dispense with room rent and travel from one shady spot to another with a small stool on which their patrons seat themselves. The barber, who is often a Chinaman, is armed with a clumsy looking three cornered razor with a curved edge. As a whetter he carries a tiny hone in his left hand. The customer seats himself bolt upright on the stool and wears a worried look while the barber produces a half wet rag and gives the whisker region of his face a wipe or two and proceeds to business. It is almost a "dry shave," but the shavee seems not to mind it. The razor is very sharp and does its work well. A Philippine shave differs from the American shave in a startling particular, and that is the shaving of the bridge of the nose. This is the last motion the barber makes. With a graceful sweep he draws the razor along the nose, glances carefully around the face to see that it has been well scraped and demands his two centavos from the customer. No washing is considered necessary.

Garcia's Colored Servant.

The late General Garcia had an aged colored servant who was born a slave upon his father's plantation and was brought up with him from childhood. The old negro followed him in all his wars and shared his prison cells and sat beside his bed when the general breathed his last. Every time his master groaned he would groan also, and the death which came to the one will not let the other linger much longer. The faithful servant does not care to live now. His interest in life is gone and no one would be surprised if he died of grief within a short time.—Washington Cor. Chicago Record.

A Dream of Past Christmases.

Last night I sat by the old fireplace,
And I saw in the embers' glow
A toddling form and a laughing face
That I knew in the long ago.
I thought I heard at the side of my chair
A voice that I used to hear
Repeating the words of an evening prayer
Timidly, low and clear,
And I thought I heard the good night word
From the toddling form in white.
I knew that I dreamed, but, oh, it seemed
So real in the flickering light!

I thought I saw in the corner dim
Last night, as I used to see,
A tiny sock that was hung by him
On Christmas eve with glee,
That the children's saint might see it there
And know that a little boy
Had gone to bed with an earnest prayer
For the morrow's Christmas joy;
But I heard no beat of pattering feet,
As I did in bygone years.
I knew I but dreamed, and, oh, it seemed
That my heart would drown in tears!

SACRIFICE ON A SHIP.

Extraordinary Rites of Malay and Lascar Sailors.

ORIENTALISM IN PHILADELPHIA.

Heathen Deity Is Worshiped Under the British Flag—Sailors Offer Up a Sheep as a Tribute to the Gods of a New Country—Carry a Priest With Them Who Does Little but Officiate at the Bloody Ceremonies.

On the deck of a British steamer, the City of Dublin, and beneath the shadow of the union jack, which waved in the breeze from her masthead, there were enacted the other day ceremonies the most strange and weird ever witnessed in Philadelphia.

Had the crew been Americans, Englishmen or any other civilized nationality, the strange proceedings would have rendered the participants fit candidates for a lunatic asylum, but as the entire company, with the exception of four men, are full fledged Malays and lascars from the Malayan archipelago the performance excited only the most unbounded astonishment, not unmixed with fear on the part of those who witnessed it.

It is rather singular that there should be so many of that fierce oriental race represented on the City of Dublin. Vessels have reached Philadelphia before carrying six or sometimes a dozen who had been shipped in faroff ports to fill up the ranks of the former crew depleted by sickness or death, but probably never has a captain visited Philadelphia before the arrival of Captain Rae of the City of Dublin who evidently preferred these yellow skinned individuals to his own countrymen.

He shipped the odd assortment on the voyage out from London to Pekalongean, of which the present voyage is the conclusion, at Port Said and Aden, Arabia. He intended getting rid of them at Colombo, Ceylon, but they proved themselves such good men that he engaged more, until nearly all the original members of the crew were discharged.

The City of Dublin came up the river on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 10, and dropped anchor in the stream off Spreckels' refinery. She was boarded late that day by the inspector. Everything was all right about the manifests, and Captain Rae was told that he could tie up to pier 61 when he was ready.

"I won't be able to go into berth tonight," he replied. "There will be a high old time on board the vessel before she reaches the pier unless I am greatly mistaken."

Sunday morning there was quite a respectable crowd gathered on the quarter deck of the City of Dublin.

"According to the dictates of their religion," said Captain Rae, "they are about to celebrate their arrival in port by a ceremony which is probably the most remarkable you have ever heard of."

The crew assembled forward. A circle was formed, in the center of which appeared a weird figure. He was the priest, a character whose absence has never yet been noticed from a gathering of these singular people.

"They brought him all the way over at their own expense," said Captain Rae, "and he has had an easy berth. Unless I am in error he will now play the part of a butcher."

A dramatic scene was then enacted. The bleating of a sheep was heard, and two swarthy lascars broke into the circle, where stood the priest alone, dragging after them the terrified animal. At the same moment the crew broke into a curious chant or recitative, while the priest threw the struggling animal to the deck, placing his foot firmly upon its head. The next instant he had buried the knife into the heart of the unfortunate beast, and with incredible swiftness tore the organ from the body.

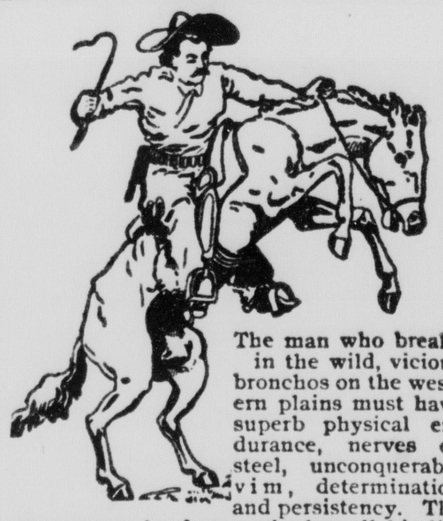

The crowd of devotees then prostrated themselves on the deck and were sprinkled with blood from the dripping morsels which were cut off by the priest. In conclusion he raised the heart three times above his head and hurled it into the water. The body of the sheep then followed suit.

About half an hour afterward, when the decks of the City of Dublin were cleared from all evidences of the sacrifice, the participants sat down to the first meal they had eaten since entering the capes 48 hours before.

The evening sunlight was streaming through a porthole when Captain Rae entered the forecastle to observe the men at their mess. The shadow of the captain at that moment fell across the table. With a volley of Cingalese oaths all that portion of food which had been touched by the shadow went flying into the sea, hurled by the indignant hands of the Malays, who saw contamination even in that contact with a Christian.

Early to Bed and Early to Rise.

Lord Salisbury always rises early and takes a walk of three or four miles before breakfast. From breakfast till 1 o'clock he is absolutely alone, and at this time nothing short of a message from the queen would reach him.—Chicago Times-Herald.

The man who breaks in the wild, vicious bronchos on the western plains must have superb physical endurance, nerves of steel, unconquerable vim, determination and persistency. The city or town bred man who has all his life humped his back over a desk, living an unhealthy, sedentary life and failed to take any care of his health, could not stay on the back of one of these vicious brutes for more than three jumps.

It takes a whole man to conquer a vicious animal. People may talk about intellectual superiority and refinement and good breeding, but every man takes off his hat to physical strength and endurance. While the man who leads a sedentary life cannot hope, in this respect, to rival these sturdy men of the plains, they can be sound, vigorous, healthy men if they will. It is a matter of care of health while one has it, and the proper measures to restore it when it is lost. Most diseases begin with some trouble of the digestive organs or of the liver. Troubles of this nature starve the body, because they prevent it from receiving its proper supply of nourishment. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery gives a man an appetite like a cow-boy's and the digestion of an ostrich. Its great work is upon the stomach, large intestines and liver. These are the organs that nourish a man's body. This medicine makes them strong, vigorous and healthy. It fills the blood with the nourishment that builds new, solid and healthy flesh, muscle and nerves.

"I am now enjoying magnificent health, after having suffered for years with chronic catarrh," writes Ramon Sanchez, Esq., of Penasco, Taos Co., New Mexico. "By the use of your 'Golden Medical Discovery' I have recovered my health, and am now, physically a sound man, attending to my business and enjoying life."

GET YOUR NOTICE?

Many East Liverpool Citizens Have Acknowledged Receipt—The Question is Important.

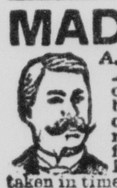

A notice means a great deal.
It all depends on the notice.
There are many kinds.
This one is serious.
It's nature's notice.
A warning note of trouble.
Neglect it not, delay is dangerous!
Where does it come? In the back.
Why does it come? Because the kidneys are sick.
How does it come? With aches and pains.
Backache, lame back and weak back are notices.
Notices of kidney trouble.
Notices to take Doan's Kidney Pills.
Don't read them wrongly.
Don't take our advice—take your neighbors.
Lots of East Liverpool people can tell you.
There are many kidney remedies.
But only one cure.
Other kidney pills — but only one Doan's.

Here's one that knows:

Mr. W. P. Cochran, of Mulberry street, East End, says: "At intervals for thirty years I had serious kidney and bladder trouble. I suffered with all the various symptoms in their worst form. The agony I went through can hardly be described. Many nights I rolled from one side to the other trying to find an easy position for my back. I could not move without having sharp twinges of pain and I was also troubled with a urinary difficulty, the secretions being very irregular and at times distressing. I ran down so that I could hardly help myself. Doctors treated me and I took a power of stuff. I had given up all hopes of being cured, having suffered so long and not finding anything that would give me relief more than a few days. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised as a never-failing remedy, I got a box at the W. & W. Pharmacy. After taking half of it I could see some improvement. I continued to improve from that time on. Doan's Kidney Pills did me more good than anything I ever used and I am quite free in expressing my opinion of them by saying that they are a good remedy for all kidney and bladder trouble."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents, or mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no other.

DEAD IN THE CREEK

Isaac Reed Was Found Early Yesterday Morning.

HAD BEEN MISSED LATE SUNDAY

His Wife Searched For Him Throughout the Night, and Eventually Gave Up--The Body Was Discovered by a Little Girl--Heart Failure Given as the Cause.

Isaac Reed, colored, aged 60 years, was found dead in Carpenter's run in California hollow yesterday morning at 8:15 o'clock. He was the eldest son of Boss Reed and was one of the best known characters about the city. Apoplexy was the cause of his death.

The circumstances surrounding the death of Reed are peculiar. Sunday evening he left his home, situated in the ravine west from Trentvale street, to call upon a neighbor. He walked to West Market street, and after talking to several acquaintances went to Trentvale street. He stopped at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Burrows, and after remaining there a short time started for home. He took the road running along the run and midway between his home and that of Burrows he fell dead, a portion of his head lying in the water. His wife searched all of Sunday night, but was unable to find him, although she met several people who said they had seen him. Yesterday morning a small daughter of Mr. Burrows discovered the body and immediately notified her parents, who went to the scene. Mr. Burrows was reluctant about pulling the body from the water until the authorities had been notified. Mrs. Burrows pulled the lifeless body from the water and notified his family, who had it removed to their home.

Yesterday afternoon Justice Rose and Doctor Clark made an examination of the body, and heart failure was pronounced the cause of death.

The arrangements for the funeral have not been completed as yet, although it has been learned the interment will be made in Spring Grove cemetery.

Robert Webb, aged 72 years, was buried this afternoon at 2 o'clock in Riverview cemetery. Deceased was born in England and came to Liverpool 19 years ago. He was employed in several of the potteries until several years ago, and potters' complaint was assigned as the cause of death. Services were held in the Salvation Army barracks, the family being members of that organization.

PEDDLERS IN MANILA.

Street Venders and Some of the Wares They Handle.

ENTERTAINING MONKEY PEDDLERS

Odd Birds That Are Sold For Pets. Curious Methods of Barbers In Manila. Where Washing the Face Is Dispensed With by the Operator.

Arthur C. Johnson, special war correspondent of The Rocky Mountain News, writing from Manila under the date of Oct. 28 about the city's street venders, says:

The city of Manila at present is certainly the paradise of the peddler. If the inhabitants of the city will not buy, there is the ever ready United States soldier who will. There is a fruit vender squatting in every shady nook and plenty of shops which seem to thrive in the refreshment business. Every few days there appears on the streets a man or woman who has just "blown in" from the country with something new to inveigle coin from the soldiers. They seldom leave town without they have got rid of their stock and have the money for the same jingling in their belt pocket.

These peddlers all furnish entertainment even if they don't sell their wares very rapidly, and perhaps the most entertainment is furnished by the monkey peddler. He carries a large cage constructed from thin bamboo strips in which are the majority of his catch of monkeys. Probably two are playing tag around his neck and up and down his arms.

Monkeys are sold on the streets of Manila at the rate of from 1 to 3 pesos. None of them seems to have any particular training. Often the peddler takes considerable pains with his catch before bringing it to town and fixes each little beast up in some fancy manner. He trims the tails of some and in the ears of others he puts little gold plated earrings. In selling earringed monkeys he makes a big talk for the solid gold that goes with him. He shipped the odd assortment on the voyage out from London to Pekalongean, of which the present voyage is the conclusion, at Port Said and Aden, Arabia. He intended getting rid of them at Colombo, Ceylon, but they proved themselves such good men that he engaged more, until nearly all the original members of the crew were discharged.

The City of Dublin came up the river on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 10, and dropped anchor in the stream off Spreckels' refinery. She was boarded late that day by the inspector. Everything was all right about the manifests, and Captain Rae was told that he could tie up to pier 61 when he was ready.

"I won't be able to go into berth tonight," he replied. "There will be a high old time on board the vessel before she reaches the pier unless I am greatly mistaken."

Sunday morning there was quite a respectable crowd gathered on the quarter deck of the City of Dublin.

"According to the dictates of their religion," said Captain Rae, "they are about to celebrate their arrival in port by a ceremony which is probably the most remarkable you have ever heard of."

The crew assembled forward. A circle was formed, in the center of which appeared a weird figure. He was the priest, a character whose absence has never yet been noticed from a gathering of these singular people.

"They brought him all the way over at their own expense," said Captain Rae, "and he has had an easy berth. Unless I am in error he will now play the part of a butcher."

A dramatic scene was then enacted. The bleating of a sheep was heard, and two swarthy lascars broke into the circle, where stood the priest alone, dragging after them the terrified animal. At the same moment the crew broke into a curious chant or recitative, while the priest threw the struggling animal to the deck, placing his foot firmly upon its head. The next instant he had buried the knife into the heart of the unfortunate beast, and with incredible swiftness tore the organ from the body.

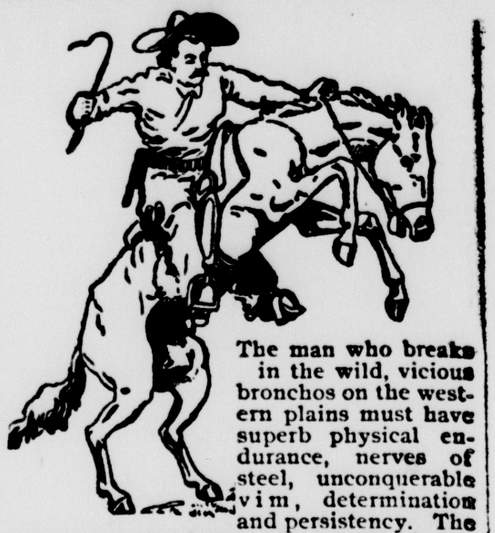

The crowd of devotees then prostrated themselves on the deck and were sprinkled with blood from the dripping morsels which were cut off by the priest. In conclusion he raised the heart three times above his head and hurled it into the water. The body of the sheep then followed suit.

About half an hour afterward, when the decks of the City of Dublin were cleared from all evidences of the sacrifice, the participants sat down to the first meal they had eaten since entering the capes 48 hours before.

The evening sunlight was streaming through a porthole when Captain Rae entered the forecastle to observe the men at their mess. The shadow of the captain at that moment fell across the table. With a volley of Cingalese oaths all that portion of food which had been touched by the shadow went flying into the sea, hurled by the indignant hands of the Malays, who saw contamination even in that contact with a Christian.

Early to Bed and Early to Rise.

Lord Salisbury always rises early and takes a walk of three or four miles before breakfast. From breakfast till 1 o'clock he is absolutely alone, and at this time nothing short of a message from the queen would reach him.—Chicago Times-Herald.

The man who breaks in the wild, vicious bronchos on the western plains must have superb physical endurance, nerves of steel, unconquerable vim, determination and persistency. The city or town bred man who has all his life humped his back over a desk, living an unhealthy, sedentary life and failed to take any care of his health, could not stay on the back of one of these vicious brutes for more than three jumps.

It takes a whole man to conquer a vicious animal. People may talk about intellectual superiority and refinement and good breeding, but every man takes off his hat to physical strength and endurance. While the man who leads a sedentary life cannot hope, in this respect, to rival these sturdy men of the plains, they can be sound, vigorous, healthy men if they will. It is a matter of care of health while one has it, and the proper measures to restore it when it is lost. Most diseases begin with some trouble of the digestive organs or of the liver. Troubles of this nature starve the body, because they prevent it from receiving its proper supply of nourishment. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery gives a man an appetite like a cow-boy's and the digestion of an ostrich. Its great work is upon the stomach, large intestines and liver. These are the organs that nourish a man's body. This medicine makes them strong, vigorous and healthy. It fills the blood with the nourishment that builds new, solid and healthy flesh, muscle and nerves.

"I am now enjoying magnificent health, after having suffered for years with chronic catarrh," writes Ramon Sanchez, Esq., of Penasco, Taos Co., New Mexico. "By the use of your 'Golden Medical Discovery' I have recovered my health, and am now, physically a sound man, attending to my business and enjoying life."

DEAD IN THE CREEK

Isaac Reed Was Found Early Yesterday Morning.

HAD BEEN MISSED LATE SUNDAY

His Wife Searched For Him Throughout the Night, and Eventually Gave Up--The Body Was Discovered by a Little Girl-Heart Failure Given as the Cause.

Isaac Reed, colored, aged 60 years, was found dead in Carpenter's run in California hollow yesterday morning at 8:15 o'clock. He was the eldest son of Boss Reed and was one of the best known characters about the city. Apoplexy was the cause of his death.

The circumstances surrounding the death of Reed are peculiar. Sunday evening he left his home, situated in the ravine west from Trentvale street, to call upon a neighbor. He walked to West Market street, and after talking to several acquaintances went to Trentvale street. He stopped at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Burrows, and after remaining there a short time started for home. He took the road running along the run and midway between his home and that of Burrows he fell dead, a portion of his head lying in the water. His wife searched all of Sunday night, but was unable to find him, although she met several people who said they had seen him. Yesterday morning a small daughter of Mr. Burrows discovered the body and immediately notified her parents, who went to the scene. Mr. Burrows was reluctant about pulling the body from the water until the authorities had been notified. Mrs. Burrows pulled the lifeless body from the water and notified his family, who had it removed to their home.

Yesterday afternoon Justice Rose and Doctor Clark made an examination of the body, and heart failure was pronounced the cause of death.

The arrangements for the funeral have not been completed as yet, although it has been learned the interment will be made in Spring Grove cemetery.

Robert Webb, aged 72 years, was buried this afternoon at 2 o'clock in Riverview cemetery. Deceased was born in England and came to Liverpool 19 years ago. He was employed in several of the potteries until several years ago, and potters' complaint was assigned as the cause of death. Services were held in the Salvation Army barracks, the family being members of that organization.

PEDDLERS IN MANILA.

Street Venders and Some of the Wares They Handle.

ENTERTAINING MONKEY PEDDLERS

Odd Birds That Are Sold For Pets. Curious Methods of Barbers In Manila, Where Washing the Face Is Dispensed With by the Operator.

Arthur C. Johnson, special war correspondent of The Rocky Mountain News, writing from Manila under the date of Oct. 28 about the city's street venders, says:

The city of Manila at present is certainly the paradise of the peddler. If the inhabitants of the city will not buy, there is the ever ready United States soldier who will. There is a fruit vender squatting in every shady nook and plenty of shops which seem to thrive in the refreshment business. Every few days there appears on the streets a man or woman who has just "blown in" from the country with something new to inveigle coin from the soldiers. They seldom leave town without they have got rid of their stock and have the money for the same jingling in their belt pocket.

These peddlers all furnish entertainment even if they don't sell their wares very rapidly, and perhaps the most entertainment is furnished by the monkey peddler. He carries a large cage constructed from thin bamboo strips in which are the majority of his catch of monkeys. Probably two are playing tag around his neck and up and down his arms.

Monkeys are sold on the streets of Manila at the rate of from 1 to 3 pesos. None of them seems to have any particular training. Often the peddler takes considerable pains with his catch before bringing it to town and fixes each little beast up in some fancy manner. He trims the tails of some and in the ears of others he puts little gold plated earrings. In selling earringed monkeys he makes a big talk for the solid gold that goes with him. The monkey peddler sometimes entertains prospective patrons by letting the whole of his bunch out of their cage, where they have been keeping up an incessant chattering. There is a scattering for freedom in all directions. The soldiers appreciate nothing so much as they do the monkey's penchant for hunting fleas, and if a small dog is handy Mr. Monk is willing to keep at it all day, even if he be unrewarded by a single flea.

The natives of the Philippines make quite a business of birdcatching. By means of ingenious traps constructed from bamboo they catch little canaries and titmice, which in the city bring fair prices among those who like pets. The bird woman, or man, as the case may be, generally has her catch in a temporary wicker cage. In some instances the peddler does up her birds by pairs in tiny little cages all ready to sell at 5 cents per bundle. The cheapest birds are the little brown sparrows who have few accomplishments beyond a vivacious chatter and voracious appetites. The fawn colored birds with a collar of red and a bill almost in the shape of a parrot bring $2 a pair. The natives often have the bright green little parrot birds for sale. None of them can talk.

The cane seller is another of Manila's street characters. He walks up and down the Escolta with ten or a dozen ebony canes in a bag and a couple in his hand, which he thrusts out to passers by and offers to sell at prices less than a dollar. The natives are very clever at cutting and polishing ebony into graceful walking sticks, also the cocoa wood.

The soldier who is out after the real startler in the cane line buys one which consists of a piece of tapering cocoa wood covered over with the skin of a snake. In Manila the Chinese dry goods merchant goes around from house to house with a stack of linens and prints on his shoulder. When the soldiers came to town, he included socks and undershirts.

There are certain natives and Chinese who have nothing to peddle about the streets but their profession. These are barbers and car cleaners. Great numbers of these dispense with room rent and travel from one shady spot to another with a small stool on which their patrons seat themselves. The barber, who is often a Chinaman, is armed with a clumsy looking three cornered razor with a curved edge. As a whetter he carries a tiny hone in his left hand. The customer seats himself bolt upright on the stool and wears a worried look while the barber produces a half wet rag and gives the whisker region of his face a wipe or two and proceeds to business. It is almost a "dry shave," but the shavee seems not to mind it. The razor is very sharp and does its work well. A Philippine shave differs from the American shave in a startling particular, and that is the shaving of the bridge of the nose. This is the last motion the barber makes. With a graceful sweep he draws the razor along the nose, glances carefully around the face to see that it has been well scraped and demands his two centavos from the customer. No washing is considered necessary.

Garcia's Colored Servant.

The late General Garcia had an aged colored servant who was born a slave upon his father's plantation and was brought up with him from childhood. The old negro followed him in all his wars and shared his prison cells and sat beside his bed when the general breathed his last. Every time his master groaned he would groan also, and the death which came to the one will not let the other linger much longer. The faithful servant does not care to live now. His interest in life is gone and no one would be surprised if he died of grief within a short time.—Washington Cor. Chicago Record.

The Carolines.

"They've taken all the Philippines,"
The secretary said.
"Vot's dot?" inquired his majesty,
A-turnin very red.
An then he mixed a schooner of
A half a dozen wines.
"I'll dake good care," he grumbled,
"Dot dey leaf der Carolines!

"You see," explained his majesty,
"Der Carolines vos mine,
Und Spain is choost a-holdin 'em
Mit innocent design.
But, himmel! ven she let's 'em go
Und casts off all der lines—
Vell, choost watch Willie Kaiser
Ven he grabs der Carolines!"

"But tell to me, your majesty,"
The secretary said,
"How comes it that you did not take
The Philippines instead?
The Sulus and Hawaiis are
A lot that far outshines
The rather modest beauty
Of the group of Carolines."

The kaiser said a naughty word.
The secretary shook.
"Whose peesness is it?" cried his lord,
"Regardin vot I took?
I didn't grab der Philippines.
But ees dot any signs
I vill not do the very same
Apout der Carolines?"

An American Recessional.

[Forefathers' day, 1898. Dictated to President McKinley.]

Our Father, by thy gifts made bold,
Once more we raise the anthem old
Of them who crost a wintry sea
To gain thy jewel, liberty!

They left us that high heritage—
Now, in our country's golden age
May we, like them, while we do live,
Unto thy name the glory give.

Before thy swiftly conquering power
The nations all in silence cower.
Thy instruments we were, O Lord—
Shall this to us a claim afford?

Thou ledst the Pilgrims safe to land,
Yet now, close by the Pilgrims' strand,
Our ships are swept beneath the brine—
Yea, Lord, we recognize the sign.

In humbleness we seek thy face—
With contrite hearts we ask thy grace
For him whose task is just begun,
To free the children of the sun.

A Dream of Past Christmases.

Last night I sat by the old fireplace,
And I saw in the embers' glow
A toddling form and a laughing face
That I knew in the long ago.
I thought I heard at the side of my chair
A voice that I used to hear
Repeating the words of an evening prayer
Timidly, low and clear,
And I thought I heard the good night word
From the toddling form in white.
I knew that I dreamed, but, oh, it seemed
So real in the flickering light!

I thought I saw in the corner dim
Last night, as I used to see,
A tiny sock that was hung by him
On Christmas eve with glee,
That the children's saint might see it there
And know that a little boy
Had gone to bed with an earnest prayer
For the morrow's Christmas joy;
But I heard no beat of pattering feet,
As I did in bygone years.
I knew I but dreamed, and, oh, it seemed
That my heart would drown in tears!

The Mad Mollah.

Mad Mollah on an autumn day
Traversed the desert grim and gray,
Scaling the peak of the highest hill.
Looking for somebody fit to kill.
Fierce were his warriors and fierce was he.
Keen the bright edge of his snickersnee.
Why does he carry his head so high?
What the ambition of this old guy?
None can interpret the prophet's dream,
No one is on to his bloody scheme.
Something or other is out of whack;
Something is gone that he wants brought back.
Is it ambition or pride or what
Worries Mad Mollah, the shah of Swat?
Where is the great ahkoond of yore?
Where are the English men-of-war?
Where is the Mauser with powder breath?
Where the great cannon that speaks of death?
Mollah, Mad Mollah, will yield to shot,
Dying as game as he lived—that Swat.

ORIENTALISM IN PHILADELPHIA.

Heathen Deity Is Worshiped Under the British Flag—Sailors Offer Up a Sheep as a Tribute to the Gods of a New Country—Carry a Priest With Them Who Does Little but Officiate at the Bloody Ceremonies.

On the deck of a British steamer, the City of Dublin, and beneath the shadow of the union jack, which waved in the breeze from her masthead, there were enacted the other day ceremonies the most strange and weird ever witnessed in Philadelphia.

Had the crew been Americans, Englishmen or any other civilized nationality, the strange proceedings would have rendered the participants fit candidates for a lunatic asylum, but as the entire company, with the exception of four men, are full fledged Malays and lascars from the Malayan archipelago the performance excited only the most unbounded astonishment, not unmixed with fear on the part of those who witnessed it.

It is rather singular that there should be so many of that fierce oriental race represented on the City of Dublin. Vessels have reached Philadelphia before carrying six or sometimes a dozen who had been shipped in faroff ports to fill up the ranks of the former crew depleted by sickness or death, but probably never has a captain visited Philadelphia before the arrival of Captain Rae of the City of Dublin who evidently preferred these yellow skinned individuals to his own countrymen.

He shipped the odd assortment on the voyage out from London to Pekalongean, of which the present voyage is the conclusion, at Port Said and Aden, Arabia. THE VALISE WAS TAKEN

But Mrs. W. L. Smith Did Not Lose Money.

THE REPORT PUT IT AT $1,500

She Was on Her Way to Trenton and Missed It From the Pullman at Allegheny--It Contained Presents For Relatives and Friends--No Clue.

The following story, sent from Trenton yesterday morning, will be read with interest by the people of this place:

"Mrs. William L. Smith, of East Liverpool, O., who reached Trenton yesterday on a visit to her father, Richard Barlow, reported to the local police that a satchel containing $1,500 in money and diamonds was stolen from her on the train. She was riding in a Pullman car and missed the satchel at Allegheny, Pa., when she discovered that a similar satchel had been substituted for her own in her seat while she was in a toilet room of the car. The matter was reported to the conductor and a description was telegraphed back of a man and woman who left the car at Rochester. Mrs. Smith's husband is a pottery manufacturer of East Liverpool."

Mr. Smith was seen by a NEWS REVIEW reporter at his home in Sixth street yesterday afternoon, and in speaking of the happening said:

"I received a telegram from Mrs. Smith stating the satchel had been lost, but I am positive it contained no money, as has been stated. The jewely which was stolen were gifts which were purchased before she left home. When the railroad police were notified they made a quick search for the satchel and located it, and forwarded it to Trenton. When it was found and who took it I am unable to state."

In speaking of the endeavor of sewerpipe manufacturers to form some sort of a combination, the Toronto Tribune says a meeting was held last Friday, the representatives being:

Charles Freeman, of the Freeman Fireclay company; T. F. Anderson, of the Knowles, Taylor & Anderson, of East Liverpool; Albert Lyth, of Wellsville; N. U. Walker, of Wellsville; Mr. Jobe, of Uhrichsville; J. M. McClave, R. M. Francy, W. B. Goucher, C. T. Young and George Myers, of Toronto.

They talked the matter over with Colonel Eastland, but T. L. Tappscott, the reported organizer of a sewer pipe trust, was not there nor has he any connection with the movement. Nothing of importance was done.

The Grand was packed to its capacity last night, the audience having gathered to witness the performance of the "Jolly Lot" company.

Singing, dancing, instrumental music and comedy make up the performance, and a very good one it is. The wonderful trick cabin for a finish elicited applause.

The company will give another performance this evening, and there is no reason to believe it will be received with less enthusiasm than that which marked last night's entertainment.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. Weather News From Engine Whistles.

D. E. Maxwell, general manager of the Florida Central and Peninsular railroad, has issued the following circular: "The system of signals from the engine whistle of passing trains promulgated heretofore, through the co-operation of the United States weather bureau, to forewarn fruit and vegetable growers that cold waves likely to produce frost are approaching, will be made effective again this season. The signal will be given by the whistle sounding six long blasts, requiring 30 seconds (five seconds to the blast), and will be repeated at intervals of every three miles. This will indicate a forecast of frost the first or second night thereafter."—Florida Times-Union and Citizen.

THE VALISE WAS TAKEN

But Mrs. W. L. Smith Did Not Lose Money.

THE REPORT PUT IT AT $1,500

She Was on Her Way to Trenton and Missed It From the Pullman at Allegheny--It Contained Presents For Relatives and Friends--No Clue.

The following story, sent from Trenton yesterday morning, will be read with interest by the people of this place:

"Mrs. William L. Smith, of East Liverpool, O., who reached Trenton yesterday on a visit to her father, Richard Barlow, reported to the local police that a satchel containing $1,500 in money and diamonds was stolen from her on the train. She was riding in a Pullman car and missed the satchel at Allegheny, Pa., when she discovered that a similar satchel had been substituted for her own in her seat while she was in a toilet room of the car. The matter was reported to the conductor and a description was telegraphed back of a man and woman who left the car at Rochester. Mrs. Smith's husband is a pottery manufacturer of East Liverpool."

Mr. Smith was seen by a NEWS REVIEW reporter at his home in Sixth street yesterday afternoon, and in speaking of the happening said:

"I received a telegram from Mrs. Smith stating the satchel had been lost, but I am positive it contained no money, as has been stated. The jewely which was stolen were gifts which were purchased before she left home. When the railroad police were notified they made a quick search for the satchel and located it, and forwarded it to Trenton. When it was found and who took it I am unable to state."

Sewerpipe Men Are Anxious For a Combination.

In speaking of the endeavor of sewerpipe manufacturers to form some sort of a combination, the Toronto Tribune says a meeting was held last Friday, the representatives being:

Charles Freeman, of the Freeman Fireclay company; T. F. Anderson, of the Knowles, Taylor & Anderson, of East Liverpool; Albert Lyth, of Wellsville; N. U. Walker, of Wellsville; Mr. Jobe, of Uhrichsville; J. M. McClave, R. M. Francy, W. B. Goucher, C. T. Young and George Myers, of Toronto.

They talked the matter over with Colonel Eastland, but T. L. Tappscott, the reported organizer of a sewer pipe trust, was not there nor has he any connection with the movement. Nothing of importance was done.

WEYLER says he would rule the Spaniards with an iron hand, and that is probably one reason why Weyler will not be given an opportunity to rule.

BEFORE a sewer pipe trust can be formed conditions must so change as to permit of the combination controlling the output. At present that seems almost an impossibility.

AFTER a silence of three years Bloody Bridles Waite is again in the public eye, this time as an advocate of expansion. It is rather hard on the President's policy, but such hardships must occasionally be borne.

AFTER the holiday business enjoyed by retail merchants throughout the country no one, no matter what may be his partisan feeling, can say the country is not enjoying that prosperity which the Republican party promised.

THE fight which Senator Quay is making in Pennsylvania will be watched with interest throughout the country. He not only belongs to the state he has so long represented in the senate, but is a national character in whom the country is interested.

THE plan of the government to rule Havana with the strong arm of military law seems justified by the lawlessness that has characterized the last days of Spanish occupation. It will serve not alone to make the city an abiding place for Americans of the right sort, but will have a healthy influence upon the thugs and crooks gathered there.

THE announcement of Judge Day that he will not be a candidate for governor does not simplify the situation in any considerable degree. He was never looked upon seriously as a candidate for the position, but it was known that if he had expressed the slightest desire to fill Governor Bushnell's shoes his friends throughout the state would have attended to the details.

CHRISTMAS THOUGHTS.

If Andrew Carnegie and Colonel Bryan are working the anti-expansion idea with the vigor they have employed in other matters of public and private interest they could not have enjoyed Christmas with the quiet pleasure of the Scotchman or the hilarious conduct of the Nebraskan. The mere fact that they have worked hard to convince the public of the position they occupy and that same public has refused to rally to their call in enthusiastic thousands is probably a source of disappointment to these men who would shine as President McKinley's foremost opponents. To one, who has decided to live in New York and become involved in the country's affairs, it means a bitter blow to his pride. To the other, who seeks the next presidential nomination of his party, it means a very serious condition of affairs. To both it proves that the American people will not be swayed against their own will.

Old Enough to Know Better.

An elderly woman, whose hair was almost as white as snow and who was so drunk she could scarcely walk, was seen in Sixth street last evening. She was being helped along by two men who had all they could do to keep her on her feet. She was well dressed.

ROBBED A WARDROBE

Doctor Beane Lost Some of His Wearing Apparel.

THE JANITOR CANNOT BE FOUND

It Is Believed That He Walked Off With the Clothing, Taking Also Some Money and Jewelry--The Police Have Notified Towns In This Vicinity.

Dr. W. A. Beane is now mourning the loss of several articles of wearing apparel.

About two months ago a young man giving his name as Charles Mackey came to town and as he was decidedly hardup he was befriended by a prominent man of the city. He finally was taken in by Dr. Beane, and permission given him to sleep in the office for which he did the janitor work of the Ikirt building. He was given some clothes, and seemed to be well pleased with his position.

In some way he secured a key to the private apartments of Doctor Beane, and for the last few evenings he has asked the doctor if he would be in early, and always received an answer in the affirmative. Saturday evening he came in the office at 6 o'clock, and found Doctor Beane there and then went out without saying anything. The doctor then went to supper, and Jeff Manley came in the office. While he was there Mackey came in and asked him what he wanted. Manley told him he was waiting for Doctor Ikirt. Mackey said Doctor Ikirt would not be in for an hour and then went out.

When Doctor Beane returned from supper he found that his room had been completely gutted, Mackey taking a new suit of clothes and another suit that had been worn but a short time, pair of patent leather shoes, overshoes, winter ulster, winter underwear, four white shirts, neckties, collars and cuffs, cuff buttons and holder, box of cigars, half dozen linen handkerchiefs, clock, watch fob and Elk's head, Elk pin, penknife, dime savings bank, money in clothes and a valise. He also took a new hat and left his old one.

The police were at once notified of the theft, and the police in the neighboring cities were communicated with to keep a lookout for Mackey. The railroad detectives were also notified and every effort will be made to apprehend the thief. There is as yet no clue to his whereabouts.

SOCIETY.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Taylor Hospitably Received Their Friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Taylor yesterday afternoon received their friends at their home in Sixth street, the spacious rooms being filled with a merry throng from 2 until 6 o'clock. The handsome billiard room recently added to the residence was thrown open to the guests, and Manley's band made excellent music. Lunch was served. It was without question a delightful entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Grosshans will entertain friends this evening at cards.

Mrs. Clara Humrickhouse will entertain this evening.

Mrs. J. R. Hill next Tuesday evening will entertain a number of lady friends.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS

Was That Enjoyed by the Congregation of St. John's Church.

Christmas was celebrated by beautiful and impressive services at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church last Sunday. In the morning Reverend Reinartz preached on the subject, "Glad tidings of great joy." In the evening a large audience listened to a program consisting of music by the choir and Sunday school, and recitations by the children. Reverend Frischkorn made an address in which he pointed out the lesson which the Christmas tree teaches us, and how every gift which gladdens the heart at this time is to remind us of God's greatest gift.

Reverend Reinartz made a short address in behalf of the fatherless, who particularly at this joyous season appeal to the love and sympathy of their Christian friends. The offering for the orphans amounted to $25 and will be sent to the home at Zelienople.

UNION PAPERS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Labels at the head of their columns

WEYLER says he would rule the Spaniards with an iron hand, and that is probably one reason why Weyler will not be given an opportunity to rule.

BEFORE a sewer pipe trust can be formed conditions must so change as to permit of the combination controlling the output. At present that seems almost an impossibility.

AFTER a silence of three years Bloody Bridles Waite is again in the public eye, this time as an advocate of expansion. It is rather hard on the President's policy, but such hardships must occasionally be borne.

AFTER the holiday business enjoyed by retail merchants throughout the country no one, no matter what may be his partisan feeling, can say the country is not enjoying that prosperity which the Republican party promised.

THE fight which Senator Quay is making in Pennsylvania will be watched with interest throughout the country. He not only belongs to the state he has so long represented in the senate, but is a national character in whom the country is interested.

THE plan of the government to rule Havana with the strong arm of military law seems justified by the lawlessness that has characterized the last days of Spanish occupation. It will serve not alone to make the city an abiding place for Americans of the right sort, but will have a healthy influence upon the thugs and crooks gathered there.

THE announcement of Judge Day that he will not be a candidate for governor does not simplify the situation in any considerable degree. He was never looked upon seriously as a candidate for the position, but it was known that if he had expressed the slightest desire to fill Governor Bushnell's shoes his friends throughout the state would have attended to the details.

CHRISTMAS THOUGHTS.

If Andrew Carnegie and Colonel Bryan are working the anti-expansion idea with the vigor they have employed in other matters of public and private interest they could not have enjoyed Christmas with the quiet pleasure of the Scotchman or the hilarious conduct of the Nebraskan. The mere fact that they have worked hard to convince the public of the position they occupy and that same public has refused to rally to their call in enthusiastic thousands is probably a source of disappointment to these men who would shine as President McKinley's foremost opponents. To one, who has decided to live in New York and become involved in the country's affairs, it means a bitter blow to his pride. To the other, who seeks the next presidential nomination of his party, it means a very serious condition of affairs. To both it proves that the American people will not be swayed against their own will.

Old Enough to Know Better.

An elderly woman, whose hair was almost as white as snow and who was so drunk she could scarcely walk, was seen in Sixth street last evening. She was being helped along by two men who had all they could do to keep her on her feet. She was well dressed.

ROBBED A WARDROBE

Doctor Beane Lost Some of His Wearing Apparel.

THE JANITOR CANNOT BE FOUND

It Is Believed That He Walked Off With the Clothing, Taking Also Some Money and Jewelry--The Police Have Notified Towns In This Vicinity.

Dr. W. A. Beane is now mourning the loss of several articles of wearing apparel.

About two months ago a young man giving his name as Charles Mackey came to town and as he was decidedly hardup he was befriended by a prominent man of the city. He finally was taken in by Dr. Beane, and permission given him to sleep in the office for which he did the janitor work of the Ikirt building. He was given some clothes, and seemed to be well pleased with his position.

In some way he secured a key to the private apartments of Doctor Beane, and for the last few evenings he has asked the doctor if he would be in early, and always received an answer in the affirmative. Saturday evening he came in the office at 6 o'clock, and found Doctor Beane there and then went out without saying anything. The doctor then went to supper, and Jeff Manley came in the office. While he was there Mackey came in and asked him what he wanted. Manley told him he was waiting for Doctor Ikirt. Mackey said Doctor Ikirt would not be in for an hour and then went out.

When Doctor Beane returned from supper he found that his room had been completely gutted, Mackey taking a new suit of clothes and another suit that had been worn but a short time, pair of patent leather shoes, overshoes, winter ulster, winter underwear, four white shirts, neckties, collars and cuffs, cuff buttons and holder, box of cigars, half dozen linen handkerchiefs, clock, watch fob and Elk's head, Elk pin, penknife, dime savings bank, money in clothes and a valise. He also took a new hat and left his old one.

The police were at once notified of the theft, and the police in the neighboring cities were communicated with to keep a lookout for Mackey. The railroad detectives were also notified and every effort will be made to apprehend the thief. There is as yet no clue to his whereabouts.

SOCIETY.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Taylor Hospitably Received Their Friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Taylor yesterday afternoon received their friends at their home in Sixth street, the spacious rooms being filled with a merry throng from 2 until 6 o'clock. The handsome billiard room recently added to the residence was thrown open to the guests, and Manley's band made excellent music. Lunch was served. It was without question a delightful entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Grosshans will entertain friends this evening at cards.

Mrs. Clara Humrickhouse will entertain this evening.

Mrs. J. R. Hill next Tuesday evening will entertain a number of lady friends.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS

Was That Enjoyed by the Congregation of St. John's Church.

Christmas was celebrated by beautiful and impressive services at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church last Sunday. In the morning Reverend Reinartz preached on the subject, "Glad tidings of great joy." In the evening a large audience listened to a program consisting of music by the choir and Sunday school, and recitations by the children. Reverend Frischkorn made an address in which he pointed out the lesson which the Christmas tree teaches us, and how every gift which gladdens the heart at this time is to remind us of God's greatest gift.

Reverend Reinartz made a short address in behalf of the fatherless, who particularly at this joyous season appeal to the love and sympathy of their Christian friends. The offering for the orphans amounted to $25 and will be sent to the home at Zelienople.

He was never looked upon seriously as a candidate for the position, but it was known that if he had expressed the slightest desire to fill Governor Bushnell's shoes his friends throughout the state would have attended to the details.

CHRISTMAS THOUGHTS.

If Andrew Carnegie and Colonel Bryan are working the anti-expansion idea with the vigor they have employed in other matters of public and private interest they could not have enjoyed Christmas with the quiet pleasure of the Scothman or the hilarious conduct of the Nebraskan. The mere fact that they have worked hard to convince the public of the position they occupy and that same public has refused to rally to their call in enthusiastic thousands is probably a source of disappointment to these men who would shine as President McKinley's foremost opponents. To one, who has decided to live in New York and become involved in the country's affairs, it means a bitter blow to his pride. To the other, who seeks the next presidential nomination of his party, it means a very serious condition of affairs. To both it proves that the American people will not be swayed against their own will.

Old Enough to Know Better.

An elderly woman, whose hair was almost as white as snow and who was so drunk she could scarcely walk, was seen in Sixth street last evening. She was being helped along by two men who had all they could do to keep her on her feet. She was well dressed.

ROBBED A WARDROBE

Doctor Beane Lost Some of His Wearing Apparel.

THE JANITOR CANNOT BE FOUND

It Is Believed That He Walked Off With the Clothing, Taking Also Some Money and Jewelry--The Police Have Notified Towns In This Vicinity.

Dr. W. A. Beane is now mourning the loss of several articles of wearing apparel.

About two months ago a young man giving his name as Charles Mackey came to town and as he was decidedly hardup he was befriended by a prominent man of the city. He finally was taken in by Dr. Beane, and permission given him to sleep in the office for which he did the janitor work of the Ikirt building. He was given some clothes, and seemed to be well pleased with his position.

In some way he secured a key to the private apartments of Doctor Beane, and for the last few evenings he has asked the doctor if he would be in early, and always received an answer in the affirmative. Saturday evening he came in the office at 6 o'clock, and found Doctor Beane there and then went out without saying anything. The doctor then went to supper, and Jeff Manley came in the office. While he was there Mackey came in and asked him what he wanted. Manley told him he was waiting for Doctor Ikirt. Mackey said Doctor Ikirt would not be in for an hour and then went out.

When Doctor Beane returned from supper he found that his room had been completely gutted, Mackey taking a new suit of clothes and another suit that had been worn but a short time, pair of patent leather shoes, overshoes, winter ulster, winter underwear, four white shirts, neckties, collars and cuffs, cuff buttons and holder, box of cigars, half dozen linen handkerchiefs, clock, watch fob and Elk's head, Elk pin, penknife, dime savings bank, money in clothes and a valise. He also took a new hat and left his old one.

The police were at once notified of the theft, and the police in the neighboring cities were communicated with to keep a lookout for Mackey. The railroad detectives were also notified and every effort will be made to apprehend the thief. There is as yet no clue to his whereabouts.

It was without question a delightful entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Grosshans will entertain friends this evening at cards.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS

Was That Enjoyed by the Congregation of St. John's Church.

Christmas was celebrated by beautiful and impressive services at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church last Sunday. In the morning Reverend Reinartz preached on the subject, "Glad tidings of great joy." In the evening a large audience listened to a program consisting of music by the choir and Sunday school, and recitations by the children. Reverend Frischkorn made an address in which he pointed out the lesson which the Christmas tree teaches us, and how every gift which gladdens the heart at this time is to remind us of God's greatest gift.

Reverend Reinartz made a short address in behalf of the fatherless, who particularly at this joyous season appeal to the love and sympathy of their Christian friends. The offering for the orphans amounted to $25 and will be sent to the home at Zelienople.

WELLSVILLE.

THE POLICE WERE BUSY

Gathering In Those Who Broke the Law.

IT WAS A VERY LIVELY DAY

Two Conflicts of More Than Unusual Importance Caused Excitement--Christmas In the Churches--All the News of Wellsville.

A large number of Wellsville people endeavored to celebrate Christmas by filling themselves with bad whisky.

Early in the afternoon a fight was started in the saloon of John Martin, Front street, and the police were sent for. They succeeded in quelling the disturbance and the offenders were taken to jail. This did not finish the work of the police, and they were called to Mrs. O'Donnell's, Third street, to stop another fight. More arrests followed, and the parties are being given a hearing this afternoon.

Christmas Services.

The usual Christmas services and treat were held in most all the churches last evening, though several observed their usual custom of celebrating Christmas eve. At the First Presbyterian church Sterrett's orchestra was present and added much to the pleasure of the evening, but at most of the churches the program was rendered by the Sunday school scholars.

Christmas services were held at the Church of the Immaculate Conception at 6, 7:30 and 10 in the morning. The atttendance at all services was large. The pastor, Reverend Halligan, officiated and preached appropriate sermons. The junior and senior chorus, assisted by Nowling's orchestra, rendered some very fine music. The altar was decorated in a neat and effective manner and the offering was generous.

From Far Away Friends.

Mrs. Theodore Apple and Mrs. A. Jones, of Yellow Creek, received a box of mistletoe Saturday, which was sent them by their sister, Mrs. K. Ross, from southern Texas. It was fresh and very full of berries. Many of their friends shared with them, and much appreciated the rare speciman.

News of Wellsville.

Miss Margaret Silver entertained her Sunday school class at dinner today.

Jesse Holloway, the Irondale druggist, spent Christmas with his mother Mrs. Rachel Holloway, Main street.

Mrs. Ann Henderson, who has been much improved in health, is again reported very seriously ill.

Frank Goodlin, who was sent by Poor Director W. C. Fraser on last Friday to Toronto, has since been adjudged insane by the local authorities. Goodlin claims Knoxville, Jefferson county, as his home.

Professor J. L. McDonald is absent attending the executive meeting of the State Teachers' association. He will also attend a meeting of the county examiners, which will be held in Columbus, at the close of the executive meeting.

Manager Davis, of the Armour branch, while coming out of the Kountz meat market slipped and fell. One arm went through a window and the foot of a dead porker was driven through the other window, while a glass in the basement was broken because a turkey tried to escape.

Miss Ada Brockett left this morning for a visit with friends in Wheeling, W. Va. She will probably remain two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Chronaker, of Shadyside, spent Christmas with their son, Benjamin Chronaker, of Broadway. They returned home today.

The colored Knights of Pythias held a hop and cake walk at the city hall last evening.

The ladies of the Church of the Ascension held a cake sale at Bowers store on Saturday from 3 o'clock. All of the cakes were quickly disposed of and more could have been sold. A neat sum will be added to the church treasury.

Edward McSwiggen, who fell from an electric light pole a distance of 30 feet on the 10th of this month, is slowly recovering, and is able to walk about his room. His recovery is considered remarkable by both his friends and physician.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Joseph are fitting up the Shultz property on Fifteenth street and will go to housekeeping soon.

Alexander Fraser, of the Columbus medical school, is spending Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Fraser.

Officers Raided a Game In a Shantyboat.

SCHNEIDER OWNS THE CRAFT

Two Charges Were Placed Against Him, but He Wanted to Stand Trial and Will Be Heard This Week--Lively Scenes.

Saturday night the boat house owned by Edwin Schneider was raided by Officers White, McMillan, Mahony and Whan. The owner of the boat and eight visitors were arrested.

For some time the officers have understood that gambling was being done in the boat which is tied to the beach back of the Cleveland and Pittsburg passenger station, and Saturday when they were sure of their game they made the raid. The clock in the Central school was about to strike the hour of midnight when they entered the boat and saw a game of poker going on. The money which was on the table was quickly snatched by all around it and the cards were scattered about the floor. When quiet had been restored, those in the boat were arrested. The owner of the boat was charged with gambling and permitting gambling in his boat, while the visitors, Thomas Daily, Charles Gallagher, colored, Emmett Green, Charles Parker, William Farrish, Dunk Pickering, Edward Millhorn and Harry Coss were charged with gambling.

Schneider came to city hall this morning and plead not guilty to the charges. The date for the hearing has not been set.

When a reporter saw Schneider this morning he said: "The boat was anchored in 14 feet of water and no lines were attached to the shore. The officers had no right to arrest us or else they would have us taken to jail.

"The first big game was played Saturday night although several smaller games were played during the last week or so. Those who were on the boat when the officers appeared will not enter a plea until some disposition has been made of mine."

BAB IS DEAD

She Passed Away This Morning in New York.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—[Special]—"Bab," known throughout all the country as a writer of merit, died this morning. She had been ill several weeks. Her name was Mrs. Isabel Mallon.

It Was Too Much.

"Your honor," said Boston Pete, almost tearfully, "it's the newspaper publicity that I hate about this thing. They will 'aver' that I 'opine' I will be 'apprehended,' then 'incarcerated,' perhaps even in 'durance vile.' But, your honor, for a man who has never demeaned himself by work this expression, 'caught in the toils,' is too much." And the wretch hid his face.—Kansas City Star.

TRUST EXPERTS HERE

They Will Look After the Work of Taking Stock.

MEETING WAS HELD YESTERDAY

Representatives of All Concerns In the Combination Discussed Final Arrangements For Closing the Deal--Mr. Wolf, of Peoria, Went Home Well Pleased.

The closing of the deal whereby the great majority of the pottery manufacturing concerns are to become part of the American Potteries Company was discussed at a meeting of local potters yesterday.

The particular question under discussion was the invoicing of the plants and stock on hand. It was learned that expert accountants had been ordered from New York, and would be here to aid in the work as soon as possible. The meeting was resolved into a general discussion of the matter and was most harmonious.

T. P. Howard, C. D. DeLong and A. L. Tolifferro, the accountants in question, have arrived from New York, and are ready to take up the work here. Their stay in the city is indefinite, but the task will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

MURPHY IS NOT IN.

The Company Is Not Connected With the Trust—No Reason Is Given.

It was rumored today that the Murphy Pottery company was not in any way connected with the trust. The information came from a reliable source, but was so startling as to be doubted.

"I don't know the particulars of the story you mention," said Geo. C. Murphy to the NEWS REVIEW, "but it is true that our concern is not in the trust. I prefer not to discuss the matter at this time."

During the negotiations that have been in progress looking to the formation of the trust it has been accepted as a fact that the Murphy company was listed among those who would form the combination. Until this time it has never been hinted that it was on the outside.

WELL SATISFIED.

Mr. Wolf, of Peoria, Came Here For Important Information.

President Wolf, of the Peoria Pottery company, returned to his home today after a brief stay in the city. To a NEWS REVIEW man he said:

"Yes, our pottery will be a part of the trust, but I did not come here for that purpose. I came to obtain some important information which we needed, and am going back this afternoon. I think the trust will be a good thing for all concerned, particularly for East Liverpool. You here have no cause to complain."

THEY WERE MARRIED.

Young People Who Have Cause to Enjoy the Holidays.

We tell you honestly that we will take cost for any article in the house---less than cost for many.

Readjustment of cash is much simpler than appraisement of stock---less argument, less figuring.

So Cost and Less this Week.

We promise you, a dollar will seem almost as big as two, and will secure more than any time during the past year, or the year to come.

Be on hand early---first pickings may mean best bargains.

The reductions are genuine --are earnest--are wise--are timely.

A Fruitful Field.

It is a striking tribute which Mr. Stead pays to the influence exerted in the Ottoman empire by Robert college. That institution, under the management of American missionaries, has kept resolutely aloof from all political questions, yet the principles of civilization and Christianity which it has inculcated have had a mighty political influence, and the regeneration of Bulgaria is largely due to them.—Boston Journal.

Pensioner Died of Exposure.

YOUNGSTOWN, Dec. 27.—Henry Moles, aged 63, residing at Austintown, Mahoning county, was found dead. The coroner found that death was due to exposure. Moles received his pension voucher a short time ago and has since been drinking heavily, and while intoxicated is supposed to have lain down in a barn, succumbing to the low temperature.

Lafayette Monument Contribution.

COLUMBUS, Dec. 27.—President Peck of the Lafayette memorial commission, acknowledging the receipt of contributions from Ohio for the Lafayette monument fund, writes to State School Commissioner Bonebrake that the total contributions from Ohio up to date amount to $5,283.94, the largest amount contributed by any single state except Illinois.

No More Bullfights.

The last of the bullfighter probably has been seen in Havana. During the war the bulls were all eaten. After the raising of the blockade the project of importing bulls from Mexico was discussed, but was finally abandoned. Now it seems likely that before any bulls can be provided the pastime will be forbidden. The natives expect to see their bullfighting abolished as a matter of course, and there probably will be no protest. The intelligent Spaniards understand that the United States will not tolerate the pastime.—Havana Cor. Chicago Record.

A Left Handed Club.

WELLSVILLE.

THE POLICE WERE BUSY

Gathering In Those Who Broke the Law.

IT WAS A VERY LIVELY DAY

Two Conflicts of More Than Unusual Importance Caused Excitement--Christmas In the Churches--All the News of Wellsville.

A large number of Wellsville people endeavored to celebrate Christmas by filling themselves with bad whisky.

Early in the afternoon a fight was started in the saloon of John Martin, Front street, and the police were sent for. They succeeded in quelling the disturbance and the offenders were taken to jail. This did not finish the work of the police, and they were called to Mrs. O'Donnell's, Third street, to stop another fight. More arrests followed, and the parties are being given a hearing this afternoon.

Christmas Services.

The usual Christmas services and treat were held in most all the churches last evening, though several observed their usual custom of celebrating Christmas eve. At the First Presbyterian church Sterrett's orchestra was present and added much to the pleasure of the evening, but at most of the churches the program was rendered by the Sunday school scholars.

Christmas services were held at the Church of the Immaculate Conception at 6, 7:30 and 10 in the morning. The atttendance at all services was large. The pastor, Reverend Halligan, officiated and preached appropriate sermons. The junior and senior chorus, assisted by Nowling's orchestra, rendered some very fine music. The altar was decorated in a neat and effective manner and the offering was generous.

From Far Away Friends.

Mrs. Theodore Apple and Mrs. A. Jones, of Yellow Creek, received a box of mistletoe Saturday, which was sent them by their sister, Mrs. K. Ross, from southern Texas. It was fresh and very full of berries. Many of their friends shared with them, and much appreciated the rare speciman.

News of Wellsville.

Miss Margaret Silver entertained her Sunday school class at dinner today.

Jesse Holloway, the Irondale druggist, spent Christmas with his mother Mrs. Rachel Holloway, Main street.

Mrs. Ann Henderson, who has been much improved in health, is again reported very seriously ill.

Frank Goodlin, who was sent by Poor Director W. C. Fraser on last Friday to Toronto, has since been adjudged insane by the local authorities. Goodlin claims Knoxville, Jefferson county, as his home.

Professor J. L. McDonald is absent attending the executive meeting of the State Teachers' association. He will also attend a meeting of the county examiners, which will be held in Columbus, at the close of the executive meeting.

Manager Davis, of the Armour branch, while coming out of the Kountz meat market slipped and fell. One arm went through a window and the foot of a dead porker was driven through the other window, while a glass in the basement was broken because a turkey tried to escape.

Miss Ada Brockett left this morning for a visit with friends in Wheeling, W. Va. She will probably remain two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Chronaker, of Shadyside, spent Christmas with their son, Benjamin Chronaker, of Broadway. They returned home today.

The colored Knights of Pythias held a hop and cake walk at the city hall last evening.

The ladies of the Church of the Ascension held a cake sale at Bowers store on Saturday from 3 o'clock. All of the cakes were quickly disposed of and more could have been sold. A neat sum will be added to the church treasury.

Edward McSwiggen, who fell from an electric light pole a distance of 30 feet on the 10th of this month, is slowly recovering, and is able to walk about his room. His recovery is considered remarkable by both his friends and physician.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Joseph are fitting up the Shultz property on Fifteenth street and will go to housekeeping soon.

Alexander Fraser, of the Columbus medical school, is spending Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Fraser.

Officers Raided a Game In a Shantyboat.

SCHNEIDER OWNS THE CRAFT

Two Charges Were Placed Against Him, but He Wanted to Stand Trial and Will Be Heard This Week--Lively Scenes.

Saturday night the boat house owned by Edwin Schneider was raided by Officers White, McMillan, Mahony and Whan. The owner of the boat and eight visitors were arrested.

For some time the officers have understood that gambling was being done in the boat which is tied to the beach back of the Cleveland and Pittsburg passenger station, and Saturday when they were sure of their game they made the raid. The clock in the Central school was about to strike the hour of midnight when they entered the boat and saw a game of poker going on. The money which was on the table was quickly snatched by all around it and the cards were scattered about the floor. When quiet had been restored, those in the boat were arrested. The owner of the boat was charged with gambling and permitting gambling in his boat, while the visitors, Thomas Daily, Charles Gallagher, colored, Emmett Green, Charles Parker, William Farrish, Dunk Pickering, Edward Millhorn and Harry Coss were charged with gambling.

Schneider came to city hall this morning and plead not guilty to the charges. The date for the hearing has not been set.

When a reporter saw Schneider this morning he said: "The boat was anchored in 14 feet of water and no lines were attached to the shore. The officers had no right to arrest us or else they would have us taken to jail.

"The first big game was played Saturday night although several smaller games were played during the last week or so. Those who were on the boat when the officers appeared will not enter a plea until some disposition has been made of mine."

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—[Special]—"Bab," known throughout all the country as a writer of merit, died this morning. She had been ill several weeks. Her name was Mrs. Isabel Mallon.

It Was Too Much.

"Your honor," said Boston Pete, almost tearfully, "it's the newspaper publicity that I hate about this thing. They will 'aver' that I 'opine' I will be 'apprehended,' then 'incarcerated,' perhaps even in 'durance vile.' But, your honor, for a man who has never demeaned himself by work this expression, 'caught in the toils,' is too much." And the wretch hid his face.—Kansas City Star.

MEETING WAS HELD YESTERDAY

Representatives of All Concerns In the Combination Discussed Final Arrangements For Closing the Deal--Mr. Wolf, of Peoria, Went Home Well Pleased.

The closing of the deal whereby the great majority of the pottery manufacturing concerns are to become part of the American Potteries Company was discussed at a meeting of local potters yesterday.

The particular question under discussion was the invoicing of the plants and stock on hand. It was learned that expert accountants had been ordered from New York, and would be here to aid in the work as soon as possible. The meeting was resolved into a general discussion of the matter and was most harmonious.

T. P. Howard, C. D. DeLong and A. L. Tolifferro, the accountants in question, have arrived from New York, and are ready to take up the work here. Their stay in the city is indefinite, but the task will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

MURPHY IS NOT IN.

The Company Is Not Connected With the Trust—No Reason Is Given.

It was rumored today that the Murphy Pottery company was not in any way connected with the trust. The information came from a reliable source, but was so startling as to be doubted.

"I don't know the particulars of the story you mention," said Geo. C. Murphy to the NEWS REVIEW, "but it is true that our concern is not in the trust. I prefer not to discuss the matter at this time."

During the negotiations that have been in progress looking to the formation of the trust it has been accepted as a fact that the Murphy company was listed among those who would form the combination. Until this time it has never been hinted that it was on the outside.

WELL SATISFIED.

Mr. Wolf, of Peoria, Came Here For Important Information.

President Wolf, of the Peoria Pottery company, returned to his home today after a brief stay in the city. To a NEWS REVIEW man he said:

"Yes, our pottery will be a part of the trust, but I did not come here for that purpose. I came to obtain some important information which we needed, and am going back this afternoon. I think the trust will be a good thing for all concerned, particularly for East Liverpool. You here have no cause to complain."

No More Bullfights.

The last of the bullfighter probably has been seen in Havana. During the war the bulls were all eaten. After the raising of the blockade the project of importing bulls from Mexico was discussed, but was finally abandoned. Now it seems likely that before any bulls can be provided the pastime will be forbidden. The natives expect to see their bullfighting abolished as a matter of course, and there probably will be no protest. The intelligent Spaniards understand that the United States will not tolerate the pastime.—Havana Cor. Chicago Record.

PUT ON HEAVY FINES

Mayor Bough Not Lenient to Christmas Lawbreakers.

ONE GIVEN $15 AND COSTS

Because He Was Drunk and Disorderly and Resisted an Officer--The Remainder of the Long List Imbibed Too Freely and Were Caught.

While the Christmas cheer prevailed about city hall yesterday those who were arrested Saturday night and Sunday were shown no mercy by Mayor Bough. Heavy fines were imposed on all the prisoners and some received workhouse sentences.

Saturday night a telephone message was sent to the fire station to the effect that trouble was brewing in West Market street and George Garven was the cause. Officer Woods was detailed and going to the residence of a Mr. Dugan arrested Garven. He was fighting drunk, and resisted arrest as only a man in such a condition knew how. Harry Buxton assisted the officer and Garven damaged his hat in such a manner that it could not be worn. Jesse Lanning got mixed in the affair and was also struck in the face. The patrol arrived, and Officer Bryan in assisting Woods had his coat torn and was hit in the side. Woods' coat was also torn. Garven was taken to jail, and when searched a pint of whisky was taken from him. At the hearing he presented a pitiable sight. His bushy hair and unclean appearance did not have any effect on the mayor, and he was fined $15 and costs and ordered to pay $3 for a new hat for Buxton. He was charged with being drunk, disorderly conduct and resisting an officer. He paid the bill.

Bartlet Brown was arrested Sunday afternoon in the Diamond by Officer Grim and taken to jail. He was charged with being drunk, and yesterday morning was fined $7 60. He did not have the necessary funds at the time and was sent back to jail. Later in the day friends appeared and secured his released.

George Brown, a brother of Bartlet Brown, was arrested by Officer McDonald yesterday afternoon in West Market street for causing trouble in a saloon near Seventh street. He was taken to jail in the patrol and a charge of drunk and disorderly was placed against him. While he was being put in jail a woman wanted to get him out but his release was not obtained until this morning when he was asked to pay a fine of $9.60, which he did.

The patrol and Officer McCullough was the cause of Robert Sodager being placed in jail on a charge of drunk and disorderly. He paid a fine of $9 60 this morning and was released.

Furn Carroll caused trouble in a Third street boarding house yesterday and as a result he was arrested by Officer Woods. He was very drunk, and the officer was almost compelled to drag him to jail which is a short distance from the boarding house. He managed to have $7.60 when the mayor saw him this morning and he was told to go home. He went.

Officer Grim arrested a bum yesterday afternoon, but he was released early this morning without a fine.

Several complaints were made yesterday and it is very probable a number of arrests will be made before the week ends.

James Wilson went before the mayor yesterday morning to make affidavit against a young man who cut his brother, Matthew, last Friday evening. The mayor told the young man to have his brother come around and in the meantime an investigation would be made.

This Christmas there were six arrests made on common charges and nine on charges of gambling. Last year the record was as follows: Arrests, 17; patrol runs, 10. The officers' records were: Chief Johnson, 1; Woods, 4; Bettridge, 8; Earl, 3; Rose, 1; Jennings, 1; Bryan, 2; Whan, 1. The time consumed in hearing the cases occupied 14 minutes, four minutes being the largest for one case. The fines amounted to $92.40.

Concerning the annexation of the islands, Don Maximo Cortez stated:

"The better classes of our people are heartily in favor of the annexation of the islands of the archipelago to the United States. We are tired of Spanish rule and have from time to time fought for our independence from Spain, but have been sold out by those who were recognized as our leaders, but to whom Spanish gold was more tempting than the liberty of their countrymen. We now see that we are to be freed from Spain, and we desire the establishment of a government which will be stable and insure protection to the lives, liberty and property of the people.

"Such a government we don't believe can be established independently; certainly not by the insurgent or revolutionary party which recognizes Aguinaldo as its president. Personally we have nothing against Aguinaldo. We don't regard ourselves as his enemies or his intimate or personal friends. Aguinaldo is himself a person of the lower ranks, who has little or no education and no knowledge of how governmental affairs should be conducted. He is the creature of circumstances, having placed himself at the head of a revolutionary movement at the time when the people were ripe for it, and in spite of the fact that he once sold out to the Spaniards he was nevertheless received with open arms upon his return and placed himself at the front in favor of revolting against Spain, which was popular with the people. In this manner he pushed himself to the head of the revolutionary government, but this government the people cannot trust. We don't know what he is going to do next. His lieutenant general is a Chinaman, with no education, and is scarcely able to speak the Spanish language, and this is to a large extent the character of men with whom he has surrounded himself. They are not men of standing from the better classes, in whom the people can place confidence.

"Aguinaldo is, however, right with regard to the friars. They have ruled and ruined the people and the country They have taken many millions yearly from the people for which there has been absolutely no return. Many of these millions have been appropriated to their own use, while a large portion of the wealth they have wrung from the poorer classes has been sent out of the country. The $10,000 ransom which he demands for the release of certain friars is no more than just, inasmuch as they are held as prisoners of war, and this amount would in no way compensate for what they have robbed the people of within the past year alone This treatment of these friars by the Filipinos is as gentle and kind as could be expected. They have not been ill treated, and I must say for the insurgent government that it has done well by its prisoners of war, and the enemy has no ground for complaint of the treatment received by the friars or other prisoners.

"As for Agoncillo," the statement of Senor Cortez says, "he is a small lawyer in what might be called a country town. He is without reputation or any special standing with his people or the better class of them. He has no fortune, as he has represented. The money which he is spending has come from the purses of the Filipinos, who supposed he was going to accomplish some great mission which would be of great value and service to them. During the last insurrection he was one of the followers of Aguinaldo, and when Spain purchased peace by the payment of a large sum of money Agoncillo went with Aguinaldo to Hongkong, where the plotters had considerable difficulty in distributing the booty, and the matter was only amicably settled by the interference of United States Consul Wildman, who adjusted their affairs satisfactorily. He followed Aguinaldo upon his return to the islands and became one of his best friends and followers. The money which he is spending upon his pleasure trip abroad is not his own, as he has represented, for he has no considerable fortune, but it is the money furnished him by Filipinos, and now they don't expect to receive a cent of it in return or to see anything accomplished by its expenditure. Again I say we cannot trust the government of so many millions of people to this class. What we prefer is to have the islands annexed to the United States and governed by that country."—Special St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

NIVEN OFF FOR MEXICO.

The Mineralogist and Explorer to Spend a Year There.

William Niven, the New York mineralogist, started the other night on a year's trip to Mexico to continue his work of exploration among the mountains in the state of Guerrero. The story of his discovery of a ruined city in those mountains, with many temples and pyramids and the remains of dwellings of a great population, has been partly told in the New York Tribune, and accounts have also been given of the rare and valuable minerals discovered by him on Manhattan Island and at West Paterson, N. J., in 1895 and 1896, and more recently in Arizona last summer.

Mr. Niven's equipment for his expedition included insect proof tents, rifles and ammunition, camera outfits, tools, compressed foods, gold pans, assay outfit, surveying instruments, etc., weighing in all over a ton. He will make a careful collection of all interesting objects of natural history found and will develop the gold placer mines discovered on his last trip to the ruined city. From that trip, in addition to a collection of antiquities, he brought home samples of placer gold obtained from the streams of the country and adjacent territory of the ruined city, which serve to give color at least to the legend that this region was the source of Montezuma's wealth. He located more than 600 mining claims, covering all the most valuable auriferous deposits, the titles for which are now being perfected by the Mexican government. Under the concession granted to him by the federal government of Mexico Mr. Niven proposes to carry on a systematic exploration throughout the coming year of all the region, uncovering the ancient ruins of this prehistoric city and bringing to light, if possible, the hidden treasures of this unknown and extinct race, whose relics show that they were of no ordinary state of civilization.

Through the generosity of Morris K. Jesup, president of the American Museum of Natural History, who defrayed the expenses of his second expedition, Mr. Niven was enabled partially to explore this interesting region and obtain many specimens for the Jesup collection of Mexican antiquities now in the possession of the museum. After making two more successful trips to the region Mr. Niven obtained an exclusive concession from the Mexican government, giving him the right to explore and excavate for antiquities in the districts of Aldama, Hidalgo, Bravos, Guerrero and Alvarez, covering an area of 8,000 square miles.—New York Tribune.

ROUND TRIP TO MANILA.

What It Costs and the Quickest Way to Go There.

"I want to go to Manila," said the tall man with the gray beard. "I want to go first class and by the quickest route. How much will the trip cost me?" The tourist agent grabbed up a handful of papers, ran them over quickly, and after a minute or so said:

"The only way to get to Manila is by way of Hongkong. The fare to Hongkong from New York is $303.50 in American money. From Hongkong to Manila, a journey of three days or a little more, the cost of transportation is $75 in Mexican money. You have the choice of half a dozen railway routes across the continent to the Pacific coast, and this journey can be made in five days if necessary. From the west coast there is a choice of two routes to Hongkong by some of the finest and fastest steamers on the Pacific.

"The journey from San Francisco to Hongkong averages about 29 days, divided as follows: From San Francisco to Honolulu, 7 days; to Yokohama, 12 more; to Hiogo, 2; to Nagasaki, about the same time; to Shanghai, 3 days. Hongkong is three days' journey from Shanghai. There is another way to go, but the way I quote is the best. The regulation amount of baggage is allowed and the accommodations are equal to those found on the Atlantic. There are first class banks and business houses both at Hongkong and Manila, so that a traveler need not worry about drafts, cables or the like. One could make a round trip to Manila and meet all reasonable expenses for between $900 and $1,000."—New York Mail and Express.

The American University.

The semiannual meeting of the board of trustees of the American university was held recently at the Arlington hotel. At the request of the chancellor Bishop C. C. McCabe made known to the board that he proposed to organize an alliance of 1,000 ministers who should pledge themselves to raise $1,000 each, thus securing for the endowment alone $1,000,000. Later in the meeting C. C. Glover handed to Bishop McCabe a check for $1,000, being the first $1,000 actually paid upon this $1,000,000 endowment fund. A second movement, known as the Woman's Guild of the American University, will also be inaugurated by Bishop McCabe, the purpose of which is to raise a second million dollars.—Washington Post.

NOVEL COLONY SCHEME

Plan of Movement Started by a Parkersburg (W. Va.) Man.

WEISER'S COMMUNION OF MANKIND

Leader of the Colony Makes a Special Appeal to Women to Become Members—The Scheme Is to First Colonize on the Co-operative Plan All Who Will Join the Order In West Virginia—He Appeals Especially to Farmers—Initiation Fee From Two Cents Upward.

Joseph Weiser of Parkersburg, W Va., a quaint old German, who is seen daily about the Lehman hotel, at which hostelry he is employed as a sweeper, is the leader of the movement now gaining much strength throughout the state to colonize the poorer classes of the cities and settle them upon the thousands of acres of wild and mountainous land in the interior of the state.

Weiser styles his scheme the Communion of Mankind and makes a special appeal to the fair sex to become members of his band. Weiser is of German parentage. He has been a resident of the United States 36 years and claims to have spent all his earnings in advancing the cause of the poorer classes. His appearance indicates that he is not a spendthrift, and it is believed by all who know him that he is miserly and possesses much wealth, the bulk of which he has secured from the classes who have subscribed to his colonization scheme. He resides in a little out of the way house in the eastern suburbs of the city and is unmarried. By himself he sits nightly and works out his plans and is sanguine of converting to the cause thousands of the laboring classes of the larger cities.

His scheme is to first colonize on the co-operative plan all the people who will join the order in West Virginia, and he is delighted over the success of his movement so far, making a special appeal to the farming element. To join the Communion of Mankind is required: First, to be introduced by an officer of the Communion of Mankind or any one already a member; second, to pay any amount of initiation fee from 2 cents upward; third, to be registered.

Weiser suggests that all farmers, for their own good, should consolidate all their land into company homes, 1,000 acres to the home, each home to hold from 50 to 100 inhabitants according to the fertility of the soil. The homes are to be conducted and cultivated on a company system, and the dividends divided on the same plan, the occupants of each home to dwell in a common mansion managed after the best hotel system. Weiser claims the method the more recommendable, because it will very much facilitate and shorten all labor and save much money and time and afford more rest and recreation and offer greater facilities for mental improvement and social enjoyment.

All initiation fees from $1 upward are used in paying rewards, defraying current expenses and buying land for colonization and establishing all other branches of industries. The colonies are to be governed and managed by a three-fourths majority of the members, the president being the executive officer, all officials to be appointed.

In his appeal to the women Weiser says: "Since God himself declared that you should be women, be thankful for it; be proud of your sex; glory in your femininity; command admiration, respect and honor to your exalted dignity by wielding your all conquering influence and power for the highest advancement of womanhood and by aspiring to reach to the very pinnacle of nobility and grandeur."

Weiser declares he will meet with success and will show to the world that others besides the wealthy and educated men of the colleges can perform great things. The eccentric old fellow is 61 years of age, small in stature and weighs probably 140 pounds. When discussing his plans and the object of his movement and the great benefit poorer classes will receive from the organization, he becomes very enthusiastic and much excited.

In answer to the question whether or not he had received much financial aid, he replied, "The movement is progressing nicely, and only time will be required in making it a success, as from outside sources I have received much encouragement."—Special Cincinnati Enquirer.

Heavy Western Porkers.

There was recently received at the Union stockyards in Cincinnati a hog which weighed 890 pounds. It was in a crate and was shipped to the firm by boat on the Ohio river from Kentucky. A well known buyer purchased the mammoth curiosity, and after giving it two good meals, repacked it and shipped it to one of his customers at Dayton, O. The hog was exhibited there before being slaughtered. This is the largest hog ever sold in the Cincinnati market with one exception. A few weeks ago there was received at the yards a hog weighing 920 pounds, or 30 pounds more than the Kentucky production. This one came from Indiana.

UNION LABELS.

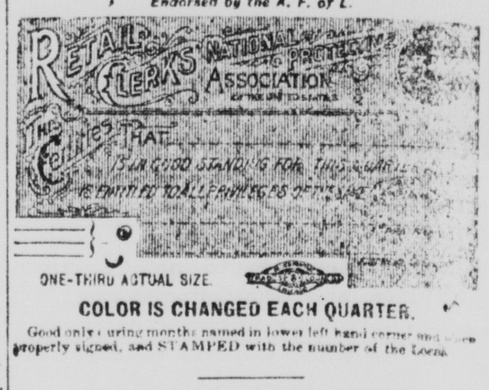

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers, and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours, and union labor employed.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.

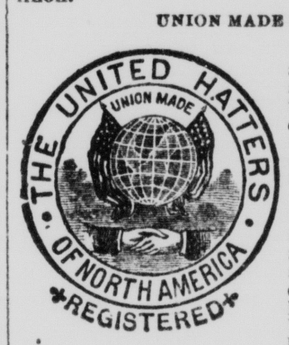

The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

The Journeymen Tailor's Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the under side of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE HATS.

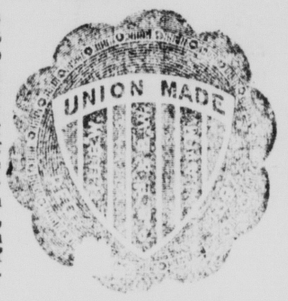

This Label is about an inch and a half square, and is printed on buff-colored paper. It is placed on every union made hat before it leaves the workman's hands. If a dealer takes a label from one hat and places it in another, or has any detached labels in his store, do not buy from him, as his labels may be counterfeit, and his hats may be the product of scab or non-union labor.

UNION MADE CLOTHES.

You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants.

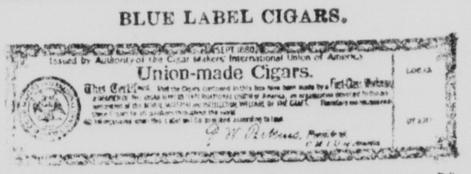

BICYCLE LABEL.

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pea green, bordered by gold.

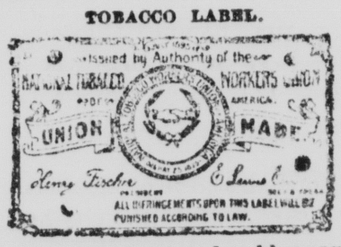

The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the tube that receives the seat post.

BLUE LABEL CIGARS.

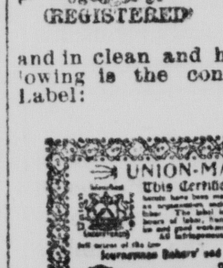

This label is printed in black ink on light blue paper, and is pasted on the cigar-box. Don't mix it up with the U. S. revenue label on the box, as the latter is nearly of a similar color.

TOBACCO LABEL.

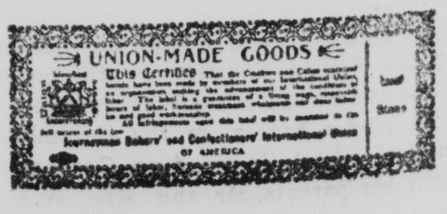

The above Label, printed on blue paper, will be found on all plug tobacco and on the wrappers of chewing tobacco manufactured in union tobacco factories.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size fac simile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions and in clean and healthy bakeshops. Following is the confectioners' and cracker Label:

PUT ON HEAVY FINES

Mayor Bough Not Lenient to Christmas Lawbreakers.

ONE GIVEN $15 AND COSTS

Because He Was Drunk and Disorderly and Resisted an Officer--The Remainder of the Long List Imbibed Too Freely and Were Caught.

While the Christmas cheer prevailed about city hall yesterday those who were arrested Saturday night and Sunday were shown no mercy by Mayor Bough. Heavy fines were imposed on all the prisoners and some received workhouse sentences.

Saturday night a telephone message was sent to the fire station to the effect that trouble was brewing in West Market street and George Garven was the cause. Officer Woods was detailed and going to the residence of a Mr. Dugan arrested Garven. He was fighting drunk, and resisted arrest as only a man in such a condition knew how. Harry Buxton assisted the officer and Garven damaged his hat in such a manner that it could not be worn. Jesse Lanning got mixed in the affair and was also struck in the face. The patrol arrived, and Officer Bryan in assisting Woods had his coat torn and was hit in the side. Woods' coat was also torn. Garven was taken to jail, and when searched a pint of whisky was taken from him. At the hearing he presented a pitiable sight. His bushy hair and unclean appearance did not have any effect on the mayor, and he was fined $15 and costs and ordered to pay $3 for a new hat for Buxton. He was charged with being drunk, disorderly conduct and resisting an officer. He paid the bill.

Bartlet Brown was arrested Sunday afternoon in the Diamond by Officer Grim and taken to jail. He was charged with being drunk, and yesterday morning was fined $7 60. He did not have the necessary funds at the time and was sent back to jail. Later in the day friends appeared and secured his release.

George Brown, a brother of Bartlet Brown, was arrested by Officer McDonald yesterday afternoon in West Market street for causing trouble in a saloon near Seventh street. He was taken to jail in the patrol and a charge of drunk and disorderly was placed against him. While he was being put in jail a woman wanted to get him out but his release was not obtained until this morning when he was asked to pay a fine of $9.60, which he did.

The patrol and Officer McCullough was the cause of Robert Sodager being placed in jail on a charge of drunk and disorderly. He paid a fine of $9 60 this morning and was released.

Furn Carroll caused trouble in a Third street boarding house yesterday and as a result he was arrested by Officer Woods. He was very drunk, and the officer was almost compelled to drag him to jail which is a short distance from the boarding house. He managed to have $7.60 when the mayor saw him this morning and he was told to go home. He went.

Officer Grim arrested a bum yesterday afternoon, but he was released early this morning without a fine.

Several complaints were made yesterday and it is very probable a number of arrests will be made before the week ends.

James Wilson went before the mayor yesterday morning to make affidavit against a young man who cut his brother, Matthew, last Friday evening. The mayor told the young man to have his brother come around and in the meantime an investigation would be made.

This Christmas there were six arrests made on common charges and nine on charges of gambling. Last year the record was as follows: Arrests, 17; patrol runs, 10. The officers' records were: Chief Johnson, 1; Woods, 4; Bettridge, 8; Earl, 3; Rose, 1; Jennings, 1; Bryan, 2; Whan, 1. The time consumed in hearing the cases occupied 14 minutes, four minutes being the largest for one case. The fines amounted to $92.40.

Wealthy Manila Citizen Tells of Their Sentiments.

ANNEXATION THE GENERAL WISH.

Don Maximo Cortes Says Aguinaldo Has No Standing and Could Not Establish a Stable Government—Some New Light on the Character and Influence of the Dictator and His Envoy, Agoncillo—Better Class Distrust Them.

The Cortez brothers, who are members of one of the wealthiest and most influential families of Filipinos in Manila, recently gave out an interesting statement regarding the condition of affairs in the Philippines from the point of view of the annexationists and also with regard to the standing of Aguinaldo and his representative to the United States, Agoncillo, and their standing among the better classes of Filipinos.

Concerning the annexation of the islands, Don Maximo Cortez stated:

"The better classes of our people are heartily in favor of the annexation of the islands of the archipelago to the United States. We are tired of Spanish rule and have from time to time fought for our independence from Spain, but have been sold out by those who were recognized as our leaders, but to whom Spanish gold was more tempting than the liberty of their countrymen. PUT ON HEAVY FINES

Mayor Bough Not Lenient to Christmas Lawbreakers.

ONE GIVEN $15 AND COSTS

Because He Was Drunk and Disorderly and Resisted an Officer--The Remainder of the Long List Imbibed Too Freely and Were Caught.

While the Christmas cheer prevailed about city hall yesterday those who were arrested Saturday night and Sunday were shown no mercy by Mayor Bough. Heavy fines were imposed on all the prisoners and some received workhouse sentences.

Saturday night a telephone message was sent to the fire station to the effect that trouble was brewing in West Market street and George Garven was the cause. Officer Woods was detailed and going to the residence of a Mr. Dugan arrested Garven. He was fighting drunk, and resisted arrest as only a man in such a condition knew how. Harry Buxton assisted the officer and Garven damaged his hat in such a manner that it could not be worn. Jesse Lanning got mixed in the affair and was also struck in the face. The patrol arrived, and Officer Bryan in assisting Woods had his coat torn and was hit in the side. Woods' coat was also torn. Garven was taken to jail, and when searched a pint of whisky was taken from him. At the hearing he presented a pitiable sight. His bushy hair and unclean appearance did not have any effect on the mayor, and he was fined $15 and costs and ordered to pay $3 for a new hat for Buxton. He was charged with being drunk, disorderly conduct and resisting an officer. He paid the bill.

Bartlet Brown was arrested Sunday afternoon in the Diamond by Officer Grim and taken to jail. He was charged with being drunk, and yesterday morning was fined $7 60. He did not have the necessary funds at the time and was sent back to jail. Later in the day friends appeared and secured his release.

George Brown, a brother of Bartlet Brown, was arrested by Officer McDonald yesterday afternoon in West Market street for causing trouble in a saloon near Seventh street. He was taken to jail in the patrol and a charge of drunk and disorderly was placed against him. While he was being put in jail a woman wanted to get him out but his release was not obtained until this morning when he was asked to pay a fine of $9.60, which he did.

The patrol and Officer McCullough was the cause of Robert Sodager being placed in jail on a charge of drunk and disorderly. He paid a fine of $9 60 this morning and was released.

Furn Carroll caused trouble in a Third street boarding house yesterday and as a result he was arrested by Officer Woods. He was very drunk, and the officer was almost compelled to drag him to jail which is a short distance from the boarding house. He managed to have $7.60 when the mayor saw him this morning and he was told to go home. He went.

Officer Grim arrested a bum yesterday afternoon, but he was released early this morning without a fine.

Several complaints were made yesterday and it is very probable a number of arrests will be made before the week ends.

James Wilson went before the mayor yesterday morning to make affidavit against a young man who cut his brother, Matthew, last Friday evening. The mayor told the young man to have his brother come around and in the meantime an investigation would be made.

This Christmas there were six arrests made on common charges and nine on charges of gambling. Last year the record was as follows: Arrests, 17; patrol runs, 10. The officers' records were: Chief Johnson, 1; Woods, 4; Bettridge, 8; Earl, 3; Rose, 1; Jennings, 1; Bryan, 2; Whan, 1. The time consumed in hearing the cases occupied 14 minutes, four minutes being the largest for one case. The fines amounted to $92.40.

AIMS OF THE FILIPINOS.

Wealthy Manila Citizen Tells of Their Sentiments.

ANNEXATION THE GENERAL WISH.

Don Maximo Cortez Says Aguinaldo Has No Standing and Could Not Establish a Stable Government—Some New Light on the Character and Influence of the Dictator and His Envoy, Agoncillo—Better Class Distrust Them.

The Cortez brothers, who are members of one of the wealthiest and most influential families of Filipinos in Manila, recently gave out an interesting statement regarding the condition of affairs in the Philippines from the point of view of the annexationists and also with regard to the standing of Aguinaldo and his representative to the United States, Agoncillo, and their standing among the better classes of Filipinos.

Concerning the annexation of the islands, Don Maximo Cortez stated:

"The better classes of our people are heartily in favor of the annexation of the islands of the archipelago to the United States. We are tired of Spanish rule and have from time to time fought for our independence from Spain, but have been sold out by those who were recognized as our leaders, but to whom Spanish gold was more tempting than the liberty of their countrymen. We now see that we are to be freed from Spain, and we desire the establishment of a government which will be stable and insure protection to the lives, liberty and property of the people.

"Such a government we don't believe can be established independently; certainly not by the insurgent or revolutionary party which recognizes Aguinaldo as its president. Personally we have nothing against Aguinaldo. We don't regard ourselves as his enemies or his intimate or personal friends. Aguinaldo is himself a person of the lower ranks, who has little or no education and no knowledge of how governmental affairs should be conducted. He is the creature of circumstances, having placed himself at the head of a revolutionary movement at the time when the people were ripe for it, and in spite of the fact that he once sold out to the Spaniards he was nevertheless received with open arms upon his return and placed himself at the front in favor of revolting against Spain, which was popular with the people. In this manner he pushed himself to the head of the revolutionary government, but this government the people cannot trust. We don't know what he is going to do next. His lieutenant general is a Chinaman, with no education, and is scarcely able to speak the Spanish language, and this is to a large extent the character of men with whom he has surrounded himself. They are not men of standing from the better classes, in whom the people can place confidence.

"Aguinaldo is, however, right with regard to the friars. They have ruled and ruined the people and the country They have taken many millions yearly from the people for which there has been absolutely no return. Many of these millions have been appropriated to their own use, while a large portion of the wealth they have wrung from the poorer classes has been sent out of the country. The $10,000 ransom which he demands for the release of certain friars is no more than just, inasmuch as they are held as prisoners of war, and this amount would in no way compensate for what they have robbed the people of within the past year alone This treatment of these friars by the Filipinos is as gentle and kind as could be expected. They have not been ill treated, and I must say for the insurgent government that it has done well by its prisoners of war, and the enemy has no ground for complaint of the treatment received by the friars or other prisoners.

"As for Agoncillo," the statement of Senor Cortez says, "he is a small lawyer in what might be called a country town. He is without reputation or any special standing with his people or the better class of them. He has no fortune, as he has represented. The money which he is spending has come from the purses of the Filipinos, who supposed he was going to accomplish some great mission which would be of great value and service to them. During the last insurrection he was one of the followers of Aguinaldo, and when Spain purchased peace by the payment of a large sum of money Agoncillo went with Aguinaldo to Hongkong, where the plotters had considerable difficulty in distributing the booty, and the matter was only amicably settled by the interference of United States Consul Wildman, who adjusted their affairs satisfactorily. He followed Aguinaldo upon his return to the islands and became one of his best friends and followers. The money which he is spending upon his pleasure trip abroad is not his own, as he has represented, for he has no considerable fortune, but it is the money furnished him by Filipinos, and now they don't expect to receive a cent of it in return or to see anything accomplished by its expenditure. Again I say we cannot trust the government of so many millions of people to this class. What we prefer is to have the islands annexed to the United States and governed by that country."—Special St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

NIVEN OFF FOR MEXICO.

The Mineralogist and Explorer to Spend a Year There.

William Niven, the New York mineralogist, started the other night on a year's trip to Mexico to continue his work of exploration among the mountains in the state of Guerrero. The story of his discovery of a ruined city in those mountains, with many temples and pyramids and the remains of dwellings of a great population, has been partly told in the New York Tribune, and accounts have also been given of the rare and valuable minerals discovered by him on Manhattan Island and at West Paterson, N. J., in 1895 and 1896, and more recently in Arizona last summer.

Mr. Niven's equipment for his expedition included insect proof tents, rifles and ammunition, camera outfits, tools, compressed foods, gold pans, assay outfit, surveying instruments, etc., weighing in all over a ton. He will make a careful collection of all interesting objects of natural history found and will develop the gold placer mines discovered on his last trip to the ruined city. From that trip, in addition to a collection of antiquities, he brought home samples of placer gold obtained from the streams of the country and adjacent territory of the ruined city, which serve to give color at least to the legend that this region was the source of Montezuma's wealth. He located more than 600 mining claims, covering all the most valuable auriferous deposits, the titles for which are now being perfected by the Mexican government. Under the concession granted to him by the federal government of Mexico Mr. Niven proposes to carry on a systematic exploration throughout the coming year of all the region, uncovering the ancient ruins of this prehistoric city and bringing to light, if possible, the hidden treasures of this unknown and extinct race, whose relics show that they were of no ordinary state of civilization.

Through the generosity of Morris K. Jesup, president of the American Museum of Natural History, who defrayed the expenses of his second expedition, Mr. Niven was enabled partially to explore this interesting region and obtain many specimens for the Jesup collection of Mexican antiquities now in the possession of the museum. After making two more successful trips to the region Mr. Niven obtained an exclusive concession from the Mexican government, giving him the right to explore and excavate for antiquities in the districts of Aldama, Hidalgo, Bravos, Guerrero and Alvarez, covering an area of 8,000 square miles.—New York Tribune.

ROUND TRIP TO MANILA.

What It Costs and the Quickest Way to Go There.

"I want to go to Manila," said the tall man with the gray beard. "I want to go first class and by the quickest route. How much will the trip cost me?" The tourist agent grabbed up a handful of papers, ran them over quickly, and after a minute or so said:

"The only way to get to Manila is by way of Hongkong. The fare to Hongkong from New York is $303.50 in American money. From Hongkong to Manila, a journey of three days or a little more, the cost of transportation is $75 in Mexican money. You have the choice of half a dozen railway routes across the continent to the Pacific coast, and this journey can be made in five days if necessary. From the west coast there is a choice of two routes to Hongkong by some of the finest and fastest steamers on the Pacific.

"The journey from San Francisco to Hongkong averages about 29 days, divided as follows: From San Francisco to Honolulu, 7 days; to Yokohama, 12 more; to Hiogo, 2; to Nagasaki, about the same time; to Shanghai, 3 days. Hongkong is three days' journey from Shanghai. There is another way to go, but the way I quote is the best. The regulation amount of baggage is allowed and the accommodations are equal to those found on the Atlantic. There are first class banks and business houses both at Hongkong and Manila, so that a traveler need not worry about drafts, cables or the like. One could make a round trip to Manila and meet all reasonable expenses for between $900 and $1,000."—New York Mail and Express.

The American University.

The semiannual meeting of the board of trustees of the American university was held recently at the Arlington hotel. At the request of the chancellor Bishop C. C. McCabe made known to the board that he proposed to organize an alliance of 1,000 ministers who should pledge themselves to raise $1,000 each, thus securing for the endowment alone $1,000,000. Later in the meeting C. C. Glover handed to Bishop McCabe a check for $1,000, being the first $1,000 actually paid upon this $1,000,000 endowment fund. A second movement, known as the Woman's Guild of the American University, will also be inaugurated by Bishop McCabe, the purpose of which is to raise a second million dollars.—Washington Post.

NOVEL COLONY SCHEME

Plan of Movement Started by a Parkersburg (W. Va.) Man.

WEISER'S COMMUNION OF MANKIND

Leader of the Colony Makes a Special Appeal to Women to Become Members—The Scheme Is to First Colonize on the Co-operative Plan All Who Will Join the Order In West Virginia—He Appeals Especially to Farmers—Initintion Fee From Two Cents Upward.

Joseph Weiser of Parkersburg, W Va., a quaint old German, who is seen daily about the Lehman hotel, at which hostelry he is employed as a sweeper, is the leader of the movement now gaining much strength throughout the state to colonize the poorer classes of the cities and settle them upon the thousands of acres of wild and mountainous land in the interior of the state.

Weiser styles his scheme the Communion of Mankind and makes a special appeal to the fair sex to become members of his band. Weiser is of German parentage. He has been a resident of the United States 36 years and claims to have spent all his earnings in advancing the cause of the poorer classes. His appearance indicates that he is not a spendthrift, and it is believed by all who know him that he is miserly and possesses much wealth, the bulk of which he has secured from the classes who have subscribed to his colonization scheme. He resides in a little out of the way house in the eastern suburbs of the city and is unmarried. By himself he sits nightly and works out his plans and is sanguine of converting to the cause thousands of the laboring classes of the larger cities.

His scheme is to first colonize on the co-operative plan all the people who will join the order in West Virginia, and he is delighted over the success of his movement so far, making a special appeal to the farming element. To join the Communion of Mankind is required: First, to be introduced by an officer of the Communion of Mankind or any one already a member; second, to pay any amount of initiation fee from 2 cents upward; third, to be registered.

Weiser suggests that all farmers, for their own good, should consolidate all their land into company homes, 1,000 acres to the home, each home to hold from 50 to 100 inhabitants according to the fertility of the soil. The homes are to be conducted and cultivated on a company system, and the dividends divided on the same plan, the occupants of each home to dwell in a common mansion managed after the best hotel system. Weiser claims the method the more recommendable, because it will very much facilitate and shorten all labor and save much money and time and afford more rest and recreation and offer greater facilities for mental improvement and social enjoyment.

All initiation fees from $1 upward are used in paying rewards, defraying current expenses and buying land for colonization and establishing all other branches of industries. The colonies are to be governed and managed by a three-fourths majority of the members, the president being the executive officer, all officials to be appointed.

In his appeal to the women Weiser says: "Since God himself declared that you should be women, be thankful for it; be proud of your sex; glory in your femininity; command admiration, respect and honor to your exalted dignity by wielding your all conquering influence and power for the highest advancement of womanhood and by aspiring to reach to the very pinnacle of nobility and grandeur."

Weiser declares he will meet with success and will show to the world that others besides the wealthy and educated men of the colleges can perform great things. The eccentric old fellow is 61 years of age, small in stature and weighs probably 140 pounds. When discussing his plans and the object of his movement and the great benefit poorer classes will receive from the organization, he becomes very enthusiastic and much excited.

In answer to the question whether or not he had received much financial aid, he replied, "The movement is progressing nicely, and only time will be required in making it a success, as from outside sources I have received much encouragement."—Special Cincinnati Enquirer.

Heavy Western Porkers.

There was recently received at the Union stockyards in Cincinnati a hog which weighed 890 pounds. It was in a crate and was shipped to the firm by boat on the Ohio river from Kentucky. A well known buyer purchased the mammoth curiosity, and after giving it two good meals, repacked it and shipped it to one of his customers at Dayton, O. The hog was exhibited there before being slaughtered. This is the largest hog ever sold in the Cincinnati market with one exception. A few weeks ago there was received at the yards a hog weighing 920 pounds, or 30 pounds more than the Kentucky production. This one came from Indiana

THREE MEN SUSPECTED

As the Parties Who Robbed Liverpool Stores.

WILL BE HEARD WEDNESDAY

In Steubenville, Where They Are Now Confined -- Detective Shiffler, of the Cleveland and Pittsburg, Has Been Following the Party For a Long Time.

Through the untiring efforts of Detective Shiffler of the Cleveland and Pittsburg road, there will go on trial in Steubenville tomorrow morning three desperate characters, to whom the detective thinks may be traced the recent robberies in his city. The names of the men now in jail at that place are Jim and John Seeley, brothers, known to the police as river pirates, and William Hawk a well-known character, residing at times in Parkersburg. The men, it is charged, make their living by stealing and the plunder they secured was stored in two boat houses in which they lived The men operated in the river towns from Smith's Ferry to Bridgeport, and after robbing a place went to their boats and floated down the river to the next place. The police, when they reached the boats, found in bushel quantities coffee, beans, peas, sugar, canned goods bottled stuffs, and clothing of all description for men and women. The bulk of the goods have been identified by merchants in Ackleyville, Empire, Toronto, Brilliant and Brown's station Some goods supposed to have been taken from this place remain unclaimed.

Detective Shiffler was in this place Saturday night, and while he would not talk of his visit it is thought he was in consultation with several uptown merchants. It is said that boat houses answering the description of those raided were moored along the beach near the flint mill late in the fall.

ODD VOYAGE ENDED BY FIRE.

Flames Stop "Dynamite Johnny's" Ferryboat Trip to Cuba.

"Dynamite Johnny" Captain O'Brien was compelled to put back to New York the other afternoon with the ferryboat J. H. Brinkerhoff after the boat had steamed abont 60 miles on its voyage to Cuba. Captain O'Brien had started to take the ferryboat to Havana, where she is to run across Havana harbor between Havana and Regla. The vessel was purchased by a broker in New York who represents several Cuban capitalists. She has a crew of 11, 55 tons of coal and $1,000 worth of provisions.

The Brinkerhoff left Manning's wharf, Brooklyn, the other afternoon, her course lying along the coast as close to shore as it is possible to go. From a defect in the electric light wires running through the boat the woodwork caught fire in the engine room shortly before midnight and spread to the decks. The engines were shut down and all hands fought the flames.

It turned out that the foresight of Captain O'Brien had saved them. The last article put on board before she sailed was a 40 foot hose. Captain O'Brien had refused to leave port until this fire precaution was complete, although the absence of the hose was not discovered until orders were about to be given to put forth. This had resulted in a delay of 16 hours. Without the hose the boat would have been a total loss. The fire was extinguished while at sea. A part of the machinery was damaged and considerable of the woodwork destroyed.

The J. H. Brinkerhoff, with her queer protections from the sea, is an uncouth object. Great bulkheads, V shaped, are built fore and aft on the main deck to the pilothouse deck. Every other plank on the main deck and in the cabins has been ripped up so as to give the sea a chance to expend its force and prevent the volume of water constantly beating against the boat from tearing the decks apart. On the entire trip there will be one constant swash of ocean pouring through the little ferryboat. —New York Journal.

NEW POSTAGE STAMP.

Latest Issue of the Canadian Postal Authorities.

Letters are now coming from Canada having affixed to them specimens of a new Canadian postage stamp which has been issued to commemorate the inauguration of the penny post system between Greeat Britain and her colonies. The stamp was designed by Canada's postmaster general. It carries out the imperial idea in a striking way. Spread across the face of the stamp, which is about the size of our current Omaha exposition stamps, is a neatly executed map of the world showing the British possessions as compared with those of all other countries. The British possessions are colored bright red, while the rest of the stamp is of a pale violet tint.

Above the map is a crown surmounting a bunch of oak and maple leaves, symbolizing the union of England, the mother country, with Canada. The words "Canada" and "Postage" appear on either side. Below the map are "Xmas, 1898," and the quotation, "We hold a vaster empire than has been." The denomination of the stamp, for which there is sure to be an active demand on the part of collectors of stamps, is 2 cents, the equivalent of 1 penny —New York Sun.

Milkmaid Taught the Professor.

Rev. Dr. Upson says that he was once rusticating with Dr. Timothy Dwight, who has just resigned the presidency of Yale, when they borrowed a horse from a farmer on condition they unharnessed him when through their drive. They filled the contract except as to the collar, which they could not get off. Dr. Dwight said, "It must have been put on when he was a colt, and the way his head's grown since it's impossible to remove it." Just then a passing milkmaid told them to turn the collar round if they wanted it off. "My dear brother," said Dwight, "either of us thinks he knows ten times as much as that woman, and yet we didn't know enough to turn the collar."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

She Holds the Fate of a Nation.

At the age of 64 that extraordinary woman, the empress dowager of China, after having successfully delivered three coups d'etat, subdued innumerable revolts, broken all her enemies, and, what is more, all her former friends: after experiencing all the dramatic ups and downs of the tragedy of power, finds herself at length the sole power in China. The fate of Asia is bound up in her lacquered chair and her ivory baton If she raises her hand toward the north, Russia will triumph. If, on the contrary, she leans toward those who hold the sea, another era will commence To whatever side her favor inclines she will not be able to avert a conflict.—Paris Temps.

NEW ARENA FOR SPORTS

George Gould to Erect a Great Building at Lakewood, N. J.

WILL COVER AN ACRE OF GROUND.

Big Riding Ring, Gymnasium, Tennis Court and Swimming Pool Lighted by Electricity Will Be Features of the Building—Will Cost Several Hundred Thousand Dollars.

Georgian Court—that is the name George Gould decided on the other day for his estate at Lakewood. But that is the smallest part of the plan he has in mind. The young multimillionaire intends to have within a twelvemonth the finest country place in the United States, equalled by only a half dozen of the great baronial places of England. Mr. Gould is consulting Bruce Price, the architect, as to plans. "Spare no expense," is the order.

Mr. Gould has long had a fine house and ample grounds at Lakewood. He spends his winters there, going down after Christmas. With riding to hounds, golf and shooting, he proves himself an ideal country gentleman. He is a liberal host at the Ocean County club, Lakewood's exclusive organization, and now he has found his house is too small.

But it is no addition he is planning. He is planning—and will start work next spring—a big building where all sorts of sports may be indulged in during bad weather—a sort of country club indoors, where he and his friends can ride, swim and play tennis when snow or rain makes outdoor sport uncomfortable.

"I want," was Mr. Gould's first order, "a big arena where the children and I can ride when it's nasty outside —something as big as Madison Square Garden and laid with tanbark."

But with the working out of the scheme came other plans. The building will cover more than an acre. It will have two stories and an attic. The great private riding ring will take most of the ground story. Off it will be a score of stalls for Mr. Gould's hunters and the children's Shetland ponies.

In the basement will be a great marble swimming pool, lighted by electric globes under the water. There will be a heating plant, too, which will keep the water at 72 degrees on the coldest winter day. On the ground story there will be a court for indoor tennis and a gymnasium equipped with the latest apparatus.

All the spare space on the second floor will be made into bachelor quarters, 10 or 12 suits, with a bathroom for each. Mr. Gould often has been forced to engage quarters at the Lakewood hotel for bachelors who attended his house parties, and he wants to be free from that annoyance.

When the great building is completed, it will be the only one of its kind in America and will cost several hundred thousand dollars.—New York World.

NEW ARC LAMPS.

Made Without Carbons and Require No Attention For a Year.

Provisional protection has recently been obtained for what appears to be a valuable electric arc lamp invention. The chief merit of the new lamp lies in the fact that the ordinary carbons, inseparable from other electric arc lights, are not required at all.

On an average, after every 50 hours' burning, the carbons have to be renewed. In Steubenville, Where They Are Now Confined -- Detective Shiffler, of the Cleveland and Pittsburg, Has Been Following the Party For a Long Time.

Through the untiring efforts of Detective Shiffler of the Cleveland and Pittsburg road, there will go on trial in Steubenville tomorrow morning three desperate characters, to whom the detective thinks may be traced the recent robberies in his city. The names of the men now in jail at that place are Jim and John Seeley, brothers, known to the police as river pirates, and William Hawk a well-known character, residing at times in Parkersburg. The men, it is charged, make their living by stealing and the plunder they secured was stored in two boat houses in which they lived The men operated in the river towns from Smith's Ferry to Bridgeport, and after robbing a place went to their boats and floated down the river to the next place. The police, when they reached the boats, found in bushel quantities coffee, beans, peas, sugar, canned goods bottled stuffs, and clothing of all description for men and women. The bulk of the goods have been identified by merchants in Ackleyville, Empire, Toronto, Brilliant and Brown's station Some goods supposed to have been taken from this place remain unclaimed.

Detective Shiffler was in this place Saturday night, and while he would not talk of his visit it is thought he was in consultation with several uptown merchants. It is said that boat houses answering the description of those raided were moored along the beach near the flint mill late in the fall.

ODD VOYAGE ENDED BY FIRE.

Flames Stop "Dynamite Johnny's" Ferryboat Trip to Cuba.

"Dynamite Johnny" Captain O'Brien was compelled to put back to New York the other afternoon with the ferryboat J. H. Brinkerhoff after the boat had steamed about 60 miles on its voyage to Cuba. Captain O'Brien had started to take the ferryboat to Havana, where she is to run across Havana harbor between Havana and Regla. The vessel was purchased by a broker in New York who represents several Cuban capitalists. She has a crew of 11, 55 tons of coal and $1,000 worth of provisions.

The Brinkerhoff left Manning's wharf, Brooklyn, the other afternoon, her course lying along the coast as close to shore as it is possible to go. From a defect in the electric light wires running through the boat the woodwork caught fire in the engine room shortly before midnight and spread to the decks. The engines were shut down and all hands fought the flames.

It turned out that the foresight of Captain O'Brien had saved them. The last article put on board before she sailed was a 40 foot hose. Captain O'Brien had refused to leave port until this fire precaution was complete, although the absence of the hose was not discovered until orders were about to be given to put forth. This had resulted in a delay of 16 hours. Without the hose the boat would have been a total loss. The fire was extinguished while at sea. A part of the machinery was damaged and considerable of the woodwork destroyed.

The J. H. Brinkerhoff, with her queer protections from the sea, is an uncouth object. Great bulkheads, V shaped, are built fore and aft on the main deck to the pilothouse deck. Every other plank on the main deck and in the cabins has been ripped up so as to give the sea a chance to expend its force and prevent the volume of water constantly beating against the boat from tearing the decks apart. On the entire trip there will be one constant swash of ocean pouring through the little ferryboat. —New York Journal.

NEW POSTAGE STAMP.

Latest Issue of the Canadian Postal Authorities.

Letters are now coming from Canada having affixed to them specimens of a new Canadian postage stamp which has been issued to commemorate the inauguration of the penny post system between Greeat Britain and her colonies. The stamp was designed by Canada's postmaster general. It carries out the imperial idea in a striking way. Spread across the face of the stamp, which is about the size of our current Omaha exposition stamps, is a neatly executed map of the world showing the British possessions as compared with those of all other countries. The British possessions are colored bright red, while the rest of the stamp is of a pale violet tint.

Above the map is a crown surmounting a bunch of oak and maple leaves, symbolizing the union of England, the mother country, with Canada. The words "Canada" and "Postage" appear on either side. Below the map are "Xmas, 1898," and the quotation, "We hold a vaster empire than has been." The denomination of the stamp, for which there is sure to be an active demand on the part of collectors of stamps, is 2 cents, the equivalent of 1 penny —New York Sun.

Milkmaid Taught the Professor.

Rev. Dr. Upson says that he was once rusticating with Dr. Timothy Dwight, who has just resigned the presidency of Yale, when they borrowed a horse from a farmer on condition they unharnessed him when through their drive. They filled the contract except as to the collar, which they could not get off. Dr. Dwight said, "It must have been put on when he was a colt, and the way his head's grown since it's impossible to remove it." Just then a passing milkmaid told them to turn the collar round if they wanted it off. "My dear brother," said Dwight, "either of us thinks he knows ten times as much as that woman, and yet we didn't know enough to turn the collar."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

She Holds the Fate of a Nation.

At the age of 64 that extraordinary woman, the empress dowager of China, after having successfully delivered three coups d'etat, subdued innumerable revolts, broken all her enemies, and, what is more, all her former friends, after experiencing all the dramatic ups and downs of the tragedy of power, finds herself at length the sole power in China. The fate of Asia is bound up in her lacquered chair and her ivory baton If she raises her hand toward the north, Russia will triumph. If, on the contrary, she leans toward those who hold the sea, another era will commence To whatever side her favor inclines she will not be able to avert a conflict.—Paris Temps.

NEW ARENA FOR SPORTS

George Gould to Erect a Great Building at Lakewood, N. J.

WILL COVER AN ACRE OF GROUND.

Big Riding Ring, Gymnasium, Tennis Court and Swimming Pool Lighted by Electricity Will Be Features of the Building—Will Cost Several Hundred Thousand Dollars.

Georgian Court—that is the name George Gould decided on the other day for his estate at Lakewood. But that is the smallest part of the plan he has in mind. The young multimillionaire intends to have within a twelvemonth the finest country place in the United States, equalled by only a half dozen of the great baronial places of England. Mr. Gould is consulting Bruce Price, the architect, as to plans. "Spare no expense," is the order.

Mr. Gould has long had a fine house and ample grounds at Lakewood. He spends his winters there, going down after Christmas. With riding to hounds, golf and shooting, he proves himself an ideal country gentleman. He is a liberal host at the Ocean County club, Lakewood's exclusive organization, and now he has found his house is too small.

But it is no addition he is planning. He is planning—and will start work next spring—a big building where all sorts of sports may be indulged in during bad weather—a sort of country club indoors, where he and his friends can ride, swim and play tennis when snow or rain makes outdoor sport uncomfortable.

"I want," was Mr. Gould's first order, "a big arena where the children and I can ride when it's nasty outside —something as big as Madison Square Garden and laid with tanbark."

But with the working out of the scheme came other plans. The building will cover more than an acre. It will have two stories and an attic. The great private riding ring will take most of the ground story. Off it will be a score of stalls for Mr. Gould's hunters and the children's Shetland ponies.

In the basement will be a great marble swimming pool, lighted by electric globes under the water. There will be a heating plant, too, which will keep the water at 72 degrees on the coldest winter day. On the ground story there will be a court for indoor tennis and a gymnasium equipped with the latest apparatus.

All the spare space on the second floor will be made into bachelor quarters, 10 or 12 suits, with a bathroom for each. Mr. Gould often has been forced to engage quarters at the Lakewood hotel for bachelors who attended his house parties, and he wants to be free from that annoyance.

When the great building is completed, it will be the only one of its kind in America and will cost several hundred thousand dollars.—New York World.

NEW ARC LAMPS.

Made Without Carbons and Require No Attention For a Year.

Provisional protection has recently been obtained for what appears to be a valuable electric arc lamp invention. The chief merit of the new lamp lies in the fact that the ordinary carbons, inseparable from other electric arc lights, are not required at all.

On an average, after every 50 hours' burning, the carbons have to be renewed. The new lamp, as opposed to this, will require no attention for at least 12 months, except an occasional outside cleaning. It is simply an airtight glass globe from which the air has been exhausted. Inside are two L shaped aluminium arms tipped with platinum, which take the place of the old fashioned carbon and are regulated by a pendulum.—London News.

The Czar Nicholas II has the reputation of being the most liberal of sovereigns, particularly in regard to tips, and it is stated that when on a visit his smallest "pourboire" to the domestics is never less than 25 francs, even to servants who have but rendered him the slightest of services, while to the coachmen and servants in attendance upon his royal person the tip often exceeds 200 francs. The German kaiser is just the opposite to this, and although he travels perhaps more than any other sovereign he is very careful with his gratuities, which seldom exceed 2 or 3 marks.—Brussels Petit Bleu.

The young multimillionaire intends to have within a twelvemonth the finest country place in the United States, equalled by only a half dozen of the great baronial places of England. Mr. Gould is consulting Bruce Price, the architect, as to plans. "Spare no expense," is the order.

Mr. Gould has long had a fine house and ample grounds at Lakewood. He spends his winters there, going down after Christmas. With riding to hounds, golf and shooting, he proves himself an ideal country gentleman. He is a liberal host at the Ocean County club, Lakewood's exclusive organization, and now he has found his house is too small.

But it is no addition he is planning. He is planning—and will start work next spring—a big building where all sorts of sports may be indulged in during bad weather—a sort of country club indoors, where he and his friends can ride, swim and play tennis when snow or rain makes outdoor sport uncomfortable.

"I want," was Mr. Gould's first order, "a big arena where the children and I can ride when it's nasty outside —something as big as Madison Square Garden and laid with tanbark."

But with the working out of the scheme came other plans. The building will cover more than an acre. It will have two stories and an attic. The great private riding ring will take most of the ground story. Off it will be a score of stalls for Mr. Gould's hunters and the children's Shetland ponies.

In the basement will be a great marble swimming pool, lighted by electric globes under the water. There will be a heating plant, too, which will keep the water at 72 degrees on the coldest winter day. On the ground story there will be a court for indoor tennis and a gymnasium equipped with the latest apparatus.

All the spare space on the second floor will be made into bachelor quarters, 10 or 12 suits, with a bathroom for each. Mr. Gould often has been forced to engage quarters at the Lakewood hotel for bachelors who attended his house parties, and he wants to be free from that annoyance.

When the great building is completed, it will be the only one of its kind in America and will cost several hundred thousand dollars.—New York World.

NEW ARC LAMPS.

Made Without Carbons and Require No Attention For a Year.

Provisional protection has recently been obtained for what appears to be a valuable electric arc lamp invention. The chief merit of the new lamp lies in the fact that the ordinary carbons, inseparable from other electric arc lights, are not required at all.

On an average, after every 50 hours' burning, the carbons have to be renewed. The new lamp, as opposed to this, will require no attention for at least 12 months, except an occasional outside cleaning. It is simply an airtight glass globe from which the air has been exhausted. Inside are two L shaped aluminium arms tipped with platinum, which take the place of the old fashioned carbon and are regulated by a pendulum.—London News.

Lavish Nick and Frugal Billy.

The Czar Nicholas II has the reputation of being the most liberal of sovereigns, particularly in regard to tips, and it is stated that when on a visit his smallest "pourboire" to the domestics is never less than 25 francs, even to servants who have but rendered him the slightest of services, while to the coachmen and servants in attendance upon his royal person the tip often exceeds 200 francs. The German kaiser is just the opposite to this, and although he travels perhaps more than any other sovereign he is very careful with his gratuities, which seldom exceed 2 or 3 marks.—Brussels Petit Bleu.

New Incohonee to Old Incohonee.

No secret society man has ever received such a tribute as was paid to Judge Robert T. Daniel at Griffin, Ga., the other night. Judge Daniel has just passed out of office as great incohonee of the Improved Order of Red Men. To show the high esteem in which he is held by the order the present great incohonee, George E. Green of Binghamton, N. Y., came to Griffin to present to Judge Daniel a testimonial prepared by the great council of the United States. The presentation took place in Griffin's Opera House, which was crowded to the doors.—Atlanta Constitution.

EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

FORCE SENT TO ILOILO

Warship and Transports With Soldiers Started.

NEWS FROM DEWEY AND OTIS.

The Admiral Dispatched the Baltimore. Two Regiments of Soldiers and a Battery Sent—Active Measures to Be Taken to Suppress Lawlessness.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Cable advices were received here from General Otis, commanding the military forces in the Philippines, that he had dispatched two regiments and a battery of artillery to Iloilo on army transports, and Admiral Dewey notified the navy department that the cruiser Baltimore had sailed from Manila for the same place.

It is explained that these officers are acting upon their own discretion in the matter and that no official advices have been received here to indicate that there is any unusual lawlessness in Iloilo.

Several days ago it was reported by way of Madrid that the Spanish forces in Iloilo had been attacked by the insurgents and had driven them back with heavy losses, but this report lacks official confirmation. The United States expedition is more in the nature of a precaution, but will take active measures for the suppression of lawlessness in case the condition of affairs requires it.

NOT BOUND BY TREATY.

Congress Has Disposition of Philippines' Ratification of Treaty Will Not Curtail Such Privilege.

WASHINGTON, Dec 27.—Senator Frye talked to a reporter with respect to the conditions attending and resulting from the peace negotiations.

With respect to the frequently repeated statement in press dispatches that the sentiment of the powers, with the exception of England, was opposed to the United States and looked with disfavor upon the attitude of this government in dealing with Spain, Senator Frye said:

I saw no evidence of such sentiment existing outside of France and in France that sentiment appeared to be confined to the press, which does not reflect the sentiment of the nation nor of the people generally.

Do you think there will be an early restoration of cordial relations between Spain and the United States?

I think that very soon after the ratification of the peace treaty and the restoration of diplomatic relations there will be no difficulty about negotiating commercial treaties and a treaty for the release of prisoners and such other matters directed toward the perfect restoration of friendly relations between the two governments. I do not believe that the Spanish government will be at all disposed to keep up unfriendly feeling between the two governments. The making of new treaties adapted to the present conditions will be better than would the restoration of the old treaties, some features of which were obsolete.

What has been published with respect to the treaty of peace seems to indicate, does it not, that this government is not committed by these negotiations with respect to the future disposition of the territory, the Spanish sovereignty over which has been relinquished?

It indicates very strongly that this government is not committed in any way whatever with respect to the disposition and government of these islands. If we are insane enough to do so, we might give them all back to Spain after the ratification of the treaty. If we were fools we might divide them up among the other foreign powers. The whole matter is left in the hands of congress. Congress can make any disposition of the islands it sees fit. The ratification of the treaty will not in any way curtail any privileges of ours in this direction.

SEVEN DEATHS.

General Otis Reported the Demise of Soldiers In the Philippines.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—The following cable message was received at the war department from General Otis, dated at Manila, dated Dec. 26.

"Following deaths since last report—Dec. 16, Frank N. Knouse, private, Company C, First Nebraska, drowned in Pasig river, accident; Dec. 18, Marvin M. Carleton, sergeant, Company E, Thirteenth Minnesota, gunshot wound, accident; Dec. 19, Fred Taylor, private, Company L, First Nebraska, typhoid fever; Dec. 20, Frank C. Hayden, private, Company D, Fourteenth infantry, ulcer of stomach; Joe D. Wilson, private, Company L, Twenty-third infantry, smallpox; David J. Saunders, private, Company I, First Colorado, smallpox; Nov. 29, Ole G. Hagberg, sergeant Company D, First Idaho, exhaustion following typhoid fever, not previously reported."

AGUINALDO REPORTED FRIENDLY.

Said to Have Tried to Overcome Opposition to the Americans.

MANILA, Dec. 27.—The so-called congress of the revolutionary government of the Filipinos, which has been in session for some time at Malolos, unexpectedly adjourned, owing to the difficulty of formulating a constitution.

General Aguinaldo came to Santa Anna, a suburb of Manila. He then visited Paterno, and it was reported he had gone to Cavite Viejo, the old town of Cavite. Reliable advices say that while he was at Paterno he was indefatigable in his efforts to overcome the policy of the militant faction, which is hostile to the Americans. It is probable that his influence will avail to avert trouble.

TO DEPART FOR CUBA.

Gen. Bates With Some Ohio Soldiers and Others to Embark.

MACON, Ga., Dec. 27.—General Bates, in command of the First division, First Army corps, arrived here from Washington, and with his staff and some 40 men of the Second Ohio regiment and the Third Engineers left for Charleston, where they will embark on the transport Minnewaska for Cuba.

Arrangements are being made for the muster out of the Third North Carolina and the Sixth Virginia.

AMERICUS, Ga., Dec. 27. — The Twelfth New York left for Charleston, where a transport will be taken for Matanzas. The Eighth Massachusetts is the only regiment left here.

A RICH MAN'S MISSION.

Lindus Cody Going to Cuba to Start Mission Work For the Christian Alliance.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 27.—Lindus Cody, a wealthy real estate dealer of this city, who is an enthusiastic supporter of President Simpson of the Christian alliance, will depart for Cuba Jan. 9, for the purpose of starting mission work on the island in behalf of the alliance. Mr. Cody talked the matter over with President Simpson last summer and won his interest. He contributed a liberal sum as the nucleus of the necessary fund, which has since increased to several thousand dollars. Rev. Samuel L. Renicks of New York will accompany Mr. Cody, also a worker in the alliance who can speak Spanish.

One of the large tents used at the Christian Alliance campmeetings will be set up at Santiago and the work commenced there, the design being to thence branch out over the island. As soon as the work is well under way, Mr. Cody will return to America.

A LIMA BANK ROBBED.

Over $18,000 Mysteriously Disappeared From American National—Apparent Work of Professionals.

LIMA, O., Dec. 27.—There has been a mysterious robbery at the American National bank, the amount stolen being placed at $18,162. The janitor discovered the door of the vault open. The inner doors were opened by President Michael and Cashier Kalb, when it was found that all gold and paper money in the bank had been carried away, although the racks of silver money were untouched.

A deposit of $16,000 made on Saturday night was gone.

The directors of the bank held a meeting, at which an assessment was made to meet the deficiency, and other banks in the city offered assistance.

The manner of entrance to the bank of the robbers is a mystery, as all windows are protected with heavy iron screens. The front door was found locked as usual. There was not the slightest clue for detectives to work upon. The robbery apparently was the work of professionals.

WANTED BY WIRE TRUST.

Negotiations Commenced For the Cleveland Rolling Mill Plant.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 27.—The announcement made several days ago that overtures had been made to the Cleveland Rolling Mill company for the purchase of its big plant by the wire trust has been confirmed.

President H. A. Chisholm states that an offer had been made to his company and that action would be taken upon it next month, when the proposition can be laid before the stockholders at the regular annual meeting. Mr. Chisholm would not make public the offer made to the company, but he did say that he thought it would likely be accepted.

The Cleveland rolling mill plant is among the largest in the country, and employs from 3,000 to 5,000 men.

CANAL DOVER, O., Dec. 27.—The Black plate plant of the Reeves Iron company, which manufactures plates for the tinning plant here, owned by Philadelphia capitalists, has been sold to the American tin mill trust, recently organized, with headquarters at Chicago. Negotiations are also pending for the sale of the tinning plant.

Likely Burned by Her Husband.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 27.—Mrs. Winnie Hearney, aged 28 years, was found badly burned at her home in the tenement building at 103 Detroit street. Her bed was partly burned. Her husband, Joseph Hearney, a laborer, said a lamp exploded. The police obtained from the 9-year-old daughter the statement that Hearney came home intoxicated and because his wife would not get out of bed and cook him a meal, soaked some rags in coal oil, lighted them and threw them on her bed. The police placed Hearney under arrest.

Opposed to Weyler.

MADRID, Dec. 27.—The cabinet discussed various matters and it is asserted that Marshals Blanco, Campos, Primo de Rivera and Lopez Dominquez strongly oppose General Weyler's entrance into the ministry.

AGAINST PROFANITY.

Anti-Swearing League Formed In Pittsburg.

WILL ORGANIZE IN OTHER CITIES.

Men to Pledge Themselves to Observe the Third Commandment and Urge Others to Do So—Not Sectarian In Any Way—Present Officers.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 27. — A hundred Pittsburgers have formed an Anti-Swearing League, which is to be the nucleus of organized effort to quell the growing habit among men, evidenced in nearly every public place. The league will receive its members at a deposit of 5 cents each. Any man may become a member, and while women are not invited to membership, their assistance, if volunteered, will be accepted in an effort to extend the organization in Allegheny county to 50,000 members.

An anti-swearing leaguer does not need to be an active or passive member of any church society. He has only to pledge himself that he will make a diligent effort to stop the despised habit. He will be asked to get at least ten members to swell the membership of the organization, and by the "endless chain" plan, the membership will readily extend to the maximum. Auxiliaries will be organized in all the cities of the country. The same system of extending membership will make the movement an easy accomplishment.

Members will pledge themselves to exert their influence to accomplish the purpose of the league at every turn. A blaspheming friend, or acquaintance, will, when caught, be reminded of the inexcusable thing he is doing.

The third commandment is just as important as any other. It says: "Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord, thy God, in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His name in vain."

The organization in Pittsburg, which is to be the nucleus of this movement, has elected temporary officers and will be chartered. Its members will soon be seen on the Pittsburg streets wearing a button testifying to their membership.

It will not be sectarian in any way and will not take up the work of the church in any other matter. The present officers of the Pittsburg league are: A. P. Moore, president; John S. Flannery, vice president; O. A. Williams, secretary, and T. McKee Graham, treasurer.

GREENE EXPECTS TROUBLE.

He Believes American Forces Can Control the Situation In Havana—The General Will Resign.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—Major General Francis V. Greene, U. S. V., accompanied by his aide, Lieutenant Schuyler Schiefferlin, Forty-seventh New York volunteer infantry, passed through this city on their way from Havana to New York city. General Greene paid a flying visit to the war department and consulted with Adjutant General Corbin.

He said there would undoubtedly be trouble in the maintenance of order pending the transfer of the control of affairs from the Spanish government to the United States military authorities, but that he did not anticipate that it would reach proportions beyond the control of the American forces. According to his representations the feeling between the Spaniards and Cubans is intensely bitter, a serious rupture between the two factions being averted only by the presence of the American troops and the knowledge that the American military authorities are determined to preserve order by the prompt exercise of force in case of necessity.

General Greene has large private interests in New York state and gave notice to the adjutant general of his desire to be relieved from further military service.

The terms of the agreement have been pretty thoroughly covered in these dispatches recently, also the plans for the evacuation ceremonies.

ENOUGH FOOD AT DAWSON.

People on the Way Out—A Man Frozen to Death.

SEATTLE, Wash., Dec. 27. — The steamer Farallon has arrived from Alaska with a nuumber of passengers from Dawson direct who came out over the ice.

The trail is good and a large number of people are on the way out.

Among the passengers is Jack Carr, Yukon mail carrier, who left Dawson Nov. 21. He said the population of Dawson City had materially decreased, it being estimated at 16,000. Cost of living has also decreased, good meals costing but $1. There will be no food shortage this winter.

The body of J. H. Cadenhead, a Dominion land surveyor, was found frozen in the ice on the Klondike river near Dawson on Oct. 27. He had broken through the ice. Unable to pull himself out, he slowly froze to death.

SEVERAL FROZEN TO DEATH.

Much More Gold Likely to Be Taken Out In Klondike.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 27.—A special from Dawson City, dated Nov. 14, said in part: Reports from all creeks in the vicinity of Dawson City indicate that the winter's product of gold will exceed that of last year by more than 100 per cent.

Several persons are reported to have been frozen to death. One of these was found in a kneeling position beside his sled and dogs between Hunker and the summit.

Several steamers are in winter quarters on the upper river, prepared to take advantage of the first rush of traffic.

Found Dead In Bed.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Dec. 27.—Louis Hax, banker, furniture manufacturer, cattle man and promoter of many financial schemes, and Herman Garlisch, druggist, financier and a figure in state Democratic politics, have been found dead in bed at their respective homes. It is not known how long either had been dead when found. Both men were apparently in robust health. The remarkable coincidence in their mysterious and sudden deaths causes much speculation.

Sensational Shooting Affray.

TEXARKANA, Tex., Dec. 27.—At Fouke, Ark., two men named McKnight and Firquin quarreled and fought over a trade. McKnight drew a revolver and fired at Firquin, but fatally wounded White Easley. Easley died within a few minutes, but while life lasted he drew a revolver and shot into McKnight's house, killing an 18-year-old daughter of McKnight and seriously injuring a younger daughter. McKnight is under arrest.

UNREST IN HAVANA.

Disturbances and Burglaries In Different Parts of the City.

NUMBER KILLED AND WOUNDED.

A Cuban Wounded a Spaniard For Refusing to Cry "Cuba Libre"—Marquis De Montoro's Residence Guarded by Regulars, Owing to Cuban Threats.

HAVANA, Dec. 27.—Francisco Quintero, a Spanish guerilla, while walking on Genios street was fired at from the roof of a house and seriously wounded. In 24 hours one man has been killed and 12 have been wounded in affrays in different parts of the city and eleven burglaries have been committed. The city is in a state of unrest.

A party of colored Cubans entered the wholesale grocery establishment at 113 San Jose street, owned by the Spanish firm of Mestro & Mata, and ordered Senor Mestro to kiss the Cuban flag and to cry "viva Cuba Libre." He refused to obey, whereupon one of the Cubans cut his head badly with a machete.

A Cuban mob threatened to attack the residence of Marquis de Montoro, secretary of the treasury in the autonomist cabinet and a member of the Spanish evacuation commission. The house is 193 Neptune street, in a part of the city already evacuated. On the matter being brought to the attention of the United States evacuation commissioners a guard of regulars was sent to guard the residence until further orders.

Some disturbances having occurred in San Lazare street and a Spanish store there having been sacked by the Cubans, the United States commissioners have sent a staff officer with a detachment of troops to the scene of disorder. The Eighth and Tenth regular infantry regiments are encamped near the Hotel Trocha, the headquarters of the Americans at El Elvado.

The Spanish troops are evacuating the city so rapidly that it is almost impossible for the Americans to provide promptly for the preservation of peace.

KISSED AMERICANS.

Lively Demonstration In an Havana Suburb—Fatal Shootings — Number Wounded In the City.

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—A censored special cable to The Tribune from Havana says in part:

Rioting begnn at Monserrat. A battalion of Spanish troops hurried from the barracks on the Prado to Galiano street, the dividing lide between Cuban and Spanish territory.

Order was restored, but in the firing which occurred before the troops arrived; an 8-year old Cuban child was killed by a stray bullet.

Spanish territory in the new world is now limited to a narrow strip of land between Havana harbor and Galino street. The flags of Cuba libre and the United States are waving within two blocks of the Prado, a great boulevard which runs through the center of Havana.

Monserrat having been evacuated, the place was alive with Cubans and people from the United States. Crowds of men and women waving Cuban and American flags and carrying branches of trees paraded the streets shouting and singing.

Many Americans went over to see the demonstration. They did not remain long. Owing to the intense enthusiasm the population insisted on kissing the "bravo Americanos" whether they wanted to be kissed or not.

Several affrays took place between the Spanish residents and the Cubans. A grocery keeper on Oquendo street refused to put out the Cuban colors and was beaten almost to death with sticks. As evening came on the demonstration became noisier than ever, as many of the negroes parading were drunk and greatly excited. The Americans became fearful of another clash with the Spanish troops like that which ushered in Christmas day.

Francesco Luinteso, a Spanish volunteer, patrolling the street near the Prado, was fired at from a house top and killed. A Cuban was killed in another part of the city. Half a dozen Cubans and Spaniards were shot or stabbed in affrays about the city.

There was a fight between Cubans and Spaniards in front of the United States club. Several of the participants were badly cut with machetes.

Many American soldiers who were in town behaved so boisterously that General Ludlow said he was sorry that they were permitted to come into Havana and that in future none would be admitted except on strictly military business.

DEAD IN THE CREEK

Isaac Reed Was Found Early Yesterday Morning.

HAD BEEN MISSED LATE SUNDAY

His Wife Searched For Him Throughout the Night, and Eventually Gave Up--The Body Was Discovered by a Little Girl-Heart Failure Given as the Cause.

Isaac Reed, colored, aged 60 years, was found dead in Carpenter's run in California hollow yesterday morning at 8:15 o'clock. He was the eldest son of Boss Reed and was one of the best known characters about the city. Apoplexy was the cause of his death.

The circumstances surrounding the death of Reed are peculiar. Sunday evening he left his home, situated in the ravine west from Trentvale street, to call upon a neighbor. He walked to West Market street, and after talking to several acquaintances went to Trentvale street. He stopped at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Burrows, and after remaining there a short time started for home. He took the road running along the run and midway between his home and that of Burrows he fell dead, a portion of his head lying in the water. His wife searched all of Sunday night, but was unable to find him, although she met several people who said they had seen him. Yesterday morning a small daughter of Mr. Burrows discovered the body and immediately notified her parents, who went to the scene. Mr. Burrows was reluctant about pulling the body from the water until the authorities had been notified. Mrs. Burrows pulled the lifeless body from the water and notified his family, who had it removed to their home.

Yesterday afternoon Justice Rose and Doctor Clark made an examination of the body, and heart failure was pronounced the cause of death.

The arrangements for the funeral have not been completed as yet, although it has been learned the interment will be made in Spring Grove cemetery.

Robert Webb, aged 72 years, was buried this afternoon at 2 o'clock in Riverview cemetery. Deceased was born in England and came to Liverpool 19 years ago. He was employed in several of the potteries until several years ago, and potters' complaint was assigned as the cause of death. Services were held in the Salvation Army barracks, the family being members of that organization.

CARRAHER TOOK A HEADER.

He Left a Moving Street Car With Serious Results.

Sunday night Chongeye Carraher attempted to get off a moving car in Eighth street. He did not alight on his feet, and took a severe header. It was thought he was seriously injured and the patrol wagon was called, but before it arrived Carraher had been taken to the home of his brother where it was found he had not been badly hurt.

PEDDLERS IN MANILA.

Street Venders and Some of the Wares They Handle.

ENTERTAINING MONKEY PEDDLERS

Odd Birds That Are Sold For Pets. Curious Methods of Barbers In Manila, Where Washing the Face Is Dispensed With by the Operator.

Arthur C. Johnson, special war correspondent of The Rocky Mountain News, writing from Manila under the date of Oct. 28 about the city's street venders, says:

The city of Manila at present is certainly the paradise of the peddler. If the inhabitants of the city will not buy, there is the ever ready United States soldier who will. There is a fruit vender squatting in every shady nook and plenty of shops which seem to thrive in the refreshment business. Every few days there appears on the streets a man or woman who has just "blown in" from the country with something new to inveigle coin from the soldiers. They seldom leave town without they have got rid of their stock and have the money for the same jingling in their belt pocket.

These peddlers all furnish entertainment even if they don't sell their wares very rapidly, and perhaps the most entertainment is furnished by the monkey peddler. He carries a large cage constructed from thin bamboo strips in which are the majority of his catch of monkeys. Probably two are playing tag around his neck and up and down his arms.

Monkeys are sold on the streets of Manila at the rate of from 1 to 3 pesos. None of them seems to have any particular training. Often the peddler takes considerable pains with his catch before bringing it to town and fixes each little beast up in some fancy manner. He trims the tails of some and in the ears of others he puts little gold plated earrings. In selling earringed monkeys he makes a big talk for the solid gold that goes with him. The monkey peddler sometimes entertains prospective patrons by letting the whole of his bunch out of their cage, where they have been keeping up an incessant chattering. There is a scattering for freedom in all directions. The soldiers appreciate nothing so much as they do the monkey's penchant for hunting fleas, and if a small dog is handy Mr. Monk is willing to keep at it all day, even if he be unrewarded by a single flea.

The natives of the Philippines make quite a business of birdcatching. By means of ingenious traps constructed from bamboo they catch little canaries and titmice, which in the city bring fair prices among those who like pets. The bird woman, or man, as the case may be, generally has her catch in a temporary wicker cage. In some instances the peddler does up her birds by pairs in tiny little cages all ready to sell at 5 cents per bundle. The cheapest birds are the little brown sparrows who have few accomplishments beyond a vivacious chatter and voracious appetites. The fawn colored birds with a collar of red and a bill almost in the shape of a parrot bring $2 a pair. The natives often have the bright green little parrot birds for sale. None of them can talk.

The cane seller is another of Manila's street characters. He walks up and down the Escolta with ten or a dozen ebony canes in a bag and a couple in his hand, which he thrusts out to passers by and offers to sell at prices less than a dollar. The natives are very clever at cutting and polishing ebony into graceful walking sticks, also the cocoa wood.

The soldier who is out after the real startler in the cane line buys one which consists of a piece of tapering cocoa wood covered over with the skin of a snake. In Manila the Chinese dry goods merchant goes around from house to house with a stack of linens and prints on his shoulder. When the soldiers came to town, he included socks and undershirts.

There are certain natives and Chinese who have nothing to peddle about the streets but their profession. These are barbers and car cleaners. Great numbers of these dispense with room rent and travel from one shady spot to another with a small stool on which their patrons seat themselves. The barber, who is often a Chinaman, is armed with a clumsy looking three cornered razor with a curved edge. As a whetter he carries a tiny hone in his left hand. The customer seats himself bolt upright on the stool and wears a worried look while the barber produces a half wet rag and gives the whisker region of his face a wipe or two and proceeds to business. It is almost a "dry shave," but the shavee seems not to mind it. The razor is very sharp and does its work well. A Philippine shave differs from the American shave in a startling particular, and that is the shaving of the bridge of the nose. This is the last motion the barber makes. With a graceful sweep he draws the razor along the nose, glances carefully around the face to see that it has been well scraped and demands his two centavos from the customer. No washing is considered necessary.

Garcia's Colored Servant.

The late General Garcia had an aged colored servant who was born a slave upon his father's plantation and was brought up with him from childhood. The old negro followed him in all his wars and shared his prison cells and sat beside his bed when the general breathed his last. Every time his master groaned he would groan also, and the death which came to the one will not let the other linger much longer. The faithful servant does not care to live now. His interest in life is gone and no one would be surprised if he died of grief within a short time.—Washington Cor. Chicago Record.

The Carolines.

"They've taken all the Philippines,"
The secretary said.
"Vot's dot?" inquired his majesty,
A-turnin very red.
An then he mixed a schooner of
A half a dozen wines.
"I'll dake good care," he grumbled,
"Dot dey leaf der Carolines!

"You see," explained his majesty,
"Der Carolines vos mine,
Und Spain is choost a-holdin 'em
Mit innocent design.
But, himmel! ven she let's 'em go
Und casts off all der lines—
Vell, choost watch Willie Kaiser
Ven he grabs der Carolines!"

"But tell to me, your majesty,"
The secretary said,
"How comes it that you did not take
The Philippines instead?
The Sulus and Hawaiis are
A lot that far outshines
The rather modest beauty
Of the group of Carolines."

The kaiser said a naughty word.
The secretary shook.
"Whose peesness is it?" cried his lord,
"Regardin vot I took?
I didn't grab der Philippines.
But ees dot any signs
I vill not do the very same
Apout der Carolines?"

An American Recessional.

[Forefathers' day, 1898. Dictated to President McKinley.]

Our Father, by thy gifts made bold,
Once more we raise the anthem old
Of them who crost a wintry sea
To gain thy jewel, liberty!

They left us that high heritage—
Now, in our country's golden age
May we, like them, while we do live,
Unto thy name the glory give.

Before thy swiftly conquering power
The nations all in silence cower.
Thy instruments we were, O Lord—
Shall this to us a claim afford?

Thou ledst the Pilgrims safe to land,
Yet now, close by the Pilgrims' strand,
Our ships are swept beneath the brine—
Yea, Lord, we recognize the sign.

In humbleness we seek thy face—
With contrite hearts we ask thy grace
For him whose task is just begun,
To free the children of the sun.

—Arthur Stedman in New York Tribune.

A Dream of Past Christmases.

Last night I sat by the old fireplace,
And I saw in the embers' glow
A toddling form and a laughing face
That I knew in the long ago.
I thought I heard at the side of my chair
A voice that I used to hear
Repeating the words of an evening prayer
Timidly, low and clear,
And I thought I heard the good night word
From the toddling form in white.
I knew that I dreamed, but, oh, it seemed
So real in the flickering light!

I thought I saw in the corner dim
Last night, as I used to see,
A tiny sock that was hung by him
On Christmas eve with glee,
That the children's saint might see it there
And know that a little boy
Had gone to bed with an earnest prayer
For the morrow's Christmas joy;
But I heard no beat of pattering feet,
As I did in bygone years.
I knew I but dreamed, and, oh, it seemed
That my heart would drown in tears!

The Mad Mollah.

Mad Mollah on an autumn day
Traversed the desert grim and gray.
Scaling the peak of the highest hill.
Looking for somebody fit to kill.
Fierce were his warriors and fierce was he.
Keen the bright edge of his snickersnee.
Why does he carry his head so high?
What the ambition of this old guy?
None can interpret the prophet's dream.
No one is on to his bloody scheme.
Something or other is out of whack;
Something is gone that he wants brought back.
Is it ambition or pride or what
Worries Mad Mollah, the shah of Swat?
Where is the great ahkoond of yore?
Where are the English men-of-war?
Where is the Mauser with powder breath?
Where the great cannon that speaks of death?
Mollah, Mad Mollah, will yield to shot,
Dying as game as he lived—that Swat.

Buried With His Weapons.

A doctor died and was buried at Miltonville, Kan., the other day. In the funeral procession the doctor's team was led just behind the hearse and propped on the buggy seat was the doctor's medicine case. And yet some people reject the belief that heredity has brought down to us the customs of 6,000 years ago. The earliest account of man tells us that the warrior was buried with his weapons.—Kansas City Journal.

Nun a Postmistress.

The last certificate of commission to a postmistress given by the postmaster general was that of M. Polycarpa Staigle of the order of St. Dominic. She is said to be the only nun in the United States to hold such an office and presides over St. Joseph's, in Sullivan county, N. Y., where the order of which she is a member erected last summer a sanitarium. —New York Cor. St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

SACRIFICE ON A SHIP.

Extraordinary Rites of Malay and Lascar Sailors.

ORIENTALISM IN PHILADELPHIA.

Heathen Deity Is Worshiped Under the British Flag—Sailors Offer Up a Sheep as a Tribute to the Gods of a New Country—Carry a Priest With Them Who Does Little but Officiate at the Bloody Ceremonies.

On the deck of a British steamer, the City of Dublin, and beneath the shadow of the union jack, which waved in the breeze from her masthead, there were enacted the other day ceremonies the most strange and weird ever witnessed in Philadelphia.

Had the crew been Americans, Englishmen or any other civilized nationality, the strange proceedings would have rendered the participants fit candidates for a lunatic asylum, but as the entire company, with the exception of four men, are full fledged Malays and lascars from the Malayan archipelago the performance excited only the most unbounded astonishment, not unmixed with fear on the part of those who witnessed it.

It is rather singular that there should be so many of that fierce oriental race represented on the City of Dublin. Vessels have reached Philadelphia before carrying six or sometimes a dozen who had been shipped in faroff ports to fill up the ranks of the former crew depleted by sickness or death, but probably never has a captain visited Philadelphia before the arrival of Captain Rae of the City of Dublin who evidently preferred these yellow skinned individuals to his own countrymen.

He shipped the odd assortment on the voyage out from London to Pekalongean, of which the present voyage is the conclusion, at Port Said and Aden, Arabia. He intended getting rid of them at Colombo, Ceylon, but they proved themselves such good men that he engaged more, until nearly all the original members of the crew were discharged.

The City of Dublin came up the river on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 10, and dropped anchor in the stream off Spreckels' refinery. She was boarded late that day by the inspector. Everything was all right about the manifests, and Captain Rae was told that he could tie up to pier 61 when he was ready.

"I won't be able to go into berth tonight," he replied. "There will be a high old time on board the vessel before she reaches the pier unless I am greatly mistaken."

Sunday morning there was quite a respectable crowd gathered on the quarter deck of the City of Dublin.

"According to the dictates of their religion," said Captain Rae, "they are about to celebrate their arrival in port by a ceremony which is probably the most remarkable you have ever heard of."

The crew assembled forward. A circle was formed, in the center of which appeared a weird figure. He was the priest, a character whose absence has never yet been noticed from a gathering of these singular people.

"They brought him all the way over at their own expense," said Captain Rae, "and he has had an easy berth. Unless I am in error he will now play the part of a butcher."

A dramatic scene was then enacted. The bleating of a sheep was heard, and two swarthy lascars broke into the circle, where stood the priest alone, dragging after them the terrified animal. At the same moment the crew broke into a curious chant or recitative, while the priest threw the struggling animal to the deck, placing his foot firmly upon its head. The next instant he had buried the knife into the heart of the unfortunate beast, and with incredible swiftness tore the organ from the body.

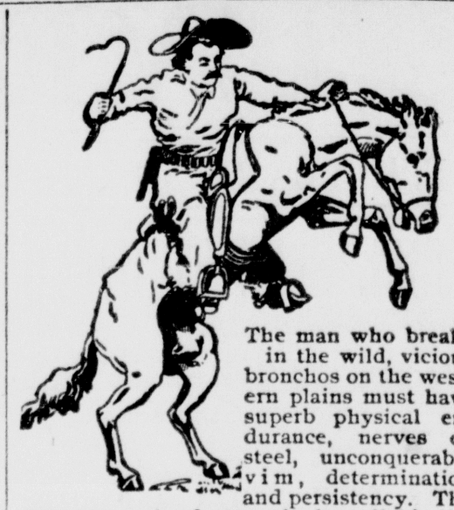

The crowd of devotees then prostrated themselves on the deck and were sprinkled with blood from the dripping morsels which were cut off by the priest. In conclusion he raised the heart three times above his head and hurled it into the water. The body of the sheep then followed suit.

About half an hour afterward, when the decks of the City of Dublin were cleared from all evidences of the sacrifice, the participants sat down to the first meal they had eaten since entering the capes 48 hours before.

The evening sunlight was streaming through a porthole when Captain Rae entered the forecastle to observe the men at their mess. The shadow of the captain at that moment fell across the table. With a volley of Cingalese oaths all that portion of food which had been touched by the shadow went flying into the sea, hurled by the indignant hands of the Malays, who saw contamination even in that contact with a Christian.

Early to Bed and Early to Rise.

Lord Salisbury always rises early and takes a walk of three or four miles before breakfast. From breakfast till 1 o'clock he is absolutely alone, and at this time nothing short of a message from the queen would reach him.—Chicago Times-Herald.

The man who breaks in the wild, vicious bronchos on the western plains must have superb physical endurance, nerves of steel, unconquerable vim, determination and persistency. The city or town bred man who has all his life humped his back over a desk, living an unhealthy, sedentary life and failed to take any care of his health, could not stay on the back of one of these vicious brutes for more than three jumps.

It takes a whole man to conquer a vicious animal. People may talk about intellectual superiority and refinement and good breeding, but every man takes off his hat to physical strength and endurance. While the man who leads a sedentary life cannot hope, in this respect, to rival these sturdy men of the plains, they can be sound, vigorous, healthy men if they will. It is a matter of care of health while one has it, and the proper measures to restore it when it is lost. Most diseases begin with some trouble of the digestive organs or of the liver. Troubles of this nature starve the body, because they prevent it from receiving its proper supply of nourishment. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery gives a man an appetite like a cow-boy's and the digestion of an ostrich. Its great work is upon the stomach, large intestines and liver. These are the organs that nourish a man's body. This medicine makes them strong, vigorous and healthy. It fills the blood with the nourishment that builds new, solid and healthy flesh, muscle and nerves.

"I am now enjoying magnificent health, after having suffered for years with chronic catarrh," writes Ramon Sanchez, Esq., of Penasco, Taos Co., New Mexico. "By the use of your 'Golden Medical Discovery' I have recovered my health, and am now, physically a sound man, attending to my business and enjoying life."

Neglect it not, delay is dangerous!
Where does it come? In the back.
Why does it come? Because the kidneys are sick.
How does it come? With aches and pains.
Backache, lame back and weak back are notices.
Notices of kidney trouble.

Don't take our advice—take your neighbors.
Lots of East Liverpool people can tell you.
There are many kidney remedies.
But only one cure.
Other kidney pills — but only one Doan's.
Here's one that knows:

Mr. W. P. Cochran, of Mulberry street, East End, says: "At intervals for thirty years I had serious kidney and bladder trouble. I suffered with all the various symptoms in their worst form. The agony I went through can hardly be described. Many nights I rolled from one side to the other trying to find an easy position for my back. I could not move without having sharp twinges of pain and I was also troubled with a urinary difficulty, the secretions being very irregular and at times distressing. I ran down so that I could hardly help myself. Doctors treated me and I took a power of stuff. I had given up all hopes of being cured, having suffered so long and not finding anything that would give me relief more than a few days. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised as a never-failing remedy, I got a box at the W. & W. Pharmacy. After taking half of it I could see some improvement. I continued to improve from that time on. Doan's Kidney Pills did me more good than anything I ever used and I am quite free in expressing my opinion of them by saying that they are a good remedy for all kidney and bladder trouble."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents, or mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no other.

Tolstoi In Demand.

Sixteen hundred rubles for each installment of a story is considered in Russia a large sum for even a celebrated author to receive, but that is the amount which the management of a St. Petersburg illustrated paper has agreed to give Count Leo Tolstoi for a new story of his which is shortly to appear in its pages. Count Tolstoi has not yet made up his mind by what title his newest production will be known, but one may wish him success, more especially as he has already decided to give every penny he receives for it to Russian charities.—Chicago Times-Herald.

THE VALISE WAS TAKEN

But Mrs. W. L. Smith Did Not Lose Money.

THE REPORT PUT IT AT $1,500

She Was on Her Way to Trenton and Missed It From the Pullman at Allegheny--It Contained Presents For Relatives and Friends--No Clue.

The following story, sent from Trenton yesterday morning, will be read with interest by the people of this place:

"Mrs. William L. Smith, of East Liverpool, O., who reached Trenton yesterday on a visit to her father, Richard Barlow, reported to the local police that a satchel containing $1,500 in money and diamonds was stolen from her on the train. She was riding in a Pullman car and missed the satchel at Allegheny, Pa., when she discovered that a similar satchel had been substituted for her own in her seat while she was in a toilet room of the car. The matter was reported to the conductor and a description was telegraphed back of a man and woman who left the car at Rochester. Mrs. Smith's husband is a pottery manufacturer of East Liverpool."

Mr. Smith was seen by a NEWS REVIEW reporter at his home in Sixth street yesterday afternoon, and in speaking of the happening said:

"I received a telegram from Mrs. Smith stating the satchel had been lost, but I am positive it contained no money, as has been stated. The jewely which was stolen were gifts which were purchased before she left home. When the railroad police were notified they made a quick search for the satchel and located it, and forwarded it to Trenton. When it was found and who took it I am unable to state."

ENDEAVORING TO ORGANIZE.

Sewerpipe Men Are Anxious For a Combination.

In speaking of the endeavor of sewerpipe manufacturers to form some sort of a combination, the Toronto Tribune says a meeting was held last Friday, the representatives being:

Charles Freeman, of the Freeman Fireclay company; T. F. Anderson, of the Knowles, Taylor & Anderson, of East Liverpool; Albert Lyth, of Wellsville; N. U. Walker, of Wellsville; Mr. Jobe, of Uhrichsville; J. M. McClave, R. M. Francy, W. B. Goucher, C. T. Young and George Myers, of Toronto.

They talked the matter over with Colonel Eastland, but T. L. Tappscott, the reported organizer of a sewer pipe trust, was not there nor has he any connection with the movement. Nothing of importance was done.

AN IMMENSE AUDIENCE

Were Entertained by the Jolly Lot Last Night.

The Grand was packed to its capacity last night, the audience having gathered to witness the performance of the "Jolly Lot" company.

Singing, dancing, instrumental music and comedy make up the performance, and a very good one it is. The wonderful trick cabin for a finish elicited applause.

The company will give another performance this evening, and there is no reason to believe it will be received with less enthusiasm than that which marked last night's entertainment.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address

Weather News From Engine Whistles.

D. E. Maxwell, general manager of the Florida Central and Peninsular railroad, has issued the following circular: "The system of signals from the engine whistle of passing trains promulgated heretofore, through the co-operation of the United States weather bureau, to forewarn fruit and vegetable growers that cold waves likely to produce frost are approaching, will be made effective again this season. The signal will be given by the whistle sounding six long blasts, requiring 30 seconds (five seconds to the blast), and will be repeated at intervals of every three miles. This will indicate a forecast of frost the first or second night thereafter."—Florida Times-Union and Citizen.

WEYLER says he would rule the Spaniards with an iron hand, and that is probably one reason why Weyler will not be given an opportunity to rule.

BEFORE a sewer pipe trust can be formed conditions must so change as to permit of the combination controlling the output. At present that seems almost an impossibility.

AFTER a silence of three years Bloody Bridles Waite is again in the public eye, this time as an advocate of expansion. It is rather hard on the President's policy, but such hardships must occasionally be borne.

AFTER the holiday business enjoyed by retail merchants throughout the country no one, no matter what may be his partisan feeling, can say the country is not enjoying that prosperity which the Republican party promised.

THE fight which Senator Quay is making in Pennsylvania will be watched with interest throughout the country. He not only belongs to the state he has so long represented in the senate, but is a national character in whom the country is interested.

THE plan of the government to rule Havana with the strong arm of military law seems justified by the lawlessness that has characterized the last days of Spanish occupation. It will serve not alone to make the city an abiding place for Americans of the right sort, but will have a healthy influence upon the thugs and crooks gathered there.

THE announcement of Judge Day that he will not be a candidate for governor does not simplify the situation in any considerable degree. He was never looked upon seriously as a candidate for the position, but it was known that if he had expressed the slightest desire to fill Governor Bushnell's shoes his friends throughout the state would have attended to the details.

CHRISTMAS THOUGHTS.

If Andrew Carnegie and Colonel Bryan are working the anti-expansion idea with the vigor they have employed in other matters of public and private interest they could not have enjoyed Christmas with the quiet pleasure of the Scotchman or the hilarious conduct of the Nebraskan. The mere fact that they have worked hard to convince the public of the position they occupy and that same public has refused to rally to their call in enthusiastic thousands is probably a source of disappointment to these men who would shine as President McKinley's foremost opponents. To one, who has decided to live in New York and become involved in the country's affairs, it means a bitter blow to his pride. To the other, who seeks the next presidential nomination of his party, it means a very serious condition of affairs. To both it proves that the American people will not be swayed against their own will.

Old Enough to Know Better.

An elderly woman, whose hair was almost as white as snow and who was so drunk she could scarcely walk, was seen in Sixth street last evening. She was being helped along by two men who had all they could do to keep her on her feet. She was well dressed.

ROBBED A WARDROBE

Doctor Beane Lost Some of His Wearing Apparel.

THE JANITOR CANNOT BE FOUND

It Is Believed That He Walked Off With the Clothing, Taking Also Some Money and Jewelry--The Police Have Notified Towns In This Vicinity.

Dr. W. A. Beane is now mourning the loss of several articles of wearing apparel.

About two months ago a young man giving his name as Charles Mackey came to town and as he was decidedly hardup he was befriended by a prominent man of the city. He finally was taken in by Dr. Beane, and permission given him to sleep in the office for which he did the janitor work of the Ikirt building. He was given some clothes, and seemed to be well pleased with his position.

In some way he secured a key to the private apartments of Doctor Beane, and for the last few evenings he has asked the doctor if he would be in early, and always received an answer in the affirmative. Saturday evening he came in the office at 6 o'clock, and found Doctor Beane there and then went out without saying anything. The doctor then went to supper, and Jeff Manley came in the office. While he was there Mackey came in and asked him what he wanted. Manley told him he was waiting for Doctor Ikirt. Mackey said Doctor Ikirt would not be in for an hour and then went out.

When Doctor Beane returned from supper he found that his room had been completely gutted, Mackey taking a new suit of clothes and another suit that had been worn but a short time, pair of patent leather shoes, overshoes, winter ulster, winter underwear, four white shirts, neckties, collars and cuffs, cuff buttons and holder, box of cigars, half dozen linen handkerchiefs, clock, watch fob and Elk's head, Elk pin, penknife, dime savings bank, money in clothes and a valise. He also took a new hat and left his old one.

The police were at once notified of the theft, and the police in the neighboring cities were communicated with to keep a lookout for Mackey. The railroad detectives were also notified and every effort will be made to apprehend the thief. There is as yet no clue to his whereabouts.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Taylor yesterday afternoon received their friends at their home in Sixth street, the spacious rooms being filled with a merry throng from 2 until 6 o'clock. The handsome billiard room recently added to the residence was thrown open to the guests, and Manley's band made excellent music. Lunch was served. It was without question a delightful entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Grosshans will entertain friends this evening at cards.

Mrs. Clara Humrickhouse will entertain this evening.

Mrs. J. R. Hill next Tuesday evening will entertain a number of lady friends.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS

Was That Enjoyed by the Congregation of St. John's Church.

Christmas was celebrated by beautiful and impressive services at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran church last Sunday. In the morning Reverend Reinartz preached on the subject, "Glad tidings of great joy." In the evening a large audience listened to a program consisting of music by the choir and Sunday school, and recitations by the children. Reverend Frischkorn made an address in which he pointed out the lesson which the Christmas tree teaches us, and how every gift which gladdens the heart at this time is to remind us of God's greatest gift.

Reverend Reinartz made a short address in behalf of the fatherless, who particularly at this joyous season appeal to the love and sympathy of their Christian friends. The offering for the orphans amounted to $25 and will be sent to the home at Zelienople.

QUAY'S RESIGNATION.

Rumor That It Is to Be Written Out, to Be Presented If He Is Convicted.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 27.—It is reported that Senator Quay, to secure an early caucus nomination for United States senator, is willing to write out his resignation for presentation to the governor in the event of his conviction of the criminal charges against him.

It is said that he proposes to overcome the scruples of legislators against attending the Republican caucus by writing out his resignation as United States senator and placing it in the hands of a common friend of both sides, to be presented to the governor, should the trial of the senator's cases result in a verdict of guilty, the vacancy to be filled by the coming legislature before its adjournment.

WELLSVILLE.

THE POLICE WERE BUSY

Gathering In Those Who Broke the Law.

IT WAS A VERY LIVELY DAY

Two Conflicts of More Than Unusual Importance Caused Excitement--Christmas In the Churches--All the News of Wellsville.

A large number of Wellsville people endeavored to celebrate Christmas by filling themselves with bad whisky.

Early in the afternoon a fight was started in the saloon of John Martin, Front street, and the police were sent for. They succeeded in quelling the disturbance and the offenders were taken to jail. This did not finish the work of the police, and they were called to Mrs. O'Donnell's, Third street, to stop another fight. More arrests followed, and the parties are being given a hearing this afternoon.

Christmas Services.

The usual Christmas services and treat were held in most all the churches last evening, though several observed their usual custom of celebrating Christmas eve. At the First Presbyterian church Sterrett's orchestra was present and added much to the pleasure of the evening, but at most of the churches the program was rendered by the Sunday school scholars.

Christmas services were held at the Church of the Immaculate Conception at 6, 7:30 and 10 in the morning. The atttendance at all services was large. The pastor, Reverend Halligan, officiated and preached appropriate sermons. The junior and senior chorus, assisted by Nowling's orchestra, rendered some very fine music. The altar was decorated in a neat and effective manner and the offering was generous.

From Far Away Friends.

Mrs. Theodore Apple and Mrs. A. Jones, of Yellow Creek, received a box of mistletoe Saturday, which was sent them by their sister, Mrs. K. Ross, from southern Texas. It was fresh and very full of berries. Many of their friends shared with them, and much appreciated the rare speciman.

News of Wellsville.

Miss Margaret Silver entertained her Sunday school class at dinner today.

Jesse Holloway, the Irondale druggist, spent Christmas with his mother Mrs. Rachel Holloway, Main street.

Mrs. Ann Henderson, who has been much improved in health, is again reported very seriously ill.

Frank Goodlin, who was sent by Poor Director W. C. Fraser on last Friday to Toronto, has since been adjudged insane by the local authorities. Goodlin claims Knoxville, Jefferson county, as his home.

Professor J. L. McDonald is absent attending the executive meeting of the State Teachers' association. He will also attend a meeting of the county examiners, which will be held in Columbus, at the close of the executive meeting.

Manager Davis, of the Armour branch, while coming out of the Kountz meat market slipped and fell. One arm went through a window and the foot of a dead porker was driven through the other window, while a glass in the basement was broken because a turkey tried to escape.

Miss Ada Brockett left this morning for a visit with friends in Wheeling, W. Va. She will probably remain two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Chronaker, of Shadyside, spent Christmas with their son, Benjamin Chronaker, of Broadway. They returned home today.

The colored Knights of Pythias held a hop and cake walk at the city hall last evening.

The ladies of the Church of the Ascension held a cake sale at Bowers store on Saturday from 3 o'clock. All of the cakes were quickly disposed of and more could have been sold. A neat sum will be added to the church treasury.

Edward McSwiggen, who fell from an electric light pole a distance of 30 feet on the 10th of this month, is slowly recovering, and is able to walk about his room. His recovery is considered remarkable by both his friends and physician.

Officers Raided a Game In a Shantyboat.

SCHNEIDER OWNS THE CRAFT

Two Charges Were Placed Against Him, but He Wanted to Stand Trial and Will Be Heard This Week--Lively Scenes.

Saturday night the boat house owned by Edwin Schneider was raided by Officers White, McMillan, Mahony and Whan. The owner of the boat and eight visitors were arrested.

For some time the officers have understood that gambling was being done in the boat which is tied to the beach back of the Cleveland and Pittsburg passenger station, and Saturday when they were sure of their game they made the raid. The clock in the Central school was about to strike the hour of midnight when they entered the boat and saw a game of poker going on. The money which was on the table was quickly snatched by all around it and the cards were scattered about the floor. When quiet had been restored, those in the boat were arrested. The owner of the boat was charged with gambling and permitting gambling in his boat, while the visitors, Thomas Daily, Charles Gallagher, colored, Emmett Green, Charles Parker, William Farrish, Dunk Pickering, Edward Millhorn and Harry Coss were charged with gambling.

Schneider came to city hall this morning and plead not guilty to the charges. The date for the hearing has not been set.

When a reporter saw Schneider this morning he said: "The boat was anchored in 14 feet of water and no lines were attached to the shore. The officers had no right to arrest us or else they would have us taken to jail.

"The first big game was played Saturday night although several smaller games were played during the last week or so. Those who were on the boat when the officers appeared will not enter a plea until some disposition has been made of mine."

TRUST EXPERTS HERE

They Will Look After the Work of Taking Stock.

MEETING WAS HELD YESTERDAY

Representatives of All Concerns In the Combination Discussed Final Arrangements For Closing the Deal--Mr. Wolf, of Peoria, Went Home Well Pleased.

The closing of the deal whereby the great majority of the pottery manufacturing concerns are to become part of the American Potteries Company was discussed at a meeting of local potters yesterday.

The particular question under discussion was the invoicing of the plants and stock on hand. It was learned that expert accountants had been ordered from New York, and would be here to aid in the work as soon as possible. The meeting was resolved into a general discussion of the matter and was most harmonious.

T. P. Howard, C. D. DeLong and A. L. Tolifferro, the accountants in question, have arrived from New York, and are ready to take up the work here. Their stay in the city is indefinite, but the task will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

MURPHY IS NOT IN.

The Company Is Not Connected With the Trust—No Reason Is Given.

It was rumored today that the Murphy Pottery company was not in any way connected with the trust. The information came from a reliable source, but was so startling as to be doubted.

"I don't know the particulars of the story you mention," said Geo. C. Murphy to the NEWS REVIEW, "but it is true that our concern is not in the trust. I prefer not to discuss the matter at this time."

During the negotiations that have been in progress looking to the formation of the trust it has been accepted as a fact that the Murphy company was listed among those who would form the combination. Until this time it has never been hinted that it was on the outside.

WELL SATISFIED.

Mr. Wolf, of Peoria, Came Here For Important Information.

President Wolf, of the Peoria Pottery company, returned to his home today after a brief stay in the city. To a NEWS REVIEW man he said:

"Yes, our pottery will be a part of the trust, but I did not come here for that purpose. I came to obtain some important information which we needed, and am going back this afternoon. I think the trust will be a good thing for all concerned, particularly for East Liverpool. You here have no cause to complain."

No More Bullfights.

The last of the bullfighter probably has been seen in Havana. During the war the bulls were all eaten. After the raising of the blockade the project of importing bulls from Mexico was discussed, but was finally abandoned. Now it seems likely that before any bulls can be provided the pastime will be forbidden. The natives expect to see their bullfighting abolished as a matter of course, and there probably will be no protest. The intelligent Spaniards understand that the United States will not tolerate the pastime.—Havana Cor. Chicago Record.

PUT ON HEAVY FINES

Mayor Bough Not Lenient to Christmas Lawbreakers.

ONE GIVEN $15 AND COSTS

Because He Was Drunk and Disorderly and Resisted an Officer--The Remainder of the Long List Imbibed Too Freely and Were Caught.

While the Christmas cheer prevailed about city hall yesterday those who were arrested Saturday night and Sunday were shown no mercy by Mayor Bough. Heavy fines were imposed on all the prisoners and some received workhouse sentences.

Saturday night a telephone message was sent to the fire station to the effect that trouble was brewing in West Market street and George Garven was the cause. Officer Woods was detailed and going to the residence of a Mr. Dugan arrested Garven. He was fighting drunk, and resisted arrest as only a man in such a condition knew how. Harry Buxton assisted the officer and Garven damaged his hat in such a manner that it could not be worn. Jesse Lanning got mixed in the affair and was also struck in the face. The patrol arrived, and Officer Bryan in assisting Woods had his coat torn and was hit in the side. Woods' coat was also torn. Garven was taken to jail, and when searched a pint of whisky was taken from him. At the hearing he presented a pitiable sight. His bushy hair and unclean appearance did not have any effect on the mayor, and he was fined $15 and costs and ordered to pay $3 for a new hat for Buxton. He was charged with being drunk, disorderly conduct and resisting an officer. He paid the bill.

Bartlet Brown was arrested Sunday afternoon in the Diamond by Officer Grim and taken to jail. He was charged with being drunk, and yesterday morning was fined $7 60. He did not have the necessary funds at the time and was sent back to jail. Later in the day friends appeared and secured his released.

George Brown, a brother of Bartlet Brown, was arrested by Officer McDonald yesterday afternoon in West Market street for causing trouble in a saloon near Seventh street. He was taken to jail in the patrol and a charge of drunk and disorderly was placed against him. While he was being put in jail a woman wanted to get him out but his release was not obtained until this morning when he was asked to pay a fine of $9.60, which he did.

The patrol and Officer McCullough was the cause of Robert Sodager being placed in jail on a charge of drunk and disorderly. He paid a fine of $9 60 this morning and was released.

Furn Carroll caused trouble in a Third street boarding house yesterday and as a result he was arrested by Officer Woods. He was very drunk, and the officer was almost compelled to drag him to jail which is a short distance from the boarding house. He managed to have $7.60 when the mayor saw him this morning and he was told to go home. He went.

Officer Grim arrested a bum yesterday afternoon, but he was released early this morning without a fine.

Several complaints were made yesterday and it is very probable a number of arrests will be made before the week ends.

James Wilson went before the mayor yesterday morning to make affidavit against a young man who cut his brother, Matthew, last Friday evening. The mayor told the young man to have his brother come around and in the meantime an investigation would be made.

This Christmas there were six arrests made on common charges and nine on charges of gambling. Last year the record was as follows: Arrests, 17; patrol runs, 10. The officers' records were: Chief Johnson, 1; Woods, 4; Bettridge, 8; Earl, 3; Rose, 1; Jennings, 1; Bryan, 2; Whan, 1. The time consumed in hearing the cases occupied 14 minutes, four minutes being the largest for one case. The fines amounted to $92.40.

AIMS OF THE FILIPINOS.

Wealthy Manila Citizen Tells of Their Sentiments.

ANNEXATION THE GENERAL WISH.

Don Maximo Cortez Says Aguinaldo Has No Standing and Could Not Establish a Stable Government—Some New Light on the Character and Influence of the Dictator and His Envoy. Agoncillo—Better Class Distrust Them.

The Cortez brothers, who are members of one of the wealthiest and most influential families of Filipinos in Manila, recently gave out an interesting statement regarding the condition of affairs in the Philippines from the point of view of the annexationists and also with regard to the standing of Aguinaldo and his representative to the United States, Agoncillo, and their standing among the better classes of Filipinos.

Concerning the annexation of the islands, Don Maximo Cortez stated:

"The better classes of our people are heartily in favor of the annexation of the islands of the archipelago to the United States. We are tired of Spanish rule and have from time to time fought for our independence from Spain, but have been sold out by those who were recognized as our leaders, but to whom Spanish gold was more tempting than the liberty of their countrymen. We now see that we are to be freed from Spain, and we desire the establishment of a government which will be stable and insure protection to the lives, liberty and property of the people.

"Such a government we don't believe can be established independently; certainly not by the insurgent or revolutionary party which recognizes Aguinaldo as its president. Personally we have nothing against Aguinaldo. We don't regard ourselves as his enemies or his intimate or personal friends. Aguinaldo is himself a person of the lower ranks, who has little or no education and no knowledge of how governmental affairs should be conducted. He is the creature of circumstances, having placed himself at the head of a revolutionary movement at the time when the people were ripe for it, and in spite of the fact that he once sold out to the Spaniards he was nevertheless received with open arms upon his return and placed himself at the front in favor of revolting against Spain, which was popular with the people. In this manner he pushed himself to the head of the revolutionary government, but this government the people cannot trust. We don't know what he is going to do next. His lieutenant general is a Chinaman, with no education, and is scarcely able to speak the Spanish language, and this is to a large extent the character of men with whom he has surrounded himself. They are not men of standing from the better classes, in whom the people can place confidence.

"Aguinaldo is, however, right with regard to the friars. They have ruled and ruined the people and the country They have taken many millions yearly from the people for which there has been absolutely no return. Many of these millions have been appropriated to their own use, while a large portion of the wealth they have wrung from the poorer classes has been sent out of the country. The $10,000 ransom which he demands for the release of certain friars is no more than just, inasmuch as they are held as prisoners of war, and this amount would in no way compensate for what they have robbed the people of within the past year alone This treatment of these friars by the Filipinos is as gentle and kind as could be expected. They have not been ill treated, and I must say for the insurgent government that it has done well by its prisoners of war, and the enemy has no ground for complaint of the treatment received by the friars or other prisoners.

"As for Agoncillo," the statement of Senor Cortez says, "he is a small lawyer in what might be called a country town. He is without reputation or any special standing with his people or the better class of them. He has no fortune, as he has represented. The money which he is spending has come from the purses of the Filipinos, who supposed he was going to accomplish some great mission which would be of great value and service to them. During the last insurrection he was one of the followers of Aguinaldo, and when Spain purchased peace by the payment of a large sum of money Agoncillo went with Aguinaldo to Hongkong, where the plotters had considerable difficulty in distributing the booty, and the matter was only amicably settled by the interference of United States Consul Wildman, who adjusted their affairs satisfactorily. He followed Aguinaldo upon his return to the islands and became one of his best friends and followers. The money which he is spending upon his pleasure trip abroad is not his own, as he has represented, for he has no considerable fortune, but it is the money furnished him by Filipinos, and now they don't expect to receive a cent of it in return or to see anything accomplished by its expenditure. Again I say we cannot trust the government of so many millions of people to this class. What we prefer is to have the islands annexed to the United States and governed by that country."—Special St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

NIVEN OFF FOR MEXICO.

The Mineralogist and Explorer to Spend a Year There.

William Niven, the New York mineralogist, started the other night on a year's trip to Mexico to continue his work of exploration among the mountains in the state of Guerrero. The story of his discovery of a ruined city in those mountains, with many temples and pyramids and the remains of dwellings of a great population, has been partly told in the New York Tribune, and accounts have also been given of the rare and valuable minerals discovered by him on Manhattan Island and at West Paterson, N. J., in 1895 and 1896, and more recently in Arizona last summer.

Mr. Niven's equipment for his expedition included insect proof tents, rifles and ammunition, camera outfits, tools, compressed foods, gold pans, assay outfit, surveying instruments, etc., weighing in all over a ton. He will make a careful collection of all interesting objects of natural history found and will develop the gold placer mines discovered on his last trip to the ruined city. From that trip, in addition to a collection of antiquities, he brought home samples of placer gold obtained from the streams of the country and adjacent territory of the ruined city, which serve to give color at least to the legend that this region was the source of Montezuma's wealth. He located more than 600 mining claims, covering all the most valuable auriferous deposits, the titles for which are now being perfected by the Mexican government. Under the concession granted to him by the federal government of Mexico Mr. Niven proposes to carry on a systematic exploration throughout the coming year of all the region, uncovering the ancient ruins of this prehistoric city and bringing to light, if possible, the hidden treasures of this unknown and extinct race, whose relics show that they were of no ordinary state of civilization.

Through the generosity of Morris K. Jesup, president of the American Museum of Natural History, who defrayed the expenses of his second expedition, Mr. Niven was enabled partially to explore this interesting region and obtain many specimens for the Jesup collection of Mexican antiquities now in the possession of the museum. After making two more successful trips to the region Mr. Niven obtained an exclusive concession from the Mexican government, giving him the right to explore and excavate for antiquities in the districts of Aldama, Hidalgo, Bravos, Guerrero and Alvarez, covering an area of 8,000 square miles.—New York Tribune.

ROUND TRIP TO MANILA.

What It Costs and the Quickest Way to Go There.

"I want to go to Manila," said the tall man with the gray beard. "I want to go first class and by the quickest route. How much will the trip cost me?" The tourist agent grabbed up a handful of papers, ran them over quickly, and after a minute or so said:

"The only way to get to Manila is by way of Hongkong. The fare to Hongkong from New York is $303.50 in American money. From Hongkong to Manila, a journey of three days or a little more, the cost of transportation is $75 in Mexican money. You have the choice of half a dozen railway routes across the continent to the Pacific coast, and this journey can be made in five days if necessary. From the west coast there is a choice of two routes to Hongkong by some of the finest and fastest steamers on the Pacific.

"The journey from San Francisco to Hongkong averages about 29 days, divided as follows: From San Francisco to Honolulu, 7 days; to Yokohama, 12 more; to Hiogo, 2; to Nagasaki, about the same time; to Shanghai, 3 days. Hongkong is three days' journey from Shanghai. There is another way to go, but the way I quote is the best. The regulation amount of baggage is allowed and the accommodations are equal to those found on the Atlantic. There are first class banks and business houses both at Hongkong and Manila, so that a traveler need not worry about drafts, cables or the like. One could make a round trip to Manila and meet all reasonable expenses for between $900 and $1,000."—New York Mail and Express.

The American University.

The semiannual meeting of the board of trustees of the American university was held recently at the Arlington hotel. At the request of the chancellor Bishop C. C. McCabe made known to the board that he proposed to organize an alliance of 1,000 ministers who should pledge themselves to raise $1,000 each, thus securing for the endowment alone $1,000,000. Later in the meeting C. C. Glover handed to Bishop McCabe a check for $1,000, being the first $1,000 actually paid upon this $1,000,000 endowment fund. A second movement, known as the Woman's Guild of the American University, will also be inaugurated by Bishop McCabe, the purpose of which is to raise a second million dollars.—Washington Post.

NOVEL COLONY SCHEME

Plan of Movement Started by a Parkersburg (W. Va.) Man.

WEISER'S COMMUNION OF MANKIND

Leader of the Colony Makes a Special Appeal to Women to Become Members—The Scheme Is to First Colonize on the Co-operative Plan All Who Will Join the Order In West Virginia—He Appeals Especially to Farmers—Initiation Fee From Two Cents Upward.

Joseph Weiser of Parkersburg, W Va., a quaint old German, who is seen daily about the Lehman hotel, at which hostelry he is employed as a sweeper, is the leader of the movement now gaining much strength throughout the state to colonize the poorer classes of the cities and settle them upon the thousands of acres of wild and mountainous land in the interior of the state.

Weiser styles his scheme the Communion of Mankind and makes a special appeal to the fair sex to become members of his band. Weiser is of German parentage. He has been a resident of the United States 36 years and claims to have spent all his earnings in advancing the cause of the poorer classes. His appearance indicates that he is not a spendthrift, and it is believed by all who know him that he is miserly and possesses much wealth, the bulk of which he has secured from the classes who have subscribed to his colonization scheme. He resides in a little out of the way house in the eastern suburbs of the city and is unmarried. By himself he sits nightly and works out his plans and is sanguine of converting to the cause thousands of the laboring classes of the larger cities.

His scheme is to first colonize on the co-operative plan all the people who will join the order in West Virginia, and he is delighted over the success of his movement so far, making a special appeal to the farming element. To join the Communion of Mankind is required: First, to be introduced by an officer of the Communion of Mankind or any one already a member; second, to pay any amount of initiation fee from 2 cents upward; third, to be registered.

Weiser suggests that all farmers, for their own good, should consolidate all their land into company homes, 1,000 acres to the home, each home to hold from 50 to 100 inhabitants according to the fertility of the soil. The homes are to be conducted and cultivated on a company system, and the dividends divided on the same plan, the occupants of each home to dwell in a common mansion managed after the best hotel system. Weiser claims the method the more recommendable, because it will very much facilitate and shorten all labor and save much money and time and afford more rest and recreation and offer greater facilities for mental improvement and social enjoyment.

All initiation fees from $1 upward are used in paying rewards, defraying current expenses and buying land for colonization and establishing all other branches of industries. The colonies are to be governed and managed by a three-fourths majority of the members, the president being the executive officer, all officials to be appointed.

In his appeal to the women Weiser says: "Since God himself declared that you should be women, be thankful for it; be proud of your sex; glory in your femininity; command admiration, respect and honor to your exalted dignity by wielding your all conquering influence and power for the highest advancement of womanhood and by aspiring to reach to the very pinnacle of nobility and grandeur."

Weiser declares he will meet with success and will show to the world that others besides the wealthy and educated men of the colleges can perform great things. The eccentric old fellow is 61 years of age, small in stature and weighs probably 140 pounds. When discussing his plans and the object of his movement and the great benefit poorer classes will receive from the organization, he becomes very enthusiastic and much excited.

In answer to the question whether or not he had received much financial aid, he replied, "The movement is progressing nicely, and only time will be required in making it a success, as from outside sources I have received much encouragement."—Special Cincinnati Enquirer.

Heavy Western Porkers.

There was recently received at the Union stockyards in Cincinnati a hog which weighed 890 pounds. It was in a crate and was shipped to the firm by boat on the Ohio river from Kentucky. A well known buyer purchased the mammoth curiosity, and after giving it two good meals, repacked it and shipped it to one of his customers at Dayton, O. The hog was exhibited there before being slaughtered. This is the largest hog ever sold in the Cincinnati market with one exception. A few weeks ago there was received at the yards a hog weighing 920 pounds, or 30 pounds more than the Kentucky production. This one came from Indiana.

UNION LABELS.

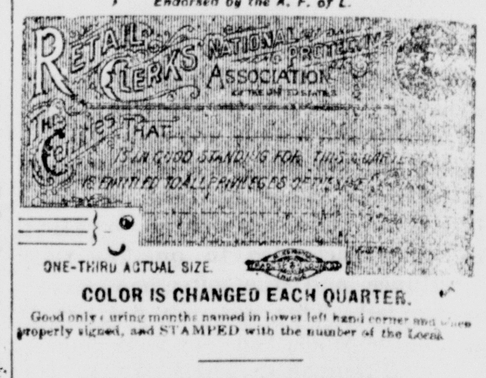

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers, and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours, and union labor employed.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.

The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

The Journeyman Tailor's Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the under side of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE HATS.

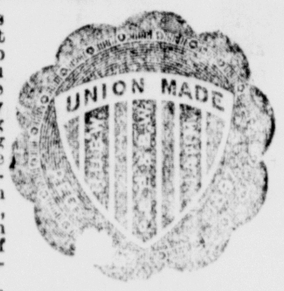

This Label is about an inch and a half square, and is printed on buff-colored paper. It is placed on every union made hat before it leaves the workman's hands. If a dealer takes a label from one hat and places it in another, or has any detached labels in his store, do not buy from him, as his labels may be counterfeit, and his hats may be the product of scab or non-union labor.

UNION MADE CLOTHES.

You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants.

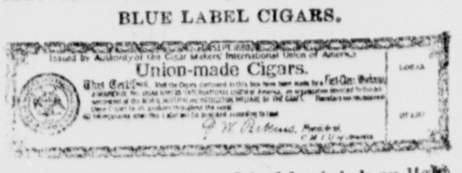

BICYCLE LABEL.

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pea green, bordered by gold.

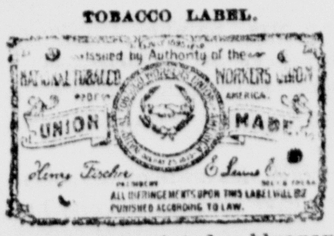

The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the tube that receives the seat post.

BLUE LABEL CIGARS.

This label is printed in black ink on light blue paper, and is pasted on the cigar-box. Don't mix it up with the U. S. revenue label on the box, as the latter is nearly of a similar color.

TOBACCO LABEL.

The above Label, printed on blue paper, will be found on all plug tobacco and on the wrappers of chewing tobacco manufactured in union tobacco factories.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size fac simile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions and in clean and healthy bakeshops. Following is the confectioners' and cracker Label:

THREE MEN SUSPECTED

As the Parties Who Robbed Liverpool Stores.

WILL BE HEARD WEDNESDAY

In Steubenville, Where They Are Now Confined -- Detective Shiffler, of the Cleveland and Pittsburg, Has Been Following the Party For a Long Time.

Through the untiring efforts of Detective Shiffler of the Cleveland and Pittsburg road, there will go on trial in Steubenville tomorrow morning three desperate characters, to whom the detective thinks may be traced the recent robberies in his city. The names of the men now in jail at that place are Jim and John Seeley, brothers, known to the police as river pirates, and William Hawk a well-known character, residing at times in Parkersburg. The men, it is charged, make their living by stealing and the plunder they secured was stored in two boat houses in which they lived. The men operated in the river towns from Smith's Ferry to Bridgeport, and after robbing a place went to their boats and floated down the river to the next place. The police, when they reached the boats, found in bushel quantities coffee, beans, peas, sugar, canned goods bottled stuffs, and clothing of all description for men and women. The bulk of the goods have been identified by merchants in Ackleyville, Empire, Toronto, Brilliant and Brown's station Some goods supposed to have been taken from this place remain unclaimed.

Detective Shiffler was in this place Saturday night, and while he would not talk of his visit it is thought he was in consultation with several uptown merchants. It is said that boat houses answering the description of those raided were moored along the beach near the flint mill late in the fall.

TOOK OFF THE ROOF.

Fire Damaged the Property of J. M. Smith.

The fire department was called out at 2:10 o'clock Monday morning to the bakery of J. M. Smith, in the rear of Fourth street. They found the shop in a blaze and the fire too far progressed to extinguish with Babcocks. A line of hose was stretched and the fire was soon put out, but not until the roof of the shop and an adjoining building had been badly burned.

ODD VOYAGE ENDED BY FIRE.

Flames Stop "Dynamite Johnny's" Ferryboat Trip to Cuba.

"Dynamite Johnny" Captain O'Brien was compelled to put back to New York the other afternoon with the ferryboat J. H. Brinkerhoff after the boat had steamed about 60 miles on its voyage to Cuba. Captain O'Brien had started to take the ferryboat to Havana, where she is to run across Havana harbor between Havana and Regla. The vessel was purchased by a broker in New York who represents several Cuban capitalists. She has a crew of 11, 55 tons of coal and $1,000 worth of provisions.

The Brinkerhoff left Manning's wharf, Brooklyn, the other afternoon, her course lying along the coast as close to shore as it is possible to go. From a defect in the electric light wires running through the boat the woodwork caught fire in the engine room shortly before midnight and spread to the decks. The engines were shut down and all hands fought the flames.

It turned out that the foresight of Captain O'Brien had saved them. The last article put on board before she sailed was a 40 foot hose. Captain O'Brien had refused to leave port until this fire precaution was complete, although the absence of the hose was not discovered until orders were about to be given to put forth. This had resulted in a delay of 16 hours. Without the hose the boat would have been a total loss. The fire was extinguished while at sea. A part of the machinery was damaged and considerable of the woodwork destroyed.

The J. H. Brinkerhoff, with her queer protections from the sea, is an uncouth object. Great bulkheads, V shaped, are built fore and aft on the main deck to the pilothouse deck. Every other plank on the main deck and in the cabins has been ripped up so as to give the sea a chance to expend its force and prevent the volume of water constantly beating against the boat from tearing the decks apart. On the entire trip there will be one constant swash of ocean pouring through the little ferryboat. —New York Journal.

NEW POSTAGE STAMP.

Latest Issue of the Canadian Postal Authorities.

Letters are now coming from Canada having affixed to them specimens of a new Canadian postage stamp which has been issued to commemorate the inauguration of the penny post system between Greeat Britain and her colonies. The stamp was designed by Canada's postmaster general. It carries out the imperial idea in a striking way. Spread across the face of the stamp, which is about the size of our current Omaha exposition stamps, is a neatly executed map of the world showing the British possessions as compared with those of all other countries. The British possessions are colored bright red, while the rest of the stamp is of a pale violet tint.

Above the map is a crown surmounting a bunch of oak and maple leaves, symbolizing the union of England, the mother country, with Canada. The words "Canada" and "Postage" appear on either side. Below the map are "Xmas, 1898," and the quotation, "We hold a vaster empire than has been." The denomination of the stamp, for which there is sure to be an active demand on the part of collectors of stamps, is 2 cents, the equivalent of 1 penny —New York Sun.

Milkmaid Taught the Professor.

Rev. Dr. Upson says that he was once rusticating with Dr. Timothy Dwight, who has just resigned the presidency of Yale, when they borrowed a horse from a farmer on condition they unharnessed him when through their drive. They filled the contract except as to the collar, which they could not get off. Dr. Dwight said, "It must have been put on when he was a colt, and the way his head's grown since it's impossible to remove it." Just then a passing milkmaid told them to turn the collar round if they wanted it off. "My dear brother," said Dwight, "either of us thinks he knows ten times as much as that woman, and yet we didn't know enough to turn the collar."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

She Holds the Fate of a Nation.

At the age of 64 that extraordinary woman, the empress dowager of China, after having successfully delivered three coups d'etat, subdued innumerable revolts, broken all her enemies, and, what is more, all her former friends; after experiencing all the dramatic ups and downs of the tragedy of power, finds herself at length the sole power in China. The fate of Asia is bound up in her lacquered chair and her ivory baton If she raises her hand toward the north, Russia will triumph. If, on the contrary, she leans toward those who hold the sea, another era will commence To whatever side her favor inclines she will not be able to avert a conflict.—Paris Temps.

Historic French Piles For Paris Fair.

It has been decided to restore the palace of Versailles and the not less celebrated Trianon for the Paris exposition in 1900. The minister of fine arts has asked the chambers for an appropriation of 300,000 francs for the purpose. The famous crystal gallery where the kaiser's illustrious grandfather was proclaimed emperor will be renovated, and various other repairs and improvements will be made.—Chicago Tribune.

NEW ARENA FOR SPORTS

George Gould to Erect a Great Building at Lakewood, N. J.

WILL COVER AN ACRE OF GROUND.

Big Riding Ring, Gymnasium, Tennis Court and Swimming Pool Lighted by Electricity Will Be Features of the Building—Will Cost Several Hundred Thousand Dollars.

Georgian Court—that is the name George Gould decided on the other day for his estate at Lakewood. But that is the smallest part of the plan he has in mind. The young multimillionaire intends to have within a twelvemonth the finest country place in the United States, equalled by only a half dozen of the great baronial places of England. Mr. Gould is consulting Bruce Price, the architect, as to plans. "Spare no expense," is the order.

Mr. Gould has long had a fine house and ample grounds at Lakewood. He spends his winters there, going down after Christmas. With riding to hounds, golf and shooting, he proves himself an ideal country gentleman. He is a liberal host at the Ocean County club, Lakewood's exclusive organization, and now he has found his house is too small.

But it is no addition he is planning. He is planning—and will start work next spring—a big building where all sorts of sports may be indulged in during bad weather—a sort of country club indoors, where he and his friends can ride, swim and play tennis when snow or rain makes outdoor sport uncomfortable.

"I want," was Mr. Gould's first order, "a big arena where the children and I can ride when it's nasty outside —something as big as Madison Square Garden and laid with tanbark."

But with the working out of the scheme came other plans. The building will cover more than an acre. It will have two stories and an attic. The great private riding ring will take most of the ground story. Off it will be a score of stalls for Mr. Gould's hunters and the children's Shetland ponies.

In the basement will be a great marble swimming pool, lighted by electric globes under the water. There will be a heating plant, too, which will keep the water at 72 degrees on the coldest winter day. On the ground story there will be a court for indoor tennis and a gymnasium equipped with the latest apparatus.

All the spare space on the second floor will be made into bachelor quarters, 10 or 12 suits, with a bathroom for each. Mr. Gould often has been forced to engage quarters at the Lakewood hotel for bachelors who attended his house parties, and he wants to be free from that annoyance.

When the great building is completed, it will be the only one of its kind in America and will cost several hundred thousand dollars.—New York World.

NEW ARC LAMPS.

Made Without Carbons and Require No Attention For a Year.

Provisional protection has recently been obtained for what appears to be a valuable electric arc lamp invention. The chief merit of the new lamp lies in the fact that the ordinary carbons, inseparable from other electric arc lights, are not required at all.

On an average, after every 50 hours' burning, the carbons have to be renewed. The new lamp, as opposed to this, will require no attention for at least 12 months, except an occasional outside cleaning. It is simply an airtight glass globe from which the air has been exhausted. Inside are two L shaped aluminium arms tipped with platinum, which take the place of the old fashioned carbon and are regulated by a pendulum.—London News.

Lavish Nick and Frugal Billy.

The Czar Nicholas II has the reputation of being the most liberal of sovereigns, particularly in regard to tips, and it is stated that when on a visit his smallest "pourboire" to the domestics is never less than 25 francs, even to servants who have but rendered him the slightest of services, while to the coachmen and servants in attendance upon his royal person the tip often exceeds 200 francs. The German kaiser is just the opposite to this, and although he travels perhaps more than any other sovereign he is very careful with his gratuities, which seldom exceed 2 or 3 marks.—Brussels Petit Bleu.

New Incohonee to Old Incohonee.

No secret society man has ever received such a tribute as was paid to Judge Robert T. Daniel at Griffin, Ga., the other night. Judge Daniel has just passed out of office as great incohonee of the Improved Order of Red Men. To show the high esteem in which he is held by the order the present great incohonee, George E. Green of Binghamton, N. Y., came to Griffin to present to Judge Daniel a testimonial prepared by the great council of the United States. The presentation took place in Griffin's Opera House, which was crowded to the doors.—Atlanta Constitution.
